Historical Statement

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

(Southeastern Jurisdiction)

I Composition: The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church is composed of:

- (1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church.
- (2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
- (3) The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- (4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II Organization: The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- (1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church, 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina
- (2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837, at Petersburg, Virginia
- (3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- (4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

SESSIONS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

133 Fayetteville	June 1968	Paul N. Garber	W. Carleton Wilson	210,610	128,971
------------------	-----------	----------------	--------------------	---------	---------

NOTE: 1—Discrepancies between the number of sessions and the number of years result from two sessions being held within a given year on several occasions. The number of sessions does not include special sessions.

2—Founding Date of the oldest constituent conference is being used as the Date of Organization of The North Carolina Conference—1828. (Editor)

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, or more than twice on the same question under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of the committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and later) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.

II. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.
2. Election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences: Only clerical members in full connection and elected and registered lay delegates may vote. (Alternate lay delegates may not vote except in the absence of the delegate and then only if they are duly registered in lieu of the delegate.) All votes must be cast in the bar of the conference as determined by the conference; votes must be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the conference; ballots shall be placed by individual delegates in ballot boxes; whereupon the bishop shall declare the balloting closed.

The official ballots furnished to the delegates shall be numbered consecutively and no vote shall be valid unless cast upon the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for such particular balloting. In the event a ballot is defaced, it may be exchanged at the secretary's desk for another ballot bearing the same number. Ballots furnished to lay delegates shall be different in color from those furnished to clerical delegates. Ballots shall be distributed to official delegates by the secretary at the time the presiding officer calls for the first ballot.

III. ORGANIZATION

1. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
2. Assistant Secretaries: The secretary shall nominate his assistants and the Conference shall elect.
3. Statisticians: There shall be a conference statistician and an assistant statistician. The statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session after the meeting of the General Conference. The assistant statistician shall be elected annually upon nomination by the statistician.
4. Conference Stenographers: The conference secretary shall employ the conference stenographers.

5. Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.
6. Boards, Commissions, and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. Near the end of each quadrennium, the Chairman or President of all Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified suggested nominees to the Bishop and his Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Commissions, and Committees. The nominees shall be consulted about their nominations. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been properly notified of the organizational meeting.
7. The Conference Board of Trustees: The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
8. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
9. Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the District Superintendent of the District in which the session of the Conference is held, the pastor of the host church, and the Conference Lay Leader. This committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
10. Committee on Conference Objectives: There shall be a Conference Quadrennial Committee on Conference Objectives. (This Committee replaced by Program Council.)
11. Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of three ministers and two laymen. This committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference, and shall serve for the Quadrennium. This committee shall receive invitations and determine the place and method of entertaining the Conference sessions. The committee is requested to determine the place of holding the next Conference not later than January 1, if possible.
12. Committee on Memoirs: The Conference Secretary and the District Superintendents shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs. The members of the committee shall be charged with the responsibility of providing for all the details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall be the chairman of this committee.
13. Committee on Daily Minutes: A committee of three members shall be elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
14. Courtesies and Introductions: There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.
15. Committee on Appeals: There shall be appointed, quadrennially, a Committee on Appeals, composed of at least five members, whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Building, or any other questions that may properly come before them.
16. American Bible Society: All matters regarding the relation of the Conference to the American Bible Society and its work shall be referred to the Board of Education.

IV. REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AMENDMENTS

1. All reports to be presented to the conference shall be sent to the conference secretary, typewritten and in triplicate, on or before the date approved for such by the Coordinating Council and published in the conference calendar.
2. All resolutions to be presented to the annual conference affecting the structure, policy and function of any board or agency of the annual conference, shall be submitted in writing to the conference secretary with copies for all the delegates twenty-four hours prior to consideration by the annual conference, and not later than the second night session of the conference.

3. All motions presented to the annual conference, and amendments to any paper, shall be in writing (in triplicate) and placed in the hands of the conference secretary at the time of presentation, or immediately following.

V. LAY DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Lay delegates, regular and reserve, from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference at least forty-five days prior to the session of the Annual Conference.
2. Each district superintendent shall complete the list of lay delegates to the Annual Conference, from his district, at least forty-five days before the Annual Conference session, and shall immediately transmit the completed list, in triplicate, to the conference secretary.
3. When necessary, substitutions shall be by election of the Quarterly Conference called upon authorization by the district superintendent. No person will be seated unless duly elected by the charge Quarterly Conference as the regular or alternate delegate. Notice of change in delegates must be sent to the Conference Secretary at once.

VI. PASTORS' REPORTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE: STATISTICS

1. Each pastor shall complete Table I of his annual report to the Conference, and transmit the same to the conference statistician at least two weeks prior to the opening date of the Conference.
2. Charge and church treasurers shall make final remittance for the current year to the conference treasurer on or before the date scheduled by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and each pastor shall complete and submit Table II to the conference statistician on or before the opening date of the annual conference.
3. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches with totals for the charge.
4. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
5. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. Editor: The conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with the regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: The conference claimants, lay members of the conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference. The conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he may deem advisable. Six copies including copy for lay delegate to annual conference shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $1.75 each, or single copies by mail at $2.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of Journal shall be deposited with the conference treasurer and credited to the Journal account.

VIII. DISTRICTS

1. The number of districts shall be eleven.
2. A district conference shall be held annually, in each district, if authorized by the annual conference.
3. Each pastoral charge shall elect annually two lay delegates to the district conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex officio members.

4. The district and associate district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendents and the conference lay leaders.
5. The district superintendent of each district shall be required to furnish the conference treasurer as early as possible following the fourth quarterly conference an official copy of the apportionments of the charges for World Service and Conference Benevolences and the amounts accepted by the charges, the amounts approved by the charges for the several items of ministerial support, and a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the quarterly conferences. The figures furnished by the district superintendent to the conference treasurer shall be used by the statistician to compile his report to the annual conference. Two of these copies are to be sent to the secretary of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

IX. AMENDMENTS

1. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing; provided the rule fixing the number of districts may be amended by a majority vote; provided, further, a change in the number of districts may not be made later than the second morning of the Annual Conference.

X. WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

1. These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS

(Daily Minutes)

FIRST DAY, MORNING SESSION

Tuesday, June 4, 1968

At 10:15 the organist presented a fifteen minute organ prelude "Meditation" by William Stickles. This was in preparation for the service of the Holy Communion at St. Andrews United Methodist Church.

At 10:30 the Holy Communion was administered for the delegates to the Annual Conference, conducted by the presiding bishop, Bishop Paul N. Garber. He was assisted by the following district superintendents: E. B. Fisher, O. L. Hathaway, James McCallum, H. G. Ruark, G. S. Eubank, Leon Russell, W. R. Stevens, R. G. Dawson, N. W. Grant, J. W. Page, V. E. Queen, C. G. McCarver.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Tuesday, June 4, 1968

The organist played the prelude, "Agin Court Hymn," by John Dunstable.

Conference Convened: Bishop Paul N. Garber, resident bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church at 1:30 in the afternoon of June 4, 1968. This is the one hundred and forty-third session (thirtieth since unification of American Methodism in 1939, and the first since unification of The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church on April 23, 1968) of the Conference. The 1968 session was convened in Reeves Auditorium on the campus of Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina. The call to worship was given by Bishop Garber. The hymn No. 336, "And Are We Yet Alive?" was sung by the congregation, after which the Apostles' Creed was repeated in unison. The host district superintendent, G. S. Eubank, led the opening prayer. Miss Marilyn Morris, a member of Hay Street Church, Fayetteville, sang "Acquaint Now Thyself With Him", by Michael Head.

Roll of the Conference: Bishop Garber called on W. C. Wilson, Conference Secretary, to call the roll of the Conference. He moved that the registration cards as signed by the delegates be the official record of attendance at this session. The motion was carried.

Our Honored Dead: Bishop Garber called Question 39a, "What ministers and ministers' wives have died during the year?" The Conference Secretary read the list: Ministers: Robert W. Bradshaw, Claud D. Nelson, William J. Underwood, Eli Carson Maness, William Elmer Howard, William Taylor Phipps, Hiram K. King. Ministers Wives: Mrs. G. W. Perry, Mrs. C. J. Edwards, Mrs. M. Y. Self, Mrs. P. T. Beaman, Mrs. E. D. Dodd, Mrs. E. M. Snipes, Mrs. R. E. Garland.

Conference Relations: H. B. Johnson made the report for the Committee on Conference Relations. It was adopted.

Rules of the Conference: C. D. Barclift, host pastor, moved that the rules as published in the 1967 Conference Journal be the rules for this session of the Conference. The motion was seconded and passed.

Bar of the Conference: C. D. Barclift moved that the main floor of the auditorium be the bar of the Conference. The motion was seconded and passed.

Program of the Conference: C. D. Barclift made the motion that the printed program, except as changed by the presiding officer, be the official program of the Conference. It was seconded and passed.

S. J. Starnes brought the Memorial address, using the theme, "They Live Forever." Hymn No. 66, "Praise, My Soul, The King of Heaven" was sung, after which H. L. Davis gave the benediction. The organist played as a postlude, "Suite in C" by William Russell.

Charter Fund: Bishop Garber announced the receipt of a check for $150 from the General Board of Pensions for the Charter Fund.

Commission on World Service and Finance: C. H. Mercer, Chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance presented sections I, II, III and IV of the Report. A. D. Byrd asked a question about Interdenominational Cooperative Fund, as to whether it is included in Single Figure asking. The Chairman answered "no". Sections I, II, III and IV were approved. Sections VI, VII, VIII and IX were presented by the chairman. He asked that Item 7, Section VII be deleted. A. F. Fisher asked question about time of church year. The chairman said that it would be dealt with later. Sections VI, VII, VIII, and IX were adopted.

Section X was presented by the chairman. It was approved.

J. Nelson Gibson was granted special privilege to present Section XI. E. L. Earnhardt asked question about whether the churches should remit 7/12 of the "Single Figure Acceptance" or 6/12? Gibson answered "yes, 7/12." Earnhardt asked also about including all sections of the World Service Report in the Book of Reports rather than present some sections of it on conference floor. Charles Mercer, chairman, explained the reason. A. F. Fisher moved that the churches operate on the 6/12 basis. It was seconded. He spoke briefly. C. L. Warren spoke against the motion. Rufus Stark made amendment to the Fisher motion that the Commission on World Service and Finance declare the Conference year 1968-69 be an eleven months year. The Stark amendment was ruled out of order. T. M. Vick asked when 7/12 begins? Gibson answered: June 1. R. G. Dawson spoke against the Fisher motion. H. G. Ruark spoke against the motion. Leo C. Thompson asked question about action of General Conference as to calendar year. Bishop Garber answered by stating what the vote was. G. S. Eubank spoke against the amendment. J. A. Tingle moved the previous question. The motion carried. The Fisher motion was voted on, and it was lost.

Rufus Stark moved that we adopt an eleven months year for the Conference year, 1968-69. This was ruled out of order by the chair. Amos N. Stone spoke. G. S. Eubank spoke about a point of order. A. D. Byrd made amendment that this Conference designate the pastor's salary following the Conference year. It was seconded. H. B. Lewis spoke. S. H. Stallings, Jr., Whitley Memorial, Smithfield, asked question about time of Annual Conference year coinciding with paying of preachers. J. Malloy Owen moved that the Commission on World Service and Finance communicate clearly with every local church finance commission, treasurer, and administrative board chairman exactly how this conference has made the change to a June 1 to May 31 year, and what is expected of local churches. C. L. Warren moved that 11/12 of all acceptances, pastor's salary and conference benevolences be paid in the Conference year 1968-69. Bishop Garber ruled it out of order. E. C. Shoaf asked question. D. W. Griffin spoke. C. D. Barclift spoke. Paul Bunn moved the question on all that is before us. Vote on Owen amendment was taken and it carried. Vote was taken on Section XI, of the report of the Commission. It was adopted.

The Chairman of the Commission presented Charles K. McAdams, the new Conference Treasurer, who spoke briefly to the Conference.

The Chairman gave Section V of the report. He asked Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cowell to come to the platform. He then read a citation, honoring Mr. Cowell. A portrait of M. J. Cowell was unveiled, this a gift of the members of the Commission on World Service and Finance. This portrait is to be hung in the reception room of the Methodist Building in Raleigh. Mr. Cowell responded briefly.

Announcements: W. C. Wilson made announcements.

Benediction: The benediction was given by H. L. Watson.

Personal Privilege: R. G. Dawson, retiring President of the Cabinet, rose to a point of high personal privilege. He requested Mrs. V. E. Queen to escort Mrs. Paul N. Garber to the platform. Bishop Garber was asked to stand with them. After speaking appropriate words of heartfelt gratitude for the work and services of Bishop and Mrs. Garber during 17 years of Episcopal Administration, Mr. Dawson presented them with a love offering from the entire Conference.

Bishop Garber responded in his usual gracious manner, expressing sincere thanks for the generous support and cooperation accorded him continuously during his Episcopal Residence and Administration here. He set forth briefly his philosophy about the future, which is one of hope, optimism and christian faith.

Solo: At the request of Bishop Garber, M. L. Husted sang "How Great Thou Art".

Question 51: "Where are the preachers stationed for the ensuing year?" was called. See Appointment List, Section III.

Closing Hymn: The Conference stood and sang one verse of Hymn No. 39, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Benediction: The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Garber, and the 1968 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference adjourned.

Wesley G. Brogan was appointed "Student" at last Conference. Therefore, he is to receive pension credit without the Board of Education making payments of $768.00. As payment was made, the Board will make the refund.

We recommend that Carl Calloway be given one-half year's credit for the Conference year 1967-1968, since his ministry in this Conference was discontinued in January 1968.

We recommend that J. B. Eskridge not be given credit for 1967-1968 for his appointment "Student" as he was not enrolled in school.

We recommend that D. D. Holt be given four years credit for service he gave while serving as Executive Director of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina 1951-1955.

We recommend that J. W. Scott be given one-half year's credit for 1967-1968 as he served in a capacity "without annuity credit upon the Conference" for part of that year.

We recommend that William A. Ruth be given pension credit for 1967-1968, as he is under episcopal appointment in this Conference. This corrects the Board of Pension's report in the 1967 Journal which recommends he be appointed without annuity claim upon the Conference.

We recommend Mrs. Hugh W. Prince, widow of the late Rev. O. W. Dowd, be reinstated for pension, with payment to be made on the rate of 39 years of service.

We recommend that Mrs. Gordon Casey, widow of the late Rev. H. A. Chester, be reinstated for pension, with payment to be made on the rate of 27.50 years of service.

We recommend that Nelson P. Edens be paid on the basis of 40.75 years of service.

ROBERT WALLACE BRADSHAW

Robert Wallace Bradshaw was pre-eminently a pastor. He came rightfully by the pastor heart for he inherited it from his father "Dr. Mike" Bradshaw, whom at least one preacher remembers with gratitude for the helpfulness which "Dr. Mike" gave him as he prepared to enter the ministry. This deep and steady pastoral concern served as a bond between father and son. It is an interesting coincidence that both joined the North Carolina Annual Conference at the same place, Greenville: "Dr. Mike" in 1891 and his son in 1935.

Robert was born in Norfolk, Virginia, on July 1, 1900. He received the A.B. degree from Trinity College and the M.A. from Columbia University. Following his academic preparation, he was principal of Lakewood School in Durham for two years, then of the Children's Home School in Winston-Salem for nine years. Following appointments at Jenkins Memorial Church in Raleigh, where he ministered to members of the Children's Home there, and in Tarboro, he became Executive Secretary for the North Carolina Conference Board of Education for eight years. It was in these years that several generations of young people came to know and love him as "Uncle Bobby." Many of them will still remember his pitching form in the softball games in the assemblies at Louisburg College. I threw a "slow floater" which arched high in the air, then dropped deceptively across the plate, so that the batter's swing was usually about a foot too high or too low. Because he understood and loved them and shared their fun, he could speak to the deepest needs of their hearts.

Following this period he served as pastor at Jarvis Memorial Church at Greenville for five years, First Church, Wilson, ten years, and Duke Memorial, Durham, several years. In February, 1959, he became a trustee of Duke University succeeding Bishop Walter W. Peele, and faithfully and effectively served as a member of the building committee during a period of the University's rapid physical growth. Everywhere he went he seemed to find persons he had known in other places, and everywhere soon added to them new friends who learned to love and depend on him. Especially in the hospitals he ministered to friends, or families of friends, who came from far and wide. Watching how he spent himself in this ministry one wondered how long he could continue. Finally, as the date of his retirement approached, he accepted a call to return to Wilson as Minister of Visitation. But he did not retire. When he died on July 2, 1967, he was in his study preparing for the day's work.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Charles S. Hubbard, minister of the First Methodist Church, Wilson, and the Reverend Lynwood Blackburn of New York. Interment was in Maplewood Cemetery, Wilson.

He is survived by his wife, Frances Wiggins Bradshaw, and three sons: Robert Wallace, Jr., attorney in Charlotte; Francis Connor, pastor in the North Carolina Conference; and Michael James, school principal in Durham. So the tradition of service moves from one generation to another and there are a host of those who try to share with others the love he so unstintingly gave to them.

CLAUD DALTON NELSON

A native of Arkansas, Claud Nelson was born near Jacksonville, July 13th, 1889, son of the Reverend Charley Hestor Nelson and Sara See Nelson.

He received his formal education at Hendrix College and at Oxford University, England, where he was the fourth Rhodes Scholar from Arkansas. Later he finished a correspondence course in Theology at Emory University and was admitted to membership in the North Carolina Conference, thus becoming the fifth Methodist minister in direct Nelson line of descent.

Though he never served a pastorate, he was proud of his membership in this Conference, and was grateful to his Bishops for appointments to his work with the Fellowship of Reconciliation in the South and to the Young Men's Christian Association both in this country and abroad. His YMCA work for prisoners of war took him to Russia in 1916-1917, and later to Germany. He was loaned by the YMCA to the Swiss Student Christian Movement for work with foreign students in Switzerland, 1920-1921 and was decorated by the Yugoslav government of that period for his work with Yugoslavs studying in Switzerland.

He had several terms of service for the YMCA in Italy, during which time he worked toward equal status and responsibility of Protestant and Roman Catholic Laymen in the YMCA. This policy became an international policy of the YMCA in 1950.

After retirement from the YMCA, Dr. Nelson became Executive Director of the Department of Religious Liberty of the National Council of Churches, 1953-1960. At the time of his death he was serving as consultant to the National Conference of Christians and Jews. It was during this service that he immediately recognized the potential ecumenical import of the announcement in 1959 of Pope John XXIII that he would call the second Vatican Council. Serving as reporter for Religious News Service he began a study of preparations being made for the Council, making trips to Rome in 1961 and 1962. He wrote articles for Catholic and Protestant publications and a book, published in October, 1962, on "The Vatican Council and all Christians." He reported four sessions of the Council for Religious News Service.

Collaborating with Dr. Stanley I. Stuber, Baptist minister and Director of Association Press, he was coeditor of "Implementing Vatican II in Your Community," a dialogue action manual in which they "examine the sixteen documents promulgated by the Council, tell how these are interpreted by various Christian bodies and suggest interfaith activities that will point the way to true Christian brotherhood."

Dr. Nelson was editor of The Dialogue, a publication of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. His book "Religion and Society: The Ecumenical Impact" was published in 1966. It deals with religious liberty, church state relations, anti-Semitism, racial problems, taxation of church property, and related subjects. He wrote:

"In problem after problem, controversy after controversy, we have found the challenge for all men of faith to coordinate their search for true insights and promising solutions, and to unite their efforts. So united, they will be able to enlist also the secularists who share their concern and their aims — or to give effective support if secularists have already taken the lead."

He died in New York City, October 25, 1967, and was buried in Princeton, New Jersey. He is survived by his widow, the former Maud Sparks of Fordyce, Arkansas; a younger brother, McDonald See Nelson, Assistant Manager, National Lead of Ohio; two sons, Claud Dalton, Jr., member of The Society of Brothers; James Sparks, Consultant, Products Safety, General Electric Company; John Charles, Chairman of the Christian Department, Columbia University; Joseph Edward, Professor of Mathematics, Princeton University. There are ten grandchildren.

Leaders of all faiths participated in a Memorial Service sponsored by the National Conference of Christian and Jews and held in the Chapel at Interchurch Center in New York City. Messages praised him as an ecumenical pioneer, a lifelong worker for peace, defender of the rights of minority groups, a "saintly man whose irenic disposition frequently channeled difficult and tense inter-religious issues into positive and constructive action."

The Christian Century in an editorial tribute in its issue of November 15, 1967 referred to "Claud Nelson — servant to mankind."

WILLIAM JAMES UNDERWOOD

"Blessed are the poor in spirit . . . Blessed are the meek . . . Blessed are the pure in heart." These three Beatitudes of our Lord were distinguishing characteristics of Brother W. J. Underwood. Since he was pastor of my home church for ten years and since he lived out his days of "retirement" near my home, I was privileged to know him intimately and to feel the influence of his Christlike spirit over a period of many years.

Born in Roseboro, N. C., on July 25, 1880, Brother Underwood received his initial preparation for the Ministry in an occupation of hard work. He labored as a lumberman and a farmer before accepting his first pastoral appointment in The Methodist Church on March 24, 1919, at Shallotte, North Carolina. This training was most appropriate and helpful for his future ministry, for God called him to the service largely of hard-working farmers. He wore the badge of rural minister, a circuit rider in the tradition of the early Methodist preacher with dignity, joy, and honor. His was a fruitful ministry, though he never served what the world calls "large fields of service" or "the most important churches."

The charges which Brother Underwood served, in addition to Shallotte, were the following: Elizabethtown, Swansboro, Newton Grove, Pasquotank Circuit, Columbia, Goldston, Mt. Gilead Circuit, and Robbins Circuit. It is noteworthy that he served Elizabethtown on two different occasions, that he served the Goldston Charge for ten years, and the Robbins Circuit for eight years. He retired from the Robbins Circuit in 1953, and chose to live the remaining years of his life in Bonlee, North Carolina.

Brother Underwood was married to Blanche Johnson of Marion, South Carolina, on January 10, 1906. Mrs. Underwood was a partner with her husband in his life and ministry in a depth of understanding and love seldom matched on this earth. She was still living in Bonlee. In addition, Brother Underwood is survived by a son, Alton Underwood, Summit, New Jersey; and two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Clark of Bonlee, and Mrs. J. Lane Perry of Roseboro.

It can be truthfully said of Brother Underwood that he was a pastor of surpassing compassion, a preacher of quiet but deep insight, and a person of saintly character. He was the good shepherd who befriended and sought the sheep of God's Back Pasture, and who built up the Church in faith, hope, and love. Brother Francis Bradshaw, pastor at Bonlee at the time of Brother Underwood's death, has paid this beautiful tribute to him:

Rev. W. J. Underwood died at Chatham Hospital, Siler City, North Carolina, on January 2, 1968, at the age of eighty-seven. He was a retired member of the North Carolina Conference. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, a loved grandfather. He was a dear friend. He was a son of God.

He was a retired minister who never retired. He gave himself to those around him in such a way that his ministry was felt by all those whose good fortune it was to know him. Perhaps his most profound ministry was performed during his long illness and confinement, for he never ceased to bring comfort, cheer, and inspiration to all those who shared with him the days in the hospital.

He was a husband, devotedly, for 63 years to his precious wife, Blanche, who has had a meaningful ministry herself, and who continues in that ministry, being a blessing to all who know her.

He loved his children, cared for them, worried about them, helped them whenever he could, and provided for them a priceless earthly example of what God, as Father, must be like. His grandchildren adored him. He was easy to adore. And he loved them in return. There was a bond between them that was rare, considering the difference in ages. The bond is still there.

He was a dear friend. He was my dear friend. He wanted for me the best that God had put in me. He wanted me to live up to the "image of God" in which I was created. He helped me to see the value of my life — indeed, of all life. He helped me to become a friend of his, so he could become a friend of mine. He didn't tell me this. He didn't have to. He showed me by being a friend.

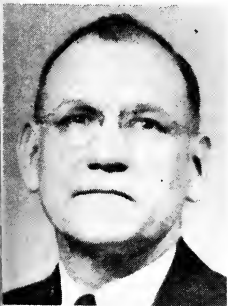

Truly, he was a son of God. He was created in the "image of God." He sought out that image, discovered it, followed after his Savior, daily, and lived like Him. He was a man's son, of course, but truly he became a son of God. Certainly he became the man that God created him to be — and that is what a son of God is — and does.

ELI CARSON MANESS

Rev. Eli Carson Maness was born June 25, 1891, near Robbins, N. C., and died at Fuquay Springs, N. C., January 17, 1968, at the age of 76 years, six months and 23 days. He was one of thirteen children born to Lewis and Martha Maness, and one of two sons of the family to enter the Methodist ministry in the North Carolina Conference. Having joined the annual conference in 1917 he was an effective preacher of the gospel and a faithful pastor for 50 years, serving in the active ranks for 39 years, and as an honored retired member for 11 years.

He graduated from the Robbins High School and attended Rutherford College in preparation for his ministry. He was a hard worker, giving himself to constant study; he was a good preacher, seeking to win people to Christ and his church; he was a faithful and understanding pastor, who visited his people and entered sympathetically into their sorrows as well as their joys; he was a congenial and loyal friend who won the confidence of people through his love for them and his genuine devotion to his calling. Perhaps the truest thing that could be said of E. C. Maness is "He was a good man."

He served the following charges: Cokesbury, Goldston, Person Street, Fayetteville, Bailey, Fuquay Springs, Northampton, Rose Hill, Chadbourne, Brooksdale, Pittsboro, Apex, Walstonburg, and was serving as a supply pastor of Elizabeth Church in Goldsboro District at the time of his death.

He was married July 4, 1912, to Miss Annie Covington of Rockingham, N. C. Besides his widow he is survived by four sons: Lewis Maness, of Franklinton, Mass.; E. C. Maness, Jr., of Newport, N. C.; Albert Maness, of Roanoke, Va.; Ivey Maness, of Asheboro, N. C.; two daughters: Mrs. Margaret Husel, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada; Miss Ruby Ann Maness, of Gastonia, N. C. There are 16 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Spinks Kennedy, of near Robbins; four brothers — John and Hobart Maness of near Robbins, Rev. W. L. Maness of Siler City, and Rufus Maness of Durham.

Funeral services were held at the Fuquay Springs Methodist Church, which was built during his pastorate there. This writer heard him say that he left some of his blood in that church, having labored in handling brick and other materials until his hands literally bled. He was a leader in a number of building programs where he served, and always tried to leave a charge in better condition than he found it.

The funeral service was in charge of his district superintendent, Dr. Leon Russell, assisted by Rev. G. W. Crutchfield, pastor of the church, and Rev. S. J. Starnes of Burlington, a long-time intimate friend of the family. Burial was in the Tabernacle Church cemetery at Robbins, which was his home church. In charge of the service at the cemetery were Rev. S. J. Starnes and Rev. C. H. Mewborn.

This good man had strong religious convictions, and he never compromised with evil. His consecration was never questioned, and no one was able to speak an incriminating word against his character. He enjoyed the confidence of the people whom he served as well as of all his brethren in the conference who knew him personally and appreciated him for what he was. He never sought preferment, but accepted his assignments at the hands of the appointive powers and sought to do his best wherever he was sent.

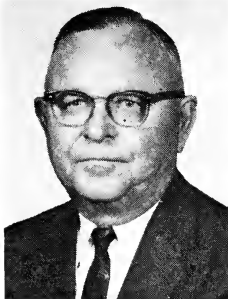

He leaves behind him his loved ones, together with a host of friends who will cherish his memory until they meet him again in the land of the redeemed.

WILLIAM ELMER HOWARD

Reverend William Elmer Howard, son of William J. Howard and Betty Asbury Howard, was born April 10, 1895, in Denver, North Carolina, in Lincoln County. Death came February 3, 1968, at Wayne Memorial Hospital, Goldsboro, North Carolina. Funeral services was held February 5, 1968, in the Chapel of Tyndall Funeral Home, Mount Olive, N. C., by Rev. Harley Owens, Rev. Leon Russell and Ben O. Merritt. His body was laid to rest in the Wayne Memorial Park, Goldsboro, N. C.

Brother Howard attended public school in Denver, N. C., his home town. Further preparation was made at Rutherford College and Lenoir Rhyne College at Hickory, N. C. He served overseas in the first world war and at his death was a member of the American Legion at Benson, N. C. He taught school for twelve years before entering the ministry.

On December 21, 1920, he was married to Miss Bessie Belle Havner. To this union one daughter was born, Jaunita Howard, who is now Mrs. J. C. Stephenson of Mount Olive, N. C. This was a wonderful marital relation where the deepest love abounded. In this home devotion and loyalty to Christ was manifested in every hand. They were truly workers together with God.

At the Durham District Conference in 1938 brother Howard was licensed to preach. That fall at the Annual Conference he was appointed as Approved Supply Pastor to the Seven Springs Charge, where he served two years. In the fall of 1940 he joined the North Carolina Conference at Wilmington, N. C., in which he served the following charges — Mount Olive Circuit, Trenton, Fremont, Eastover in Fayetteville, Carthage and Benson. In 1961 he took the retired relationship, after which he served as pastor of the Woodland Church in the Goldsboro District for three years.

Brother Howard was a jovial friendly person who made friends easily. It can be truthfully said that everyone who knew him was his friend. He was a faithful devoted servant of Christ, who never served a Charge in the North Carolina Conference that was not improved by his faithful service. He loved the following poem by Alfred Tennyson very much. I am sure it contains the message which he would leave to his loved ones and friends.

Sunset and evening star,
 and one clear call for me!
 And may there be no moaning of the bar,
 When I put out to sea.
 But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
 Too full for sound and foam,
 When that which drew from out the boundless deep
 Turns again home.
 Twilight and evening bell,
 And after that the dark!
 And may there be no sadness of farewell,
 When I embark;
 For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my Pilot face to face,
 When I have crossed the bar.

WILLIAM TAYLOR PHIPPS

1881-1968

The Rev. William Taylor Phipps passed away at the Mathiesen Clinic in Pittsboro, North Carolina, March 21, 1968, after several months of declining health. He was 87 years old.

Although a native of Towson, Maryland, he had served the Pittsboro circuit for a number of years prior to his retirement and returned to Pittsboro as his adopted home.

He was born November 5, 1881, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phipps. He was graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute where he received an engineering degree. He was successful in this field having served as an assistant district engineer for the Southern Oil Company at Savannah, Georgia.

However, he heard the call to the ministry and over his father's objections, decided to enter Vanderbilt University to prepare himself for the ministry. He spent four years at Vanderbilt and then returned to the South Georgia Conference where he served for three years.

He joined the North Carolina Conference in 1907; was ordained deacon, in 1909; and elder in 1911.

In North Carolina Mr. Phipps served the following churches: Elm City, Swan Quarter, Spring Hope, Fremont, Perquimans Circuit, Pasquotank Circuit, Bethel, Whiteville, Rich Square, Littleton, Mebane, Norlina, and Pittsboro.

When in Pittsboro he served the old Pittsboro circuit composed of Pittsboro Methodist, Browns Chapel, Hickory Mountain, Pleasant Hill and Chatham Church. He retired after 43 years of service in 1949. He was a strong, robust man physically. Ever willing to do the work of the Lord, he returned to the conference in 1954 and served 1954-55 at Roper, N. C., and the Ebenezer Church in Chatham County. He retired second time and moved to Durham.

Having been an engineer and an architect, he used all of his talents for the Lord. The first church he helped design and build was the church at Swan Quarter. This structure replaced the "church moved by the hand of God."

Back in 1876 a group of Methodists approached one of the Swan Quarter citizens and asked to purchase a lot from him. He turned them down saying he had other plans for his property. So the Methodists bought a less desirable lot and built a modest frame structure there.

Three days after the church was completed, dedicatory services were held. On that night, right after the services, a severe storm struck the area. Waters of the nearby sounds blew into surrounding creeks and rivers and soon the streets of Swan Quarter were covered with water five feet deep in places. Citizens were amazed to look out their windows and suddenly see the Methodist Church serenely floating down the street. When the church reached an intersection, it floated down the main street and came to rest on the empty lot that the church members had first wanted. The next morning the owner of the property deeded it to the Methodist Church saying he had had his warning.

By 1907 the membership had grown and the congregation decided to build a brick church. It was this brick church that was erected during Mr. Phipps ministry. The old frame church was moved to one side and is still used as an educational building.

Mr. Phipps was helpful in the building plans of other churches that he served. During his stay at Pittsboro he drew up plans for remodeling and brick-veneering the church building, installing central heating, and the addition of Sunday School rooms. He also designed a new parsonage for the Pittsboro circuit and was the first minister to occupy it.

Also during his ministry on the circuit, the Browns Chapel Methodist Church was enlarged and brick-veneered.

Funeral services for him were held at the Pittsboro Methodist Church, March 23, 1968, at 2 p.m. by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Randall Baker; the Pittsboro circuit minister, the Rev. J. A. Booth; and the Burlington District Superintendent, Dr. E. B. Fisher. Interment was in the churchyard.

Mr. Phipps married three times. His first marriage was to his childhood sweetheart, Miss Juliana Elizabeth Lyon, of Baltimore, who died in 1952. To this union one daughter was born, Mrs. Eleanor Phipps Kerr, who lives at 2702 Stratford, Greensboro, N. C.

He married Mrs. Hattie Murray of Durham in 1953. She died in 1962. In 1963 he was married to Mrs. Mary C. Farrell, of Pittsboro, who survives him. After his marriage to Mrs. Farrell, he returned to Pittsboro where he lived until his death.

HIRAM KERSHAW KING

The brave spirit of Hiram K. King triumphed and returned to God on June 1, 1968. Thus ended the earthly pilgrimage of a gallant Methodist minister who exemplified John Wesley's example of a "warm heart and a trained mind."

His background, training and dynamic faith was the launching pad of a ministry that would span five decades and touch thousands of lives on three continents.

After serving as an Infantry officer in the United States Army in the States, France, and Germany, he put down the armor of the nation and put on the whole armor of God.

He served first as a missionary in Europe and with service in Belgium and Poland for four years. While in Belgium he met the lovely Blanche Holland and following a romance of several months, they were married in our Methodist Chapel in Brussels. Together they went to Poland to serve in the ancient cities of Warsaw, Lwow, and Lemberg. Mrs. King organized and guided the first Woman's Society of Methodism in Europe.

Brother Hiram also received a special two-year assignment as Associate Secretary, General Board of Missions for Christian Education in the Orient working primarily in China, Japan, and Korea.

The Asian assignment followed a fruitful period as pastor and presiding elder in the North Arkansas Conference serving Fisher Street, Jonesboro; Methodist Community Center, Wilson; First Church, Jonesboro, and as superintendent of the Batesville District.

In 1935 the Kings came to North Carolina where he served with distinction at Front Street, Burlington; First Church, Elizabeth City; First Church, Henderson; First Church, Laurinburg; Centenary, Smithfield; and Centenary, New Bern. Following a six-year tenure on the New Bern District, he was appointed the first full-time Conference executive secretary of Evangelism. He retired from this position and worked part-time with the Department of Gifts and Wills, the Methodist Foundation, Inc. His work with a number of church-building and fund-raising programs was outstanding.

He suffered a stroke during one of these program efforts and following hospitalization at Wake Memorial in Raleigh, entered the Infirmary of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. There his brave spirit took command and it was amazing how he came to move about and seek to be active. A malignancy terminated his early life on June 1. Memorial services were conducted on June 3 in the chapel of Edenton Street in Raleigh with Dr. T. Marvin Vick, Dr. F. Olen Hunt, and the Rev. George Blount sharing in the service of praise and tribute. His mortal remains were laid to rest by his beloved Blanche at Raleigh Memorial Park.

Dr. King is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert L. (Carolyn) Standerwick, 1409 Lawrence Lane, Bellevue, Nebraska 68005; three granddaughters and one grandson; two sisters, Mrs. O. P. Makepeace of Sanford and Mrs. Leroy D. Marshburn of Greenville; three brothers, Wilbur King of Atlanta, Ga., Frank King of Jacksonville, Fla., and Henri Earle King of Hampton, Va.

Hiram King was my first district superintendent in North Carolina. He was also a devoted friend. The ministry to him was not so much a duty but a spirit of love and loyalty to the Master. Among the difficulties he encountered along the path of life he ever called forth his invisible means of support rooted in a deep, personal faith in Christ.

It has been said that when a man comes to die, he only possesses that which he gave away for the good of others and for the glory of God. Somehow the Father seemed to specialize in the life of Hiram King as He made his life a pure channel of blessing for those whom he served.

Your work shall not be lost, Dr. King Your love and example will continue to exert their powerful influence upon those whose lives were touched by yours! Your going makes heaven more attractive to us!

MRS. BESSIE EDNA SILER PERRY

Mrs. Bessie Siler Perry, daughter of John Haywood and Victoria Cooper Siler, was born August 23, 1886, at Siler City, North Carolina. Here she spent her childhood and youth and received her early education. Upon finishing her education in the schools of the local community she pursued her later studies at what is now the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She was married to the Reverend George W. Perry on May 21, 1913, beloved pastor who served several leading pastorates in the North Carolina Conference prior to his sudden death from a heart attack, November 19, 1943, while serving Jarvis Memorial Church in Greenville, North Carolina. To this happy union two children were born: Margaret Louise, now deceased, and John Siler Perry.

Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Perry joined the faculty of High Point College, High Point, North Carolina, where she taught a number of years and served as Dean of Women until her retirement. During these years at High Point she was a member of the Entre Nous Club. She was also a member of the Wesley Memorial Church and took an active part in the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Friendship Club.

Mrs. Perry's death occurred on August 17, 1967, following a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted at the Sechrest Chapel in High Point by the Reverend Dr.

James G. Huggin, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church of that city. Interment was at Montlawn Memorial Park in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Surviving are one son, John S. Perry of Westport, Connecticut, one of the vice presidents of Cannon Mills, Inc.; one grandson; one brother, L. C. Siler of Staley, North Carolina; and two sisters, Mrs. Jerome T. Russell of High Point, and Mrs. Raymond DeMontt of McLean, Virginia.

"Thrice blessed are our friends: they come, they stay, and presently they go away." — And leave the world a bit better and more beautiful for having lived in it. Many who knew and were touched by the life and influence of Betty Siler Perry will rise up and call her blessed.

—W. CARLETON WILSON

MRS. ALICE POWELL EDWARDS

Alice Powell Edwards was born on November 22, 1880, in Granville County, a daughter of Erastus Powell and Candacia Faulkner Powell. While still a child, she moved, with her parents, to Henderson where she received her education.

In was in Washington County, while teaching in the county schools there, that she met and married the Reverend Charles J. Edwards, a young ministerial student. They were married June 27, 1907, and settled in Greenville, South Carolina. This was her husband's first appointment to the Methodist Protestant Conference. Later they received appointments in various parts of North Carolina.

After the death of her husband, on May 3, 1933, she returned to Henderson where she resided for several years. Later she moved to Portsmouth, Virginia, where she made her home with her daughter.

On April 19, 1966, she suffered a stroke, and entered the hospital where she remained a patient until God called her to her heavenly home on Sept. 20, 1967.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. B. B. Rogerson, of Portsmouth, and one brother, Elmer C. Powell, Sr., of Henderson, North Carolina. A son preceded her in death.

Funeral services were conducted in First Methodist Church, Henderson, North Carolina, by the Reverend Dermont J. Reid, minister, and the Reverend Norwood L. Jones, of Louisburg, North Carolina. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery, Henderson, North Carolina.

—ELIZABETH E. ROGERSON (daughter)

MRS. MARY LUCY HARRELL SELF

To scan, even in a brief way, the history and character of a life so truly great as was that of Mrs. Self is both an inspiration and a source of strength to anyone. A little less than four score years ago Mary Lucy Harrell, daughter of Samuel Issac Harrell and Isadora Costen Harrell, was born February 26, 1889, in Sunbury, North Carolina. Other children were Costen J. Harrell, only surviving member of this family who is now a retired Bishop of The Methodist Church residing in Atlanta, Georgia; Issac Samuel Harrell who was Professor of History in New York University; Malene Harrell Grant, wife of Dr. Thomas McM. Grant who was a minister in the North Carolina Conference; and Thomas Costen Harrell, business manager of Greensboro College.

She received her education in the Durham Public Schools and Durham Music College. On October 26, 1910, she was married to Marvin Young Self, a young minister who had transferred from the Western North Carolina Conference to the North Carolina Conference in 1909. To this union was born one son, Samuel Harrell Self, who with his wife, the former Florence Abernathy, live in Fredericksburg, Virginia. Also surviving are three grandchildren, Samuel Harrell Self, Jr., Marvin Young Self III, Rebecca K. Self, and one great-grandson, Brian Patrick Self.

Having received a noble heritage from an outstanding eastern Carolina family Mrs. Self served well her fellowman and her church throughout her life. She labored with distinction by the side of her husband during most of the years of his ministry.

Her going was quiet and without fanfare as was her life day by day. It was altogether fitting that when God called Marvin Young Self to his heavenly home on May 13, 1967, that his devoted companion should be reunited with him only five months later on October 13 of the same year. Her funeral service was conducted by her pastor, the Reverend O. V. Elkins, and the Reverend H. L. Davis in the Littleton Methodist Church on October 15, 1967. She was buried in the Sunset Hill Cemetery of Littleton.

It would be impossible to make an adequate evaluation of a life which meant so much to so many along the pathway over which she travelled. Her co-workers in the Woman's Society of Christian Service expressed their thoughts in the following words: "Mrs. Self was rather petite of stature; nevertheless, she was a person of boundless energy. She had a fine sense of humor and a quick repartee, a kindly, easy-going nature, and a warmth of personality that endeared her to all who knew her." Truly can it be said of her, to know her was to love her.

It was easy to understand the source of her strength when one had the privilege of knowing her in her home. Her's was a home where God was worshipped, loved, and obeyed. The inspiration which came from her daily walk with her heavenly Father enabled her to lead with strength as she lived and taught those in her care. Her humility and gentleness made her great, for she was pure in thought, gentle and gracious in manner, exemplary in conduct.

We would remind those who are left behind that theirs is a heritage of high ideals, noble living, and sacrificial service. No words can better describe the beauty of her character than those of the poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, who wrote:

For all her quiet life flowed on as meadow streamlets flow,
Where fresher green reveals alone the noiseless ways they go.
Her path shall brighten more and more unto the perfect day;
She cannot fail of peace who bore such peace with her away.
O sweet, calm face that seemed to wear the look of sins forgiven!
O voice of prayer that seemed to bear our own hands up to heaven!
How reverent in our midst she stood or knelt in grateful praise!
What grace of Christian womanhood was in her household ways!
For still her holy living meant no duty left undone;
The heavenly and the human blent their kindred loves in one.
She kept her line of rectitude with love's unconscious ease;
Her kindly instincts understood all gentle courtesies.
The dear Lord's best interpreters are humble human souls;
The Gospel of a life like hers is more than books or scrolls.

MRS. MARY EDWARDS PARKER BEAMAN

Mary Edwards Beaman was born in Charlotte, North Carolina, July 9, 1875. She was one of eight children, all of whom became active in the Methodist Church. In 1891 she married Rev. Thomas William Sherman Parker, who became a member of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its Annual Session, Fayetteville, North Carolina, 1887. Mr. Parker died unexpectedly in 1893. To this marriage one child was born, Lavinia, who is now deceased.

In 1898 Mrs. Parker married George William Beaman, also of Charlotte, and to this marriage a daughter, Frances Blount, was born who became the wife of Bishop Fred Corson. Mr. Beaman died in 1963, after which Mrs. Beaman became a resident in the Methodist Church Home at Cornwallis, Pennsylvania. She died on November 18, 1967, at the age of 92 and was buried in the Edgewater Cemetery, New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where Mr. and Mrs. Beaman made their home for many years.

Mrs. Mary Parker Beaman lived a life characterized by unselfish service. All who knew her felt the influence of her Christian character.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou are crowned at last."
"Redeemed from earth and pain,
Ah! when shall we ascend,
And all in Jesus' presence reign
Through ages without end?"

NORA FINCH DODD

1886-1967

Mrs. Nora Finch Dodd joined her husband, the Reverend E. D. Dodd, in "The Father's House of Many Mansions" on the 9th day of December, 1967. Mr. Dodd preceded her in death by thirteen months and twenty-three days. She passed away in Union Memorial Hospital, Monroe, N. C. Services were conducted for her in the Fuquay Springs Methodist Church by the pastor, Reverend C. W. Crutchfield, and the writer.

Mrs. Dodd was born May the 5th, 1886, in Bailey, N. C., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ray Finch. She was married to Reverend E. D. Dodd September 11, 1904, and to this union two children were born, David of Monroe, N. C., and Christine Johnson of Raleigh.

For more than thirty-six years Mrs. Dodd graced a Methodist parsonage. She was a devoted mother; and she was a faithful wife to an itinerant Methodist preacher, never trying to interfere with his ministry, but, rather, giving him the support and prayers of a Christian wife. Mrs. Dodd was quiet and unassuming, but deep was her faith in the saving and sustaining grace of the Lord Jesus. She was kind and considerate and ready to serve anywhere, or anyone. In all the places they served she made many friends. In 1948, Mr. and Mrs. Dodd retired and moved to Fuquay Springs, where she continued to minister in the name of her Lord until she moved to "The House Not Made With Hands, Eternal in the Heavens."

The writer of Proverbs perfectly describes her character in the 31st chapter when he said: "Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her. . . . She stretcheth out her hands to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. . . . She openeth her mouth with wisdom: and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her blessed. . . . Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

She always leaned to watch for us, Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window, In summer by the gate;
And though we mocked her tenderly, Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe, Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us — She never could forget!
And so I think that where she is She must be watching yet,
Waiting till we come home to her, Anxious if we are late —
Watching from heaven's window, Leaning from heaven's gate.

MRS. DAISY RANDLE SNIPES

The writing of this memoir is an act of appreciation. As a small boy I was received into the church by the venerable Doctor Jonathan Sanford, who was at that time the pastor of my parents. Seventy-five years later it is my privilege to write the memoir of his granddaughter, Mrs. Daisy Randle Snipes.

The task is both easy and difficult. Her life was a long and inspiring symphony which literally sang itself. With relation to the church she was "to the manner born." She is the only woman I have ever known who was granddaughter, daughter and wife of a Methodist minister. In each of these relationships she closely approached the ideal.

Mrs. Snipes was born March 21, 1879, the daughter of James W. and Lillie Sanford Randle. She died February 1, 1968, at the Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill. She was buried in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham. The funeral services were conducted by the Reverend W. B. Petteway, pastor of Duke Memorial Church, to which she belonged. She received her education at Littleton College and State Normal College, now the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

She was married to the Reverend Eugene Malcolm Snipes February 15, 1906. There were no children, hence they became parents and helpers of thousands of young persons throughout the Conference. No more popular or effective workers with the young could be found.

Mrs. Snipes was all that could be desired in a minister's wife. I have recently read a splendid book entitled "The Pastor's Wife." Naturally, my mind turned to a comparison of her with the ideals set forth in that book. She measured up in the highest degree. She was a husband's helper, a gracious hostess, an eager and earnest assistant in all of the work of the church. She was not only effective in the woman's work of the local charges, but her influence extended widely throughout the entire conference. She was Conference Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society for many years. As an individual she was friendly, inspiring, helpful.

The extent of her service is indicated by the charges which they served. These included Burlington, Washington, Mt. Olive, Oxford and others. Mr. Snipes was Presiding Elder of the Weldon District also. In all of their charges the work made definite progress.

However, when these facts have been stated, the story is not yet told. It is easy to state how long she lived but difficult to say how much. For life is not measured by calendar years but by work done, influence exerted, service rendered. When we measure her life by the contribution she made to the welfare of her fellow human beings, her care for the happiness of others, the assistance given those in sorrow and distress, she lived a marvelous life.

For more than thirty years after her husband's death she spent her summers at Lake Junaluska where she was well known and greatly beloved. She was known by some as "The Lady of the Lake."

Even so this memoir is inadequate in that there is no way to express fully the inner quality of her life, her influence for good, the splendor of her noble living.

Long years ago the poet Wordsworth wrote: "trailing clouds of glory do we come from God who is our home." These words referred to babies. It is easy to imagine that when people leave us in their old age they leave behind them another cloud of glory. Often we watch the matchless splendor of the sunsets which illuminate the western skies. After the sun has disappeared below the horizon there is frequently a brilliant afterglow. The lives of persons like Daisy Randle Snipes will doubtless leave an afterglow which will be long and lasting.

MRS. SUSAN IRENE SAWTELLE GARLAND

Mrs. Susan Irene Sawtelle Garland was born February 20, 1906, in Clinton Massachusetts, the daughter of J. Walter Sawtelle, and his wife, Emma Fisher Sawtelle. She grew up in the city of her birth, attending and graduating from its public school system. She continued her education at Boston University, where she graduated in 1927, majoring in both Christian Education and Elementary Education.

Even though she was trained, and certified, to teach in the public schools of Massachusetts, she decided to make her life's work in the field of her Christian Education Major. Yet, her decision was not to become Director of Christian Education in one of the large churches of her conference. On the contrary, she would fulfill her calling as the lifelong helpmate and companion of a young "On Trial" member of the New England Conference, the Reverend Roger Emerson Garland. On June 19, 1927, Roger Emerson Garland and Susan Irene Sawtelle were married; and, from this point until Roger's death, these two great souls worked together, tirelessly for the advancement of God's Kingdom among men.

Mrs. Garland's qualifications, as a Christian witness goes beyond her training at Boston University and the fact that she married a minister. Her Grandfather Fisher was one of a long line of Methodist Ministers (by that name) in Tennessee. By her own life of service in the Church, and having met all qualifications, she was duly recommended by the Clinton (Massachusetts) Quarterly Conference, of the New England Annual Conference, for Local Preacher's License. She was granted the License on June 24, 1925, while still a college student. Following her graduation from Boston University, and marriage, she continued her ministerial studies; and, she was ordained Deacon, in the New England Annual Conference, on April 14, 1929. By 1933, Mrs. Garland had met all requirements for our highest ordination: an Elder in the Church.

In Massachusetts, Roger and Irene served, hand in hand — with Roger as pastor of churches in the following cities: Graniteville, Lowell, Lynn, Worcester, Milford, Chicopee Falls, and Boston.

During the early part of 1954, the Rev. and Mrs. Garland came to the realization that the Lord was calling them into a different area for pastoral service. Because of the great things which were taking place in the North Carolina Conference, Brother Garland felt led to contact Bishop Paul N. Garber. This contact led to the transfer of his Conference Membership to the North Carolina Conference, and the transfer was finalized on October 27, 1954. Since coming our way, the Garlands served the following appointments: Pembroke: First Church, Saxapahaw, and Ellerbe. During the latter part of their year at Ellerbe, after only a few days of illness, on April 21, 1963, the great heart of Roger Emerson Garland failed, and he was "released to go home."

After her husband's death, Mrs. Garland continued living in the parsonage, at Ellerbe, and working in the church until the Annual Conference Session of that year. By this time, with the help of friends, she had managed to get enough furnishings together to equip a comfortable apartment for her widowed mother and herself. Mrs. Garland made her home, then, in Marshville, North Carolina, in order to be near her son, Dr. Wesley Scott Garland, who was a practicing physician there at the time.

It would seem that with such a full life behind her, this great lady would have settled down to a simple and quiet retirement, but such was not the case. Very soon after her arrival in Marshville, she was asked to become the teacher of the Ladies Bible Class in the Methodist Church, of Marshville, where her son was an officer. Nothing could have given her greater joy at the time, and nobody could have performed the task better. Within a few months, Mrs. Garland was asked to make use of her training as a public school teacher. She not only accepted the challenge of becoming a "Special Education" instructor; but, she also went back to school in order to get further training and to bring her certificate up to date. This specialized training, she took at the University of North Carolina, at Charlotte.

Mrs. Garland worked faithfully in her school and church until sudden illness struck, in the form of a "stroke" on January 19, 1968. She was taken from her home in Marshville, to Presbyterian Hospital, at Charlotte, North Carolina. All seemed to be going well until another "stroke" came; and, she passed on into the Life Immortal on February 2, 1968, while still a patient in the hospital at Charlotte. Funeral services were conducted two days later at the Ellerbe Methodist Church, where her husband had served his last pastorate, by the present pastor, the Reverend W. F. Meacham. Her body was laid to rest beside that of her husband, at the Ellerbe Cemetery, in Ellerbe, North Carolina.

Mrs. Garland is survived by her son, Dr. Wesley Scott Garland (a member of the Medical Staff at the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston-Salem, North Carolina); her mother, Mrs. Emma Fisher Sawtelle (who lived with her at Marshville, but who now makes her home with Dr. Garland); and, there are four grandchildren (son and daughters of Dr. Garland) who will forever hold dear the memory of their wonderful grandmother.

Throughout their earthly pilgrimage, Roger and Irene Garland possessed minds and spirits which led them, and all others whom they touched (in New England and in North Carolina) to the spiritual heights. Now, they have been promoted to that quality and state of life which Jesus promises to all whose lives are dedicated to him. Roger's homegoing preceded Irene's by almost five years; and, she remained to help all who knew her to see the power of Christian Faith, Hope, and Love perfectly demonstrated in spite of loss and sorrow.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

EDGAR B. FISHER, Superintendent

It has been both a joy and a privilege to serve this year as superintendent of the Burlington District. Truly some of the finest ministers and lay people to be found anywhere reside in this district.

Throughout the year the people of the district have manifested warm and sincere friendship. Much of any success achieved has come as the result of hard-working, dedicated individuals.

Membership and Evangelism: A spirit of genuine evangelism has been observed throughout the year. An outstanding spiritual life retreat was conducted for the ministers. At the time of the writing of this report, the record reveals that more than 400 new members have been received, 143 having come on profession of faith, 204 by certificate of church membership, and 76 from other denominations. Special evangelistic services have been held in many of the churches. Lay witness mission services have been held in the First Methodist Church of Mebane and the First Methodist Church of Graham.

Christian Higher Education: The Burlington District has been outstanding in its support of our higher education program. Many churches have paid their college crusade pledge in full.

Christian Education: The district has a number of training schools each year. Many dedicated workers take advantage of this opportunity for training.

Camp Crusade: The district has accomplished much in this program. Our church in Mebane pledged enough to take care of the erection of one new cabin at Camp Chestnut Ridge. Many other churches are cooperating in the effort to raise as much as $50,000 in the Burlington District over a three-year period for the support of this camp.

Women's Work: There are 73 organizations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and five Wesleyan Service Guild organizations, with close to three thousand members. These ladies inspire all of us with their sense of dedication to the cause of Christ, both at home and abroad.

Lay Activities: The laymen are doing outstanding work. The district had more men present at the Laymen's Meeting at Methodist College last summer than any other district. The No-Silent Pulpit program was highly successful. More than six hundred attended the lay rally this year.

Building and Improvements: This year three new parsonages have been dedicated as follows: the one at Piney Grove-Hickory Grove Charge, the one at Cedar Grove, and the parsonage of First Methodist Church in Graham. Fairview Church has erected a beautiful new parsonage. First Methodist Church in Graham has had the service of consecration for its beautiful new sanctuary, church parlor, chapel, and additional educational facilities. The Educational Building at the Leasburg Church was dedicated. A new parsonage is planned for the Moncure Charge. The Yanceyville Methodist Church has greatly improved its educational facilities and has air-conditioned the sanctuary. The church at Hebron had a service of consecration for its new building.

Finances: The district has made a splendid financial record. Prospects seem to be bright for paying everything out in full. A wonderful response has been given to the Single Figure Apportionment plan for the new conference year. It looks as if almost one hundred per cent will be pledged. Many pastors' salaries have been increased for the new conference year. It is believed that the total amount of increase will be more than $2,000 for the district as a whole.

The district superintendent is most grateful for the admirable spirit that has been manifested by the ministers and lay people of the entire district.

DURHAM DISTRICT

O. L. HATHAWAY, Superintendent

This has been another good year for the pastors and lay people working together in the churches of the Durham District. I count it both a privilege and a pleasure to make the report for them at this time.

Membership and Evangelism: This report of April 15, 1968, reveals the following facts: We have received 970 persons into the membership of the churches and during the same period, we have lost 571, giving to us a net gain in membership of 399. We have baptized 123 infants.

Christian Education: The district staff has been carrying on the program of teacher training in the district with good success. The pastors attended one meeting for the consideration of the new materials for the youth of the church.

Christian Higher Education: Our people have been trying to pay out their college pledges this year. Some churches have been paying toward that goal. Three more of our churches have been added to the honor roll, namely: St. John, Lea's Chapel, and Rougemont. Others are planning to be out by conference. We are grateful for the help that our colleges are giving to our youth.

Lay Activities: Lay activities continue to grow under the leadership of James T. Patrick and his associates in the Durham District. The lay rally at the Civic Center was filled again this year as we honored our own Bishop Paul N. Garber. Dr. Carl J. Sanders of the Virginia Conference was our guest speaker this year. In behalf of all of our people, I wish to thank James T. Patrick for the leadership he has given to the Durham District for the past eight years. He has been one of the most consecrated, devout, and willing workers that it has been my privilege to work with in the ministry of the church. We pray our Father's blessings upon him.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: We have a new president in Mrs. C. D. Scott this year. She has given good leadership to our officers and the societies in our churches. The growth and interest in this great work continues and we see an increase in the love and service rendered to the work in the people of our churches. These good women have given to me as their district superintendent, cooperation, understanding, and support for the program of the district.

Buildings and Improvement: Bishop Paul N. Garber held ground-breaking service for new educational buildings at Community Methodist Church at Butner and Duke Chapel Methodist Church. Another service will be conducted at Chapel Hill, Amity Methodist Church, on May 12, 1968. Educational buildings have been or are nearing completion at Mt. Sylvan and Mt. Tabor. Consecration service was held for the Carboro new educational building and a renovation program of the sanctuary. Planning for new buildings continues at Mt. Bethel in Bahama, Warren's Grove, Massey's Chapel, Oxford, Andrew's Chapel, and Trinity. New parsonages have been constructed at Mt. Zion and Brooksdale. A new parsonage for Lakewood Methodist Church is under construction and will soon be completed for the parsonage family. Parsonages have been purchased for Trinity, Bethany, and Bethesda in the city of Durham. Renovation programs have been going on in a number of our churches. St. Paul and Grove Hill have placed stained glass windows in their sanctuaries.

We have spent on buildings and indebtedness for churches and parsonages this year, a total of $282,739.00.

We give thanks for the measure of growth and for the kind spirit of our people in the work that they have accomplished this year. May the future be bright and the promises eternal and everlasting.

EASTERN DISTRICT

JAMES MCCALLUM, Superintendent

This has been a short conference year to us, but a very inspiring one. On March 28th, the North Carolina-Virginia Conference adjourned, finis, and at that time we were greeted by Bishop Garber along with several members of this great Conference. The following week we were again greeted by Bishop Garber and many Conference members. For the past years we have worked together, especially since 1964; therefore, we feel at home today, and to you we are grateful.

The Eastern District has 18 charges, 34 local churches, with a membership of 3,500.

served by 18 pastors. This territory, starting at its southeast point—Wilmington—goes northeast to Goldsboro, northwest to Oxford, and southwest to Rockingham.

I wish to express my thanks to the ministers and laymen of this district who are working very hard to make the necessary adjustments and I am sure that a much fuller report at the next conference session will reveal the results of such labors. Many of our church buildings have been recently, or are in the process of being built or remodeled. We do have some places where such a program has been or needs to be started.

We are very sorry to learn that our leader, Bishop Garber, will soon be leaving us. Knowing of the splendid leadership he has given during his ministry, and most recently to this Conference, we pray that such leadership shall continue to be a part of him and to our church amid these days of change.

As we enter the new church—The United Methodist—we, the members of the Eastern District, pledge our utmost support to this, our Conference, that His kingdom shall continue, under the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

HENRY G. RUARK, Superintendent

This report represents the work of the pastors and lay people of the 73 churches in the Elizabeth City District. The net gain in membership has amounted to only six, and this may seem too small to mention, but in most of the area included in the district there is a large and steady decrease in population, so that this increase is a result of the diligence and refusal to surrender to circumstances on the part of the pastors and people. We are confident that our faithful churchmen will continue to labor in the Lord's vineyard. But the fruit of their labors waits on a changing population trend that may be brought about by the industrialization and improved transportation in the area.

Nineteen of our 37 charges have accepted in full the single figure asking, and the other 18 have accepted enough to make the district record above 95% of the full asking. There have been a number of small but heartening increases in ministerial support. Stewardship is also evident in the care of church property. Estimated value of church buildings is $3,612,254, and of parsonages $578,600. Other assets are listed at $36,000. Improvements on buildings amounting to $38,736 have been made during this conference year. Total indebtedness of property is $124,614, but $83,246 has been paid on debts this year. In addition, our churches have given Advance Specials amounting to $5,448 during this year. City Road Church, Elizabeth City, has completed an educational building costing $70,000 with indebtedness of only $10,000 left at this time.

Lay speakers have been furnished for all services requested in the "No-Silent Pulpit" program. The district lay rally in February attracted 600 laymen who heard a stirring message by Dr. A. G. Jefferson of Lynchburg, Va.

Meanwhile the evangelistic ministry on the Outer Banks continues to expand. At Curruick Courthouse it is expected that a student from Duke will assist the pastor in services to private camps in that area. The movies on the beaches, which in previous years have attracted hundreds of tourists at Kill Devil Hills, will be continued this summer. In addition plans are hopefully being made for an ice cream parlor tent to reach young people to whom carefully-selected students will make their Christian witness nightly. Duke Divinity students have been requested to witness in the camps from Nags Head to Hatteras and also on Ocracoke Island. These efforts will be undergirded financially from conference and district funds.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

GRAHAM S. EUBANK, Superintendent

This has been an unusual year in the Fayetteville District. The response of the pastors and laymen has gone beyond any expectations of the superintendent. No one has had finer cooperation and there has been no finer Christian spirit than that found in the churches of this district. There has been very little quibbling and no negativism. The pastors and people have been interested in the program of the church to where the superintendent could expect a favorable response to the whole program. We believe there is a deep spiritual renewal taking place in our churches, sometimes surprising the pastors and superintendent. The early preparation of this report will leave many areas incomplete. We expect to have a more complete report for the 1968 Journal.

Membership and Evangelism: Thus far the churches report a total number of baptisms as 376; new members added by confirmation and transfer, 1,051, giving us a total membership of 19,756 for a net gain of 448. Emphasis on evangelism has also included revivals, spiritual retreats, and emphasis on prayer life and personal devotions, and visitation and educational evangelism. These concerns have been encouraged in all opportunities provided the superintendent and other members of the district staff.

Missions and Church Extension: There has been a full program of mission education in the local churches of this district. Almost all churches have had mission studies. Our Christmas offering was over $2,000. Amounts received in Robeson and Hoke Counties were directed to the Pembroke area work. The remainder of the district was directed toward helping the churches to minister to military personnel in the Fort Bragg and Pope Air Base areas. Our two new churches, Arran Lake and Trinity, organized about a year ago in these areas, are doing well. The Branch Street Church in Lumberton has been an inspiration to all related to it. A feature story appeared in the February issue of The Methodist Story, highlighting some of the features of the new church. The title of the article was "The Miracle on Branch Street." The district superintendent has been very much encouraged by the interest shown by the ministers and others in the Pembroke area.

We have a tremendous opportunity and responsibility to minister to the dependents of the military personnel now living in the Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base areas. We need greater financial support in this area. We urge the Conference Board of Missions and the Woman's Society of Christian Service to help provide a greater ministry to the churches located to serve these people.

We wish to express our appreciation to Dr. Wilson Nesbitt of the Duke Endowment and the Rev. L. C. Vereen, executive secretary of the Conference Board of Mission, for assistance given in these areas.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: The women of our district continue to support the program of the Women's Division of the Board of Mission and are very much concerned with the needs of our area. Mrs. Ivan Welburn, district president, has reported the organization of two or three new societies this year.

Christian Education: Most of the churches of the district are now using the new Adult Church School curriculum and are preparing for the new youth curriculum that they will begin using in September. Vacation Church Schools have been held in most of our churches in the summer of 1967. Total church school enrollment to date is 13,005.

Christian Higher Education: Our churches cooperated with the plan to increase the giving to the College Capital Funds Crusade through the Conference program and the Fayetteville Foundation. Some of these churches have overpaid and some have paid in full this year. The churches which have not paid their goals at this time expect to pay until all goals are paid in full.

Lay Activities: The men of our district have been really challenged by our lay leader and his associates. Approximately 1,100 people attended the lay rally at Hay Street Church where Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. was the speaker. This was the largest number of Methodists to ever attend a district meeting.

Stewardship and Finance: The stewardship of the churches of the district has exceeded our best hopes. The district has led throughout the year in percentage paid to the conference treasurer. As of April 22, 50 of 56 charges have accepted the single figure asking in full. The average asking is more than a 12% increase. We expect the district to be 100% in acceptance and also our goal is 100% payment in full of all items accepted for the year.

Buildings and Improvements: Several of the churches have been involved in building and raising funds for new buildings. Union Church on the Marners Charge has built a new educational wing this year. Christ Church, Fayetteville, will complete its new sanctuary by early summer. Hoke Charge has built a new parsonage which will be occupied by a new pastor assigned at Conference. The Raeford Church contributed $10,000 to this project. St. Paul's sanctuary has been renovated. Lillington Church was dedicated May 12 by Bishop Garber and ground was broken on May 26 for a new church in Coats. Ground was also broken for a $100,000 educational building at St. Matthews on June 2. Working plans are being prepared for a complete new church at Pleasant Gove and a new educational building at Collins Chapel. Plans are also being made for an educational building at Camp Ground. Wesley Heights expects to begin construction on its new sanctuary this year. Cumberland's new sanctuary should be completed by Conference and the total evaluation of the church property will be increased to $180,000. The Maxton Church is now involved in securing a new site where complete new church plant will be erected. Many of the churches have repaired and painted their church buildings and parsonages during the year.

I wish to express again my gratitude to the pastors and laymen who have supported the program of our churches throughout the year And my thanks to my predecessors whose labors have helped to make possible the achievements of this year.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

LEON RUSSELL, Superintendent

The enthusiastic and loyal support of the pastors and lay officials of the Goldsboro District has made possible any achievements which we are able to record in this report. I am deeply grateful to all of them. They have cooperated with us in every program of our church, and there have been significant gains in many areas of our responsibility. I am listing below, in summary form, some comment concerning the work of our district.

Evangelism: At the beginning of this conference year, we set as our goal a net membership gain of at least 3%. We believe that before the year is over that goal will be reached. Almost every charge has reported a net gain for the year. Those charges with the best records at this time are St. Luke, Goldsboro, 42; St. Paul, Goldsboro, 32; New Hope, Goldsboro, 28; Grace, Clinton, 27; Providence, Goldsboro, 21; Clayton, 19; and Whitley Memorial, Smithfield, 15.

Christian Education: Our district staff in Christian education has been unusually faithful in the discharge of its responsibility in this important area of our program. Through its leadership the majority of our churches are using the new teaching methods and materials in the adult divisions of our churches. A series of workshops has been held in an effort to prepare our workers for the new youth curriculum. The churches have made fine preparation for this summer's Vacation Church Schools through a meeting with the directors of the schools and with a most effective Vacation Church School Institute. Last summer there were 58 Vacation Church Schools held in the district.

The College Crusade has been kept before our people and Providence Church, in Goldsboro, has been added to the list of churches which have met their quota in full. Other churches are continuing to give. The Camp Crusade has been presented and substantial payments and pledges have been made toward meeting the urgent needs at Camp Don Lee.

Missions: Under the leadership of the district missionary secretary, and with the cooperation of the district Women's Society of Christian Service, five subdistrict training sessions were held. As a result the mission study program in all of our churches was carried out more effectively. Mrs. E. C. Thompson, the new district president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, is leading the women of the district in a splendid way, and is encouraging them to have a renewed interest in the missionary work of our church.

Lay Work: Our laymen have been well represented at all of the conference and district meetings where the causes of our conference have been presented. In February 17 men met in Goldsboro for the lay rally. During the recent season of Lent lay speakers were provided for all of our charges. There are 20 organized Methodist Men's Clubs in the district.

Buildings and Improvements: Our churches are continuing to build and to improve their properties, which is one of the evidences of interest and enthusiasm among our people. During the year the following dedications took place: Fellowship Church, the Beville Educational Building, the Princeton parsonage, and the new $150,000 sanctuary at First Church, Clinton. All of the indebtedness has been removed from the Grinth Church, on the Four Oaks Charge, and from the Sanders Chapel Church and parsonage, on the Pine Level Charge.

The new buildings which have been completed and occupied during the year are Westwood Church, Goldsboro ($60,000); Pine Forest Church, Goldsboro ($65,000); Worth Church, on the Clinton Circuit ($45,000); Mt. Carmel Educational Building ($1,000); Clayton, a new addition to house the study and church office ($5,000); and a new parsonage for the Bethel-Rones Charge ($18,000).

Buildings which are not yet under construction, but are contemplated in the immediate future include an educational building for Smith Chapel; and educational building at Centenary, Smithfield; an additional educational building and chapel for St. Luke, Goldsboro; a new sanctuary and parsonage for Grace Church, Clinton; a new church for the congregation of Bethabara Church, on the South River Charge; and an additional educational building for New Hope, Goldsboro.

Finances: Our people have been faithful in their stewardship and it is expected that all of the charges will pay their budgets in full by conference time. They have faced their responsibility for next year by increasing ministerial support more than $12,000 and by accepting an increase of more than $15,000 for conference work and benevolences.

We feel that this has been a good year in the Goldsboro District and all of us are grateful to God for His many blessings to us.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT

W. R. STEVENS, Superintendent

This report involves the period from July 1, 1967 to April 22, 1968. It includes the major activities and devoted service of 16,073 members and 42 pastors. An expression of appreciation goes to those who have made this report possible. The district is composed of 38 pastoral appointments in six counties and includes 71 churches.

Evangelism: There has been added to the church rolls a total of 656 members. Thirty-six confirmation classes have been conducted. Ninety-two infants have received the sacrament of baptism. Seventeen of the charges are reporting an increase in church attendance. All other charges, except five, have reported about the same attendance.

Christian Education: There are 70 organized church schools in the district with an enrollment of 10,236 members and an average attendance of 5,515. One hundred thirteen attended Christian Workers' Schools and 91 were present for the District Vacation Church School Institute. A District Music Question and Answer session was conducted at First Church, Washington, which was well attended and proved to be very effective. The four subdistrict Consultation on Leadership Training sessions were very helpful in stimulating training for leadership in the program of Christian education. An alarming feature of the reports on Christian education is the fact that there seems to be a decrease in church school enrollment and attendance. We are hoping this trend to be turned upward through leadership training and a more thorough use of our new curriculum materials. Plans are now in the making for Area Workshops on the new youth curriculum.

Missions: Three very fine and well-attended mission study institutes were conducted in preparation for our church-wide Schools of Missions in the local churches. As a result there has been a report of 46 very successful schools of missions. Twenty new members have been added to the Ten Dollar Club which represents only about half of our goal. The churches have reported that there are 46 advance special projects and that $10,24 has been raised for mission specials.

Stewardship and Lay Activities: The District Board of Lay Activities and the lay leadership of the 71 churches have been very faithful in the promotion of stewardship this year. The laymen have also given leadership to both the college and the camp crusades by way of promotion, stimulation, and contributions. The support of World Service and Conference Benevolence program has increased over last year, at this date, by an amount equal to $5,000. At this date there is a considerable increase in the acceptance of World Service and Conference Benevolence and pastors' salaries for next conference year.

Buildings and Improvements: The reports on buildings and improvements indicate that 30 new projects have been started, 24 completed, and nine dedicated. Total money raised for buildings and improvements is $185,385. The total value of church property in the Greenville District is $5,695,380; parsonage property, $822,900, and other property $390,935, making a total of $1,809,215. Most every charge has reported some improvement of their property. Over the entire district, the church and parsonage property is in very good condition. Some of the projects in process and being planned are 1) Jarvis Memorial is planning a complete renovation and air-conditioning of the education building at an estimated cost of $290,000. 2) Grifton is planning a new sanctuary and educational building at the cost of $165,000. 3) St. Marks in Kinston has air-conditioned the church this year. 4) Westminster in Kinston has completed a new educational building and adjoining very level garden at a cost of $130,000. 5) Farmville is in the process of completing plans for the relocation and building of an entire new sanctuary and church school plant. 6) Stantonsburg has plans underway for a new fellowship hall and Sunday school rooms plus renovation of the present facilities. 7) Lebanon Church of the same charge has completed a new kitchen and bathrooms, the cost of which has been paid in full. 8) First Church, Washington, is in the process of completing plans for new church school building. Other extensive improvements have already been made. 9) St. James Church, Greenville, has completed its new chapel, installed beautiful stained glass windows, renovated the first unit built in 1955, and completed the purchase of a new Dutch Colonial parsonage, valued at $42,000.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

R. GRADY DAWSON, Superintendent

To the faithful pastors and loyal Methodists of the New Bern District I want to express my sincere appreciation for their good work, splendid cooperation and helpful support, not only for the past conference year, but also during the six years I have served as superintendent of the district. Through their faithfulness and hard work many wonderful things have been accomplished, and the district has made much progress. As we review the past year's work there are many things worth noting and for which I am truly grateful to God and His faithful laborers in the district.

Membership and Evangelism: In this area the pastors and their church members have wrought well, and their labors have borne fruit, as the following figures will indicate. As of April 20, 1962 new members have been received into the churches—385 on profession of faith, with a net increase of 393. The special evangelistic projects of the churches have included 54 revivals, 44 periods of visitation evangelism, 47 church membership classes, 165 infant baptisms, seven lay witness missions, and hundreds of cottage prayer meetings. In addition to those who have been led to Christ and brought into the fellowship of the church, the spiritual life of the church members has been lifted and renewed.

Christian Education: This important area of our work continues to be a matter of great interest and deep concern to our pastors and many of their faithful members. Although the church schools continue to be active and are doing a good work, we have not made progress in church school enrollment and attendance. Several churches in the district have shown a fine growth in both enrollment and attendance, but a majority of the churches show a decrease. A good program of leadership training has been carried out in the district this year through Christian Workers' Schools, workshops on the commissions and on the new youth literature, a Vacation Church School Institute, and youth rallies. Over 1200 youth and adults have attended one or more of these training opportunities. The members of the district education staff have been very faithful and worked hard, and to them I want to express my deep appreciation.

There is also a continued interest in Christian higher education and our Methodist colleges, as is evidenced by the fact that 22 of the churches have paid their college quota in full, or will by the end of this year, and 22 others have indicated that they expect to pay their quota in full in the near future. The churches of the district will raise an excess of $10,000 this year for our Methodist colleges.

Our people have responded in a very fine way to the Camp Crusade. The New Bern district has accepted as a quota $33,333. Most of that amount has already been accepted by the local churches and secured by cash donations, by pledges from individuals and organizations, or placed in the church budget. Several churches have not yet completed their canvass. When all the churches have completed their canvass, I feel confident the New Bern District will exceed its quota. Approximately $6,660.00 in cash already has been sent to Dr. Morris. A proper follow-up of this campaign will of course be necessary.

Christian Missions and Church Extension: The continued interest of our people in Christian missions both at home and abroad is evidenced by the activities of the local churches through the work of the Commission on Missions, missions schools, mission studies and workshops, and by their increased giving to World Service and Conference benevolence, and also to Advance Specials. This year the churches have given in excess of $12,000.00 to Advance Specials, which is an increase of $5,000.00 over last year. We also have four churches that are partly supporting a missionary on the field. Our churches have responded exceptionally well to the new system of the single figure apportionment. As of this date it appears that the New Bern District will accept at least 99% of the single figure apportionment assigned to it, which will reflect an increase of about $7,000.00 over last year.

Church extension also holds our interest and attention. Several new Ten Dollar Club subscriptions have been secured this year. During the year we have formally organized the new church, St. Paul, Jacksonville, which is doing quite well under the effective leadership of the Reverend J. A. Tingle.

The 65 Women's Societies of Christian Service in the district are active and doing good work. We can always count on the women to do their share—and more. I want to pay special tribute to Mrs. J. H. Ipock, district president, for her dedicated and efficient leadership.

Christian Social Concerns: There is a new interest and activity in the area of social concerns. More of the local church commissions are becoming active, and are not just paper commissions. These commissions have engaged in many helpful studies and projects this year, and many of the members attended the three subdistrict workshops held in the district this year on social concerns. Much more work, however, needs to be done by the local church commissions. Our churches need to become better informed and more concerned about the many vital issues which face our nation and our world today, and a more intelligent and Christian involvement in these issues.

Lay Activities: Through the dedicated leadership of our district and associate district lay leaders, our laymen are being awakened, renewed and challenged to a greater participation in the total program of the church. Lay activities, lay speaking, lay witness missions, and lay training projects are making their impact upon the program of the church. The four lay witness missions, the 130 lay speakers, and the 35 Methodist Men's Clubs have made an outstanding contribution to the work of the kingdom in the district. If the laymen of our churches can be truly awakened, spiritually renewed, and given a new vision of their potential, a new and better day will dawn on our local churches. I believe that new day is drawing closer.

Group Ministry: The East Carteret Group Ministry, under the direction of the Reverend J. T. Fisher, continues to move forward, and continues to plan and carry out a number of helpful cooperative projects in the ten Methodist churches east of Beaufort.

Buildings and Finances: Building activities continue to be brisk in the New Bern District, as evidenced by the following facts:

a. Construction completed this year: Swansboro, a new sanctuary and education unit, officially opened and consecrated on April 21st; Harlowe, enlarged sanctuary, additional church school rooms; Beech Grove, additional church school rooms; Trinity, New Bern, Paul, Jacksonville, new parsonage.

b. Construction begun: Trinity, Jacksonville, new education building; Verona, rebuilding sanctuary and education unit destroyed by fire; North River, new education building; Midway, first unit of new church building.

c. In planning stage: Garber, New Bern, new sanctuary; Salter Path, new sanctuary; Clarks, new sanctuary; St. James, Newport, new education building; Richlands, new education building; Merriman, additional church school rooms; Gum Branch, additional church school rooms; Beech Grove, additional church school rooms; Trinity, New Bern, new parsonage; St. Peter's, Morehead City, new parsonage.

d. Renovations: Franklin Memorial, parsonage.

e. Dedications: Harkers Island, new organ; Havelock: First Church, sanctuary and education unit.

I feel that the New Bern District has done quite well in the area of finances this year. Although the district may not pay 100% of its conference items this year, we are working hard for that goal and will come close to reaching it. During the year the churches have raised for all church and parsonage building projects in excess of $210,000.00, and for all purposes more than three-quarters of a million dollars. For next year the churches have increased pastors' salaries about $20,000.00 and the conference items about $17,000.00. Our people are growing in grace and stewardship.

Brief Six-Year Summary: Since this is my last year on the New Bern District, before closing my report, I want to give a brief summary of the work of the district. During the past six years, 6547 new members have been received into the churches. Pastors' salaries have increased $73,000.00. World Service and Conference Benevolences have increased $37,000.00. Nine new parsonages, eight new sanctuaries, and five new education buildings have been erected. Four parsonages and two sanctuaries have been renovated. For the 29 building projects completed the churches have raised one and one-half million dollars. We now have 15 new building projects on the way which will cost approximately $650,000.00. The total amount raised by the churches of the New Bern District for all purposes during the past six years amounts to almost six million dollars. This gives at least partial evidence that the Methodists in the New Bern District have been on the march, and are growing in grace and in Christian stewardship.

I am profoundly grateful for the privilege of working with these fine people for the past six years. At this Annual Conference I will not only leave the superintendency of the New Bern District, but also request the retired relationship after 42 years of preaching the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. As I look back upon those 42 years and count my blessings and reflect upon the goodness of God and The Methodist Church to me and my faithful companion, I feel like singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

RALEIGH DISTRICT

NICHOLAS W. GRANT, Superintendent

As the 26,000 members of the 72 churches in the Raleigh District work together to be effective in the mission committed to us, we have attempted to place much responsibility upon the local leadership both in the planning of their programs and in the execution of the same.

In the beginning of this report I would like to express appreciation for the outstanding work done by the lay leader of the district and his associates as the various causes of the church were emphasized in subdistrict meetings. Two such rounds were made during the year as we met in county units. In the first we attempted to give information concerning the possibilities in the development of Camp Kerr Lake. Much interest was manifested and approximately 40% of our goal of $50,000 was pledged or paid. During the second round the superintendent discussed the changes which had been made in our conference apportionments and a group of laymen gave a full and frank discussion of ministerial support in the North Carolina Conference. The following laymen were a part of this panel: J. E. Legates, Robert Marley, L. H. Johnson, Preston Page, Graham Grissom, A. E. Goldfinch, and Lewis Word. The attendance which surpassed 350 from the local churches seemed quite interested in the discussion. A tangible result of this emphasis is seen in an increase of approximately $30,000 in ministers' salaries for next year over the 1967-1968 conference year.

Evangelism: Fifty of the 53 charges received at least one person into the membership of the church during the year. To date we have received 530 by profession of faith and 1,025 by transfer of church letter. After deducting the losses we have had a net increase of 3%.

Missions: Eighty-six authorized studies were held involving 3,200 persons. The Raleigh Board of Missions and Church Extension continues to render a valuable service to church extension and in its inner-city work. Outstanding is the work of the Manly Street Day Nursery under the direction of the 20 churches of this city board.

Education: During the year our leaders have been attempting to make the necessary transition from the old to the new teaching aids for adults. According to our records 104 adult classes are now using the new materials for adults. Two hundred and fifteen teachers have taken advantage of the opportunities for organized teacher training. We are now making plans for the introduction of the new youth materials.

Nineteen of the 72 churches have completed their College Capital Fund quotas. Recently it was discovered that there are 267 young people from the churches of the Raleigh District who are receiving their education in church-supported colleges and universities. We hope that those churches which have some way to go in reaching their goals will not relax until they have finished. Every church in the Raleigh District has been given complete information concerning their standing in this cause. We are grateful for the efforts which have been made. The following churches are paid in full: Shady Grove, Ebenezer, Henderson: First, and White Memorial, Plank Chapel, Knightdale, Lebron, Warren Plains, Norlina, Raleigh: Benson Memorial, Cokesbury, Highland, Millbrook, St. James, Tabernacle, Shocco, Wendell, Wesley Chapel, Louisburg, Youngsville.

Social Concerns: Many and varied have been the efforts in the fields of social concerns. It is quite possible that much of our best and most effective work has been done in this area even though it is hard to report.

Stewardship: One of the greatest needs in the Raleigh District is an effective effort in stewardship training. Until this is done we will never reach our potential. Approximately one-half of our churches do not conduct any type of every-member cultivation canvass.

Building and Improvements: More than one-half million dollars has been paid on new construction or repairs to existing buildings. Extended improvements have been made at Shady Grove, Henderson: First and White Memorial, Raleigh: Jenkins and Trinity, and Wendell. New construction is in the making for Pleasant Grove, Fuquay, S. Andrews, Highland, Millbrook, St. James, and the Warren Charge.

The Wake Forest-Youngsville and Zebulon Charges have dedicated their parsonages and the Franklin Circuit parsonage is now free of debt. Plank Chapel education building will be dedicated in the near future.

A special word of appreciation to Mrs. Wiley Bryan, district president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and to Dr. J. E. Legates, district lay leader, for their excellent leadership during this year. To both laymen and ministers who have had a part in the successes of the Raleigh District I wish to say, "thank you!"

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

J. W. PAGE, Superintendent

The following report is made for the faithful ministers and laymen of the Rocky Mount District as a brief summary of their stewardship for the 1967-1968 Conference year:

Membership and Evangelism: Under the capable leadership of the Conference Executive Director of Evangelism, Reverend Howard McLamb, and the District Secretary of Evangelism, Reverend T. R. Jenkins, a full program of evangelism has been carried out in each charge. The ministers working with their Commissions on Membership and Evangelism planned and carried out a program of spiritual renewal and outreach in each church. The reports of the ministers to the Annual Conference will reflect the dedicated work done in the churches of the district. At this time a net gain in church membership is indicated.

Missions and Church Extension: The District Missionary Secretary is the Reverend J. Thomas Smith, and he has given dedicated and inspiring leadership in all phases of Missions and Church Extension. Study seminars were held for the training of both preachers and laymen in order to better equip them to plan and execute a School of Missions in their churches. It is gratifying to report that most of the churches held a school of missions. All the causes of Missions, World Service, and Conference Benevolences, and all areas of Advance Specials have been promoted.

Christian Higher Education: A great effort has been made this year to complete the College Crusade in each church and, I am happy to report, several churches have been added to the honor roll. Grateful appreciation is hereby expressed to Reverend James Auman and Bishop Paul Garber for their help in inspiring leadership in Christian higher education. We shall continue to work to reach our College Crusade goal. A word of appreciation must be given to Dr. Thomas A. Collins, president of North Carolina Wesleyan College, for his dedicated leadership at the college, and for his help in giving inspiring leadership to the churches of the entire North Carolina Conference.

Church School Work: The Reverend R. L. Baldrige continues to give effective and dynamic leadership in all phases of Church School work. With the new literature already being used in the Children's Division and the Adult Division, plans are now well under way for the new literature to be initiated in the Youth Division. Workshops are being planned for both ministers and youth leaders for this summer. Dr. C. P. Morris and his staff have given wise and helpful leadership in all phases of the educational program of the church.

Lay Activities: Mr. Willis Marshall of Tarboro is the new lay leader. Mr. Marshall, with the very brotherly help and guidance of Mr. Roy Turnage, Conference lay leader, and the cooperation of the associate lay leaders of the district, has given a well integrated program of lay activities. The annual Laymen's Rally was one of the best, and we are grateful to Bishop Paul Garber and Bishop Walter Gum for their inspiring messages. The new One-figure Asking budget for Conference Benevolences and World Service was presented at three subdistrict meetings and the participation by both ministers and laymen in these meetings was very gratifying.

Stewardship and Finance: Early in January the ministers were brought together in order to explain to them the new One-figure Asking budget for next year. With the help of Reverend Charles Hubbard and Mr. W. T. Lamm, Jr. of World Service and Finance, the new budget plan was presented to both ministers and members of the local church commissions on Stewardship and Finance. As a result of these meetings, most of the charges of the district have accepted graciously the One-figure Asking for next year. Since the pastor's salary is no longer related in a percentage way to any other item of the budget, most of the charges have accepted an increase in pastor's salary for the coming year. At the time of this report (April 15, 1968) it appears that the Rocky Mount District will accept about 97% of the One-figure Asking and the pastors' salaries of the district will have been increased by about $12,000.00.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Mrs. J. C. Reynolds of First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, is the new president for the Women's Society of Christian Service. The work of the women of the district continues to progress under the quiet but effective leadership of Mrs. Reynolds. Appreciation and gratitude is expressed to Mrs. L. G. Cook, the immediate past president of the District WSCS. Mrs. Sam Dunn of Enfield, the immediate past president of the Conference WSCS, has given wholesome help and guidance in all phases of the women's work, and appreciation is hereby expressed to her. At the district meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service at Marvin Methodist Church in April, Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Page were given Life Membership in the Society and were presented appropriate pens and scrolls. Words of appreciation and gratitude were spoken by both Mr. and Mrs. Page for this high honor. The faithful women of the Rocky Mount District continue their hard work and devoted leadership in all phases of the life of the church, and my deep personal appreciation is expressed to them.

Building and Repairs: First Methodist Church in Roanoke Rapids is now in a building program. Its new church will be ready for use in the spring of 1969. Shiloh, on the Gaston charge, is in the planning stage for a new church. St. James Church in Tarboro has recently occupied a lovely new Educational building. New Educational buildings are in the planning and early construction stage at Black Creek and Jackson. St. Paul Church has recently been completely redecorated and new lighting fixtures have been added to the sanctuary. The Conway Church had added an additional heating unit, and the church has been completely air-conditioned. Hornes Church has erected a lovely new outside bulletin board. Pinetops Church has raised $8,605.00 toward a new church building. A new Baldwin Organ has been purchased and installed by the Red Oak Church. Most of the churches of the district have purchased and are using the new Methodist Hymnal.

Parsonages: The parsonage at Evansdale-Black Creek has been recently renovated. The kitchen and dining rooms were helpfully changed and a new utility room was added. A new heating and air-conditioning unit was installed at the Hornes parsonage. On Sunday, March 17th, Bishop Paul Garber and the District Superintendent dedicated a new Memorial Chapel (Kitchin family) in the Scotland Neck Methodist Church, and the new parsonage. Extensive repairs and redecorations were made on the Seaboard parsonage.

Personal: This is the sixth and final report that I will make as the superintendent of the Rocky Mount District, and I take this opportunity to thank the bishop for giving me this opportunity to serve the Rocky Mount District, and the fine ministers and laymen who for six years have made my task a very rewarding experience. May God bless each of you as you carry on the work of the church in the years ahead. Amen and Amen.

SANFORD DISTRICT

VERGIL E. QUEEN, Superintendent

The Sanford District is composed of 82 local churches, arranged in 45 charges located in five counties, and served by 45 pastors. These churches and their leaders herewith submit this annual report of their achievements with an humble awareness that these statistics merely symbolize what might have been accomplished with more motivation, planning, and skill.

Building and Debt Retirement: There has been a steady growth in church and parsonage building, improvements to church property, and debt retirement. A total of $18,203.00 has been paid on old debts; $53,463.00 has been spent on improving property, while $14,568.00 has gone for parsonage improvements.

In the fall of 1967, the Norman Church opened its new activity building, greatly adding to its facilities. On Palm Sunday, April 7, Bishop Garber dedicated the Fellowship Church in Hamlet, and in the afternoon ground was broken for the first unit of the new Saint Luke project in Laurinburg—to be built at a cost of some $65,000.00.

Fair Promise Church on the Glendon Charge, installed new art glass windows at a cost of more than $2,000.00, adding great beauty to its sanctuary.

During the year, the Caledonia congregation completely renovated its sanctuary, adding new carpets, paint, and a re-styled chancel.

The Snead's Grove-Tabernacle Charge purchased a new parsonage costing $28,000.00, and the Central-Johns Charge of Laurinburg, has let the contract for a new parsonage to be built in Myers Park at a cost of nearly $25,000.00.

The Sanford district parsonage furnishings were completed during the year, and paved driveways and walks were laid at a cost of better than $2,000.00. A total of $6,330.00 has been paid on the indebtedness.

Members of the Ten Dollar Club within the Sanford District have given $4,000.00 in assistance to the building of churches for newly-formed congregations.

Christian Education: There are 80 local church schools in the district with a reported enrollment of 12,679—a decline of over 1,200 during the year.

Christian Workers' Schools have been held in each of the subdistricts, and in the fall of 1967 the camp crusade was launched. Already approximately $2,000.00 has been raised on this project.

Considerable attention has been given to charges with unpaid obligations to the college crusade, and although the results were disappointing, we have raised better than $6,500.00 on the crusade. It remains to be seen whether our churches will honor their quotas in this undertaking.

Membership and Evangelism: During the annual conference year, 58 protracted meetings were held and 44 membership training classes enrolling 315 persons were organized and completed. There has been 267 baptisms—112 infants and 155 adults. Total additions to church membership were: profession of faith, 250; from other denominations, 70; and from other Methodist churches, 257—a total of 577 new members.

Missions: Missionary education is the bright spot in our district story. Schools of missions were planned and conducted in most churches with splendid attendance and interest.

The new One Figure Apportionment plan has been well received by the charges. Our apportionment was fixed at $260,400.00—an increase of $22,893.00—and acceptances are running better than 90% at this reporting. Over $4,000.00 has been received this year on various Advance Specials.

The Women's Society of Christian Service has given inspired leadership in its field of endeavor under the guidance of the district president, Mrs. J. Nelson Gibson, Jr., and the Conference president-elect, Mrs. Harold Mann.

Lay Activities: The district program of lay activities is led by Mr. T. Roy Phillips, the district lay leader, and an able body of associates. Every phase of lay activities has been emphasized during the year. The district superintendent has encouraged training for all lay personnel, especially the lay leaders. The "No-Silent Pulpit" program has completed its best year yet, and we are attempting to refine and rejuvenate our Methodist Men's organizations.

General Observations: These are troubled days for the church. We carry two desperate needs: 1) laymen who are willing to leave all and become responsible churchmen, and 2) mature and competent pastors who are called and committed—willing to study, think, work, and preach—men who know, cherish, and love the doctrines and program of our historic Methodism.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

CLYDE G. MCCARVER, Superintendent

The Wilmington District is grateful to have the privilege of giving an account of her stewardship of the opportunities given her to minister in the name of her Lord. We are not satisfied with the attainments made, but we are grateful for the blessings which we have enjoyed as we have worked together this year.

Membership and Evangelism: Some of our local churches have made a serious effort to correct some mistakes in the statistical record of membership. As of April 18, 1968, we received 224 on profession of faith, 893 by transfer, and have a net gain of 600. Total, 15,120.

Christian Education: Our church schools gained 693 net membership and have 9,860 members as of April 18, 1968. We have participated in the total Conference plan of Christian education as it relates to the use of new literatures, camps crusade, leadership training sessions, etc. While not all of our churches have paid the College Crusade pledge in full, we feel that our people have participated in a gracious way to the success of this endeavor. Under the general leadership of the Reverend T. J. Whitehead, the cause of Christian education has been adequately presented throughout the Wilmington District. The Reverend Thomas Fulcher has provided splendid leadership for the youth.

Lay Activities: Wilmington District enjoys the dignified and consecrated leadership of one of the great laymen of the North Carolina Annual Conference—Mr. Wade Pierce. His equally dedicated staff of associate lay leaders has given good accounts of the charges committed to it. Our "No-Silent Pulpit" program enjoyed success again this year. It would be impossible to name each of the individuals or to give proper credit to the many contributions of time and talent given by the lay speakers. They have worked long and hard. Some six hundred laymen heard a dynamic address by Mr. Charlie McCullers at our district lay rally. It was among the best lay rallies ever held on the Wilmington District.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Mrs. J. C. Murdock and her officers have given splendid leadership and made significant contributions to the kingdom this year. Our abiding gratitude is extended to Mrs. Murdock as her years of service as president come to a close, due to the recent ruling of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She has wrought well the work which she has set out to do. There are, according to the recent reports of the pastors, 2,136 members of the Women's Society of Christian Service within the Wilmington District.

Building and Improvements: The amount of $258,721 has been spent on building improvements and debts on property. The following new buildings have been completed this year: Shiloh (Bolton), a new sanctuary; Chadbourn, a new parsonage; Hallsboro, a new parsonage; Harrells, a new parsonage; Ocean View, remodeled a parsonage; Southport, a new educational building and remodeled the present one; Tabor City, addition of a lovely steeple; Shiloh (Town Creek), a new educational building; Wesley's Chapel, a new educational building, renovated the parsonage, and remodeled the sanctuary; Epworth, renovated the sanctuary and educational facilities. The following projects have been started or are to begin before this report is read: Carver's Creek, remodeling sanctuary and building a new educational building; Clarkton, a new sanctuary and educational building; Harrells (Westview Church), a new sanctuary; Ocean View, a new educational addition and renovation of sanctuary; Rocky Point (Herrings Church), a new sanctuary; Wesley Memorial, a new educational building; Pine Valley, new educational addition.

Finances: To the extent of the participation of almost every charge, the Wilmington District has accepted the Single Figure Askings with a glad heart! We are confident that we shall accept the full expectations of the Conference. We have reason to expect that the records at the conclusion of this Annual Conference will show that each church on the district has paid in full those conference claims justly expected. As with all the sections above, the figures quoted as based on the reports of 35 of the 45 charges within the district. Based on those Quarterly Conferences which have been held up to April 7, we have had acceptance of $114,896 on the Single Figure and $15,000 increase on pastors' salaries. There are, at the time of the writing of this report, ten more Quarterly Conferences to be heard from. Therefore, the financial records are far from complete! We shall have more increases in each area as a result of these meetings.

The fine ministers who have given cooperation are to be commended. It has been these men, plus consecrated lay leadership, who have made the report and measure of success possible. I sincerely thank all for the work done and the privilege of serving among them.

REPORT ON THE APPROVED SUPPLY PASTORS' SCHOOL

July 10-August 4, 1967

The Duke University Approved Supply Pastors' School was held July 10-August 4, 1967, and was sponsored by the Divinity School of Duke University, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and the Department of Ministerial Education. There was a total of 246 pastors enrolled with 10 in the Course for License to Preach, 48 in Introductory Studies, 39 in First Year Studies, 4 in Second Year Studies, 31 in Third Year Studies, 42 in Fourth Year Studies, and 23 in Advanced Studies. There were 66 students from the Western North Carolina Conference, 54 from the North Carolina Conference, 44 from Virginia, 25 from Holston, 1 from West Virginia, 17 from South Carolina, 9 from Florida, 2 from North Alabama, 1 from the Alabama-West Florida Conference, 1 from South Georgia, 1 from Southwest Texas, 1 from Philadelphia, and 1 non-Methodist.

The full course of study for License to Preach, Introductory Studies, and the four-year Conference course was offered. Two of the courses for Advanced Studies were offered. Scholarships totaling $21,902.50 were granted to students. Sixty-six scholarships totaling $6,400.00 were granted to pastors from the Western North Carolina Conference. Fifty-four scholarships amounting to $4,600.00 were awarded students from the North Carolina Conference. Forty-four scholarships amounting to $3,037.50 were awarded students from the Virginia Conference, and 24 scholarships amounting to $3,540.00 were awarded students from the West Virginia Conference. Twenty-five scholarships amounting to $2,400.00 were awarded students from the Holston Conference.

In order to register for the Approved Supply School students are required to have the endorsement of their district superintendents and the president of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training or the chairman of the Committee on Approved Supply Pastors of that Board.

The faculty included the Reverend Paul Carruth, Chaplain Robert B. Claytor, Dr. Wesley Kort, Dr. James M. Efrid, Dr. W. Arthur Kale, Dr. Eugene Long, the Reverend Walter McDonald, Dr. Max Polley, Dr. McMurry S. Richey, Dr. Mac L. Ricketts, Dr. John J. Rudin, Dr. Harmon Smith, the Reverend Gerald Smith, and the Reverend Donald J. Welch.

The Course of Study School for next year will be held July 8-August 2, 1968.

REPORT ON THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Committee on Church Architecture is composed of the bishop, the district superintendents, representatives from various conference boards, agencies and institutions, and interested architects from each district. During the conference year the following activities took place:

1. A regular meeting on September 9, at which time Mr. Dennis Nicholson, an architect who had served for more than two years with the Department of Architecture in Philadelphia, presented slides showing trends and patterns of thinking with reference to the development of church architecture in this century. He conducted a discussion, giving particular attention to areas of worship, symbolism and building projects based on well worked-out local church programs.

2. In cooperation with executive secretaries of the Board of Missions and the Board of Education and architects, several meetings were held on a district or subdistrict level. Local church building committees and representatives have had opportunities to discuss the over-all plans, cost of construction, and methods of financing.

3. The Annual Joint Meeting with the Western North Carolina Conference was held March 4. Mr. William B. McGehee, architect and member of Six Associates in Asheville, presented slides along with an explanatory lecture setting forth the basis for the conception of the plans for the proposed addition and new chapel for the Duke Divinity School.

At the luncheon hour Dr. Earl Brewer, Professor of Sociology and Director of the Religious Research Center of Candler School of Theology, now on leave serving as Director of Research for the National Council of Churches, presented a paper on "A Partnership for the Renewal of North Carolina." He directed his remarks to not only the leaders in the building program but also to the leaders of rural Methodist churches within the state.

The committee has gone on record favoring an expansion of the district and subdistrict consultations on Church Building and Program Planning.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

INTRODUCTION

Jesus Christ is not only Head of the Church but is also the sovereign Lord of all life. Obedience to his command to love our neighbors and our enemies requires that the Church work to achieve a just social order.

In our historic position we have sought to follow Christ in bringing the whole of life, with its activities, possessions, and relationships, into conformity with the will of God.

As Methodists we have an obligation to affirm our positions on social and economic questions. The Methodist church must view the perplexing times and problems which we face today in the light of the life and teachings of Jesus. Jesus taught us to love our neighbors and to seek justice for them as well as for ourselves. To be silent in the face of need, injustice, and exploitation is to deny him.

How the church speaks and acts in the crucible of human events clarifies or obscures the living presence of Jesus Christ today. Achieving a more just social order requires not only the redemption of individuals but also the converting of the systems of society which so profoundly influence the life of the individual. What has often been said must be said again. The Church of Jesus Christ in a free society not only has the right but also the duty to study and to speak and to act upon issues, no matter how controversial, in the realm of politics, economics and social affairs, in view of its common faith in Jesus Christ as both Savior and Lord. For all matters of concern for human beings are matters of concern to the churches and to the churches' Lord.

Mr. J. Irwin Miller of Indianapolis, Indiana, president of the Cummins Diesel Company and a great Christian layman, spoke of this responsibility of the church when he said: "My own admitted layman's knowledge of Christianity has always led me to believe that the tradition of which we are a part, from the Ten Commandments through the prophets of the Old Testament, down to Jesus Christ and the apostles, has been one of concern not only for man's individual faith but also for his individual social behavior; and that of society to the various groups in society as well. The care of the sick, feeding of the hungry, liberation of the oppressed, justice and mercy for everyone have always been proper concerns of the religious man according to our tradition. If the church does not speak on such matters, I do not know who will in our society, and as one layman daily involved in the busy life of our times, I think all of us need such a voice."

We believe that all persons have supreme value in the sight of God, and ought to be so regarded by us. We test all institutions and practices by their effect upon the dignity, the welfare, and the freedom of persons. Since Jesus Christ died for the redemption of all men, we believe we should live to help save man from sin and from every influence which would harm or destroy him.

Through all of its history Methodism has sought to relate the gospel which it has preached to the life of its members and to the communities in which they have lived. To lift up before the members of the church and also the secular world the Christian concern for personal, social, and civic righteousness, to analyze the issues which confront the nation and the world, as well as the local county and the person, and to propose Christian lines of action, there is a Board of Christian Social Concerns at the national and conference levels and Commissions of Christian Social Concerns in every local Methodist church.

THE PROGRAM FOR THE PAST YEAR

Under the authority of the Discipline, and to carry out the actions of the 1967 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns reports on the following projects and activities:

1. A World Order Conference on the theme: "Vietnam—Dilemma for Christians" was sponsored at Edenton Street Methodist Church in Raleigh, November 14, 1967. One hundred fifty persons participated and heard addresses by The Honorable Tran Van Dinh of Vietnam; Dr. Thomas F. Ritt, prominent Roman Catholic layman; Dr. Fredrick Krantz, professor in the Department of History at Duke University, and a representative from the U. S. Department of State.

2. A Conference-wide mailing of packets of materials on the Vietnam crisis and the need for new peace initiatives by the U. S. was sent to all pastors and key conference laymen by the Division of Peace and World Order.

3. A North Carolina Conference group of seventeen Board of Christian Social Concerns members and local church leaders attended and participated in the Regional Christian Social Concerns Conference at Lake Junaluska, July 4-7, 1967.

4. The Board cooperated with the American Friends Service Committee and other North Carolina organizations in sponsoring the Fourteenth Annual Southeastern World Affairs Institute at Blue Ridge YMCA Assembly at Black Mountain, July 14-16. Scholarships for six Methodist students were provided.

5. Officers of this Board cooperated with the Annual Conference session of the MYF, involving three hundred young people, at Methodist College in providing leadership and audio-visual resources for workshop sessions on Extremism and Vietnam.

6. This Board joined with other Conference Boards and agencies in sponsoring a training session on Christian Social Concerns at the Annual Conference Orientation Workshop at the Methodist Building.

7. In cooperation with the Conference Board of Missions and the Conference Women's Society of Christian Service, this Board sponsored and promoted the annual School of Missions at Methodist College. This Board's president taught the Christian Social Concerns-Social Relations Study, "Man and Community," at our conference school and at the Western Conference school at Pfeiffer College.

8. This Board is a member of the State Legislative Council and has participated in legislative study sessions and workshops along with the twenty other North Carolina organizations which constitute this group. Rev. Leo Thompson has served as Conference representative on this Council this past year.

9. Leadership was provided by this Board for district Conferences on Missions and Inter-board District Training Workshops for local church leaders in the Christian Social Concerns area. Speakers were also provided for many district and subdistrict MYF meetings reaching thousands of our Methodist young people all over the conference.

10. Materials answering right-wing extremist attacks on the churches and the National Council of Churches, including the sermon, "False Prophets," by Dr. Daniel D. Walker, First Methodist Church, Pasadena, California, have been mailed to several hundred key conference lay and clergy leaders.

11. The Board cooperated with the North Carolina Council of Churches National Legislative Seminar held February 26, 1968, at First Presbyterian Church in Burlington and sponsored by the Council's Committee on Legislation and Public Morals, on which board president, Rev. Ralph Fleming, Jr., served as chairman.

12. This Board sponsored Mr. Henry Mitchell, attorney-at-law, chairman of the Hayes Barton Methodist Commission on Christian Social Concerns and its president, as representative at the Annual Washington Churchmen's Legislative Seminar.

13. Sixty conference lay and ministerial leaders participated in the day-long Conference Consultation on the Methodist Church and Alcohol Problems, February 3, 1968, at the Methodist Building. Leadership included Dr. Thomas E. Price, director of the Department of Alcohol and Drug Problems of the General Board of Christian Social Concerns; Dr. George L. Maddox, Jr., Department of Psychiatry of the Duke Medical Center; Dr. Norbert L. Kelly, director of the Division of Education of the North Carolina Department of Mental Health; and Dr. Norman A. Desrosiers, resident in Psychiatry at John Umstead Hospital at Butner, N. C.

14. This Board sponsored the Reverend Paul Carruth, pastor of Hayes Barton Methodist Church in Raleigh, as a delegate to the National Methodist Consultation on Alcohol in Detroit, Michigan.

15. The Urban Life Conference, held at Hayes Barton Methodist Church in Raleigh, October 10-11, was jointly sponsored by the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Board of Missions.

16. Three thousand copies of press releases from the National Council of Churches and from the General Board of Christian Social Concerns were printed and mailed to conference laymen and ministers. These called attention to the facts about the U. S. government's study publication, Alcohol Problems—A Report to the Nation, and clarified the erroneous press reports that the National Council endorsed the government sponsored report.

17. "This Year in Christian Social Concerns, 1967-68" was the name of a leaflet published by this Board to assist local church commissions and ministers in planning their year's program. Four thousand have been distributed.

18. New audio-visuals for local church use by youth and adults have been purchased by this Board and placed in the Conference TRAFICO library. These include the following: "Tobacco and Alcohol: A $50,000 Question;" "To Smoke or Not to Smoke;" "Alcohol, A Dilemma for Youth," and "Sex—A Moral Dilemma for Teen-agers."

19. Two outstanding workshops on "The Church Confronts Extremism," involving over three hundred fifty Methodist and community leaders, were sponsored at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church in Greenville on March 11 and at Edenton Street Methodist Church in Raleigh on April 2. The speakers included Charles Baker of the Institute of American Democracy in Washington, D. C.; Dr. James Stoner, Dr. Henry McManis of the National Council of Churches in New York, and Sherman Harris of the Anti-Defamation League of Richmond, Virginia.

SUGGESTED 1968-69 PROGRAM OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

June 30-July 3: The Southeastern Jurisdiction Conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lake Junaluska offers valuable training and inspiration for local church commission leaders, ministers, and district and conference leaders of Christian Social Concerns and Christian Social Relations. Local churches should provide scholarship assistance. Get applications from pastor, district director, or Dr. Trigg James, Box 237, Lake Junaluska, N. C. Outstanding speakers, including Bishops Allen, Hardin, and Herrick, Dr. Eugene Stockwell, Dr. Dudley Ward, Dr. Earl Brewer, and Miss Thelma Stevens.

July 12-14: The Fifteenth Annual Southeastern World Affairs Institute at the Blue Ridge YMCA Assembly, Black Mountain, N. C., is sponsored by our Board of Christian Social Concerns, the American Freedom Association, and the American Friends Service Committee. This year's theme is "Beyond Vietnam: Stable Peace or Recurring Wars." Write the Board of Christian Social Concerns, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Ave., Raleigh, N. C., for further details and applications.

August 5-8: The Annual Conference School of Mission at Methodist College, Fayetteville, N. C., is open to local church Christian Social Concerns leaders. A short weekend school will also be held August 3-4. Mrs. E. B. Fisher, 503 Tarleton Ave., Burlington, N. C., is registrar.

July-September: All local church commissions are urged to hold annual planning sessions using the May, 1967 Methodist Story for commission members as a guide for developing study and action projects for the year. Also use the Commission Manual and the filmstrip, "The Church and Christian Social Concerns," from TRAFICO in Raleigh, and Board officers and district directors as resources for these sessions.

September-October: District Training Workshops for local church Christian Social Concerns leaders will be provided throughout the conference. This project offers valuable assistance in planning local church involvement in Christian Social Concerns study and action projects. The new quadrennial and conference programs will be introduced.

October 20: World Order Sunday—Observe this special day using educational materials prepared by the General Board (see September issue of The Methodist Story.)

November 10: Commitment Day should be observed in every local church through a sermon on the alcohol problem and through the use of special materials prepared by the General Board (see October issue of The Methodist Story.)

December 29: Statewide Capital Punishment Sunday for preaching and study emphasis—all churches. Promotion and materials provided by the North Carolina Council of Churches and the Board of Christian Social Concerns.

January: Legislative emphasis to register our Christian opinion on vital issues facing our state. Involvement and action by local Methodist lay and clerical leaders will be mobilized and focused upon the North Carolina General Assembly.

February 9, 1969: Race Relations Sunday should be observed in every local church through sermon emphasis, special projects, and offering.

February 23: Statewide Abolish Capital Punishment Rally in Raleigh at 3:00 p.m. Local commissions should promote and attend. Sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches, North Carolinians Against the Death Penalty, and our Board of Christian Social Concerns.

February 24: Biennial State Legislative Seminar sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches to be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Raleigh, 10:00 a.m. Ministers and key laymen are urged to attend.

March 11-12: An Urban Life conference on the theme, "Crises in Our Cities—Chaos or Community?" is to be held at Hayes Barton Methodist Church in Raleigh, sponsored by the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Conference Board of Missions.

DIVISION OF HUMAN RELATIONS AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

The 1968 General Conference of the United Methodist Church defines the work of the Division of Human Relations as follows:

"It shall be the responsibility of the Division of Human Relations to conduct a program of research, education, and action centering around the following Christian social concerns, race relations, extremist movements, civil liberties, application of democratic principles related to voting, public policy on education, church and state relations, labor-management relations, agriculture, conservation, government and private economic policy and practice, technological and social change, employment, poverty, urbanization, housing, and such concerns as the board may specify.

It can be readily seen that the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns does not have the human and financial resources to implement programs in all of these areas. Nevertheless, it needs to keep reminding our people that Methodists as Christians and as good citizens have an increasing responsibility to seek for Christian answers to the bewildering social problems that confront our nation and our world.

The walls of misunderstanding, suspicion, and strife at times seem high and insurmountable. Political and ideological differences, class and race walls threaten to destroy personal, community, national and international peace. Recent events in our own country cause every thoughtful person to realize that civil disorder is a very real and serious threat.

The times call for Christian restraint and patience. Churchmen should be the first in their communities to work for racial understanding. They should be in the forefront of the struggle against injustice, discrimination, poverty, and ignorance. All churches of the community should join hands in programs aimed at lifting the economic, educational, social and spiritual level of those at the bottom of the ladder.

The headstrong and irresponsible tactics of extremists are the greatest barriers to good human relations. Both leftwing and rightwing extremists continue to stir up strife, to divide families and communities and people. Churchmen should not line up with any of these groups, but should expose them for what they are—reckless, mad extremists who would turn our country into a totalitarian state either socialist or fascist.

Of course, there is a place for both the conscientious liberal and the conscientious conservative. Moreover, we need to debate the great issues in an atmosphere of mutual respect. In this way we can arrive at a course of action on which a majority may be able to agree.

The Division this year, aware of the menace of extremism, has sponsored two workshops on Extremism on the Right. The first was held at Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville, on March 9 and the second was held at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, on April 2. Many have felt that workshops dealing with extremism should be held in local churches.

We pay tribute once more to David S. Coltrane and his staff in their efforts through the Good Neighbor Council to establish and maintain interracial communications in difficult times. We commend also the thousands of people of good will of both races as they labor together for better relations.

The voice of good will and brotherhood must be heard above the raucous, bitter, vindictive railings of the extremists.

Our generation looks to the church for leadership in these times of division and strife. To be indifferent or timid or silent at this critical hour is to deny the high calling of our Lord. We particularly urge laymen and ministers to cooperate fully with our bishop and the Cabinet in receiving the churches of the Central Jurisdiction that lie within our Conference. What we do during the next two or three years will have implications far beyond the bounds of our Conference.

C. W. ROBBINS, Vice-President

RECOMMENDED LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM FOR 1968-69

(Supplement to Report in Book of Reports from this point on. Editor)

The Board recommends support for the following legislation which has been agreed upon by the leadership of 22 statewide civic, church, and social organizations in the State Legislative Council in which this Board and our Conference Women's Society of Christian Service have membership. Reverend Leo C. Thompson is the Board's Legislative Representative on this Council.

1. Mandatory Licensing of Day Care Facilities

While the State Department of Public Welfare, working with other public agencies on the Inter-Agency Committee on Day Care, has licensed day care facilities on a voluntary basis since 1926, it has done so without legal authority to close facilities unwilling to meet acceptable standards. There is a great need for mandatory licensing along with adequate inspection. According to a study made by the Research Triangle Institute, it is estimated that as of January 1967, there were 965 facilities in the state providing full-day care for children, 800 facilities providing half-day care, and 35 facilities with special programs. Of the estimated 965 full-day care facilities, about 350 are now being licensed on a voluntary basis. The need for mandatory licensing will increase as more and more women return to the labor market. Projected estimates indicate that by 1970 approximately 360,000 children under six will require some type of day care. At present, only 10,266 children are cared for in facilities which are voluntarily licensed. Forty-four counties in North Carolina have no voluntarily licensed facilities whatever, 17 counties have only one licensed facility. Mandatory licensing will mean that all children being placed for care are afforded the protection of minimum standards and regulations dealing with health, safety, and environmental factors. The purpose of mandatory licensing, along with inspection, is to help bring facilities up to acceptable standards. Where deplorable conditions exist, state law should provide the means to change these situations. Forty-seven states and the District of Columbia now have mandatory day care licensing laws. North Carolina needs to regulate this growing industry on a statewide basis now, in order to protect its greatest resource—its children.

2. Consumer Protection Legislation

Consumer credit in North Carolina is growing, and is thought to be a $2.5 billion business in this state, although there is little information available as to its exact size. It is an unregulated business since there is no statutory law in North Carolina which protects the consumer in credit purchases. There is minimal protection for the consumer when he borrows money, but even less when he is involved in credit or installment buying. Because there are now no regulations in North Carolina dealing with the consumer credit business, consumers often pay finance charges that range from 30% to 40% a year. Forty states have statutory laws which provide a measure of protection in the matter of consumer credit. Federal legislation dealing with what is known as "truth-in-lending" is now pending. This proposed legislation calls for full disclosure of charges only, and does not attempt to set interest rates or state service charges. The State Legislative Council, mindful of the proposed legislation at the federal level, favors legislation on the state level that would provide safeguards for the consumer by adequately regulating the consumer transactions of all lending and credit institutions. The public has a right to such protection.

3. Abolishment of the Death Penalty

As the North Carolina law now stands, the death penalty can be imposed for first degree murder, rape, first degree arson, and first degree burglary. The State Legislative Council has worked for the repeal of this law for many years. It would seem that we are getting closer to the goal of total abolition. An indication of the growing interest in this issue came during the 1967 session of the General Assembly. Five bills were introduced that in one way or another sought to limit or abolish the death penalty. The State Legislative Council supported Representative Sneed High's bill which called for total abolition of the death penalty. It was defeated 69 to 41, but received more votes than those bills which sought merely to limit the death penalty. The marked trend in favor of abolition can further be noted by the fact that in the past three sessions votes have risen from 9 to 41. Thirteen states have now eliminated the death penalty and none show that there has been an increase in capital crimes. To the contrary, the five states with the highest number of murder rates have carried out more executions than almost any other state; while the five with the lowest rates have abolished the death penalty. This evidence would refute the major argument of those who would retain the death penalty on the grounds that it acts as a deterrent. Those who oppose capital punishment state that the death penalty is not an effective deterrent, that it ignores modern rehabilitation methods, that it punishes beyond remedy some who are later proved innocent, that it falls on the poor, the ignorant, the friendless, the male sex and Negroes, and that it is, in the final analysis, legalized killing. Opponents of capital punishment include penologists, judges, lawyers, ministers and laymen.

THE DIVISION OF ALCOHOL PROBLEMS AND GENERAL WELFARE

In light of the widespread distortion of the General Conference action concerning the use of beverage alcohol presented in the press, we recommend that local commissions on Christian Social Concerns secure and disseminate the exact wording of the General Conference action and that they interpret accurately the intent of the General Conference.

We reaffirm our previous stand of opposition to all efforts to weaken our North Carolina liquor control laws and permit "liquor-by-the-drink." We are also in opposition to any legislative change in our existing law to legalize distilleries in North Carolina. We believe this will be a year of fateful decision in North Carolina where powerful financial and vested interests are organizing to increase the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages. We urge our next governor to take a strong stand against liquor by the drink and to oppose any efforts which would increase the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages in North Carolina. We urge the General Assembly of North Carolina to utilize more fully revenue from the sale of alcoholic beverages for rehabilitation of alcoholics.

We commend the Christian Action League and its director, the Reverend D. P. McFarland, for their vigorous and dedicated program to educate youth and adults in local churches and in the public schools as to the effects of alcohol consumption and their continued opposition to laws that favor the liquor industry.

We commend the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw and its director, the Reverend J. C. Dunn, for their dedicated work toward a Christian rehabilitation of alcoholics.

We recognize the growing pressures in America to legalize various forms of gambling. Therefore, we urge local churches to take seriously this rising menace to the spiritual life of our people and to utilize fully the educational resources of our church concerning the Christian moral and economic implications of this threat, especially among our youth.

We encourage members of the local Commission on Christian Social Concerns to become actively involved in community action and mental health programs to minister to the mentally ill and the mentally retarded.

HIGHWAY SAFETY

Traffic fatalities claimed 57,000 lives last year and appear to be on the increase. Since the safety of human life is a moral and religious concern, we call upon our people to assume greater responsibility in helping to eliminate the causes of accidents.

We commend Governor Dan Moore for calling together the religious leaders of North Carolina for a Traffic Safety Conference and for his proclamation of June 29-30, 1968, as Religious Concern for Traffic Safety Days in North Carolina. The commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," is a mandate covering reckless, careless, or irresponsible use of a motor vehicle as much as it does the indiscriminate pointing of a loaded firearm. We call upon all Methodist ministers and laymen to bring this moral and spiritual issue before the people called Methodists in local church observance of these special days.

Ministers and local church Commissions on Christian Social Concerns are urged to secure the excellent resource list of church safety materials from the Religious Activities Department, National Safety Council, 425 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611. A helpful anthology, "He Rides Beside You (The Spiritual Side of Our Traffic Problem)," a collection of speeches, articles, and prayers for use by the clergy and other speakers, is available from Stromberg Allen and Co., 430 S. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill.

We especially ask for increased efforts to save lives from death on the highways by encouraging law enforcement, supporting legislation to make our highways safer and by developing a keener sense of moral responsibility toward this national problem. We urge our churches to cooperate with state and local committees for highway safety and with other existing groups who serve the cause of accident prevention.

LOUIS ALLEN, Jr., Vice-President

GENERAL CONFERENCE PRONOUNCEMENTS

A. The Rule of Law and the Right to Dissent

The increasing stresses in our society, growing out of strong differences over the war in Vietnam and the perpetuation of racial discrimination at home, make it essential that we understand the nature and implications of dissent, civil disobedience to the law and seeking within the law redress for wrongs.

As Christians we seek God's will for our lives. We realize that at times of conflict we are called upon "to obey God rather than man" and hence may find ourselves at odds with temporal authority. At the same time we are constrained to act in humility and in the spirit of reconciliation. In this spirit we state the following affirmations:

One, we affirm the value and necessity of a society rooted in law and of a citizenry who respect law. No society can long continue without justice and order, and these cannot exist unless the members of a society adhere to the rule of law. When particular provisions of law are unwise or unjust, the citizen must seek correction through the law's provision for change, i.e., in the courts or the legislature or to reconstitute law-making bodies through the democratic process.

A rule of law is dependent upon the respect and support of the citizenry as well as on its obedience. Therefore, the provisions and processes of the law must merit respect and support. They must be constantly tended and improved by the hands of those sensitive to injustice. Laws must be drafted, interpreted, and administered in terms of man's highest moral insights. This is the way to that rule of law which will afford society the justice and order it requires.

Nevertheless, in our day as in other times, there are persons who under conscience cannot obey a given law or who have found that their attempts to change a law or to secure redress for their grievances have fallen on deaf ears or have been rejected. We understand how, in such circumstances, they must "obey God rather than man."

Two, we then affirm the right of dissent as an essential ingredient of any democratic society. The right of everyone to dissent is in jeopardy when the right of anyone is denied.

In a time of intense controversy and conflict, we call attention to the American heritage, which has provided for the right of dissent. As a nation whose very historic and cherished freedoms were forged by dissent, we believe that in our time the interests of our common life may, in certain specific instances, be served best by those who dissent from the policies and actions of his government when he believes them to be immoral and unjust. At the same time, we urge that all expressions of dissent be responsible and within a basic committal to a non-violent means.

Three, we affirm the right of civil disobedience in extreme cases as a viable option in a democracy and as a sometime requirement for Christians who are to have no other God than the God of Jesus Christ. By civil disobedience we mean the deliberate and non-violent disobeying of a law believed to be unjust or unconstitutional, and the willingness to accept penalties for that violation.

When a civil disobedient has a fundamental respect for legal institutions of society and is prepared to accept penalties for disobedience, there is little threat to the basic concept of the rule of law.

We believe that such disobedience under conscientious control does not justify, nor would it encourage, widespread casual and indiscriminate violation of law. Some may misinterpret the civil disobedient's motivation and action, and respond accordingly, but this is one of the risks that must be taken in a society that gives some autonomy to an informed and sensitive conscience. We believe that not only the individual who protests, but freedom of religion and the best interests of the society itself, will be served by this freedom for conscientious action.

Four, we affirm the right of clergymen and others to counsel persons on problems of conscience.

B. On Alcohol

1. As a part of The Report on the Ministry:

a. Original statement:

"For the sake of disciplined example are you willing to make a complete dedication of yourself to the highest ideals of the Christian ministry with respect to purity of life in body, in mind and in spirit, and to bear witness thereto by abstinence from all indulgences, including alcoholic beverages and tobacco which may injure your influence?"

b. Revised statement:

"For the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness to the Christian gospel, and in consideration of your influence as a minister, are you willing to make a complete dedication of yourself to the highest ideals of the Christian life as set forth in Paragraphs 93, 94, and 95, Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and to this end, will you agree to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, social responsibility, and growth in grace and in the knowledge and love of God?"

Par. 318.7: "Every candidate for the ministry of the United Methodist Church shall have . . . (7) agreed for the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world and the most effective witness to the Christian gospel and in consideration of his influence as a minister to make a complete dedication of himself to the highest ideals of the Christian life as set forth in Par. 93 (General Rules of the Methodist Church), Par. 94 (The Methodist Social Creed), and Par. 95 (Basic Beliefs Regarding Social Issues and Moral Standards of the EUB Church, Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and to this end, agreed to exercise responsible self-control by personal habits, conducive to bodily health, mental and emotional maturity, social responsibility, and growth in grace and in knowledge and love of God.*

2. As a part of a statement on Drug and Alcohol Concerns, presented by the Committee on Christian Social Concerns:

"To implement United Methodist concern for the problem of alcohol and drug abuse as expressed in the Social Creed and in the resolution on 'The Adoptive Society,' the second Sunday in November will be observed to emphasize Drug and Alcoholic Concerns for the purpose of:

d. Encouraging abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages as one form of personal and social witness to God's liberating love for mankind."

RESOLUTION

We are deeply shocked by the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy of New York. We extend to his family our deepest sympathy and assure them of our sincerest prayers.

This assassination brings shame and disgrace upon our beloved nation. We sense our corporate guilt for our apathy and failure to correct the injustice and climate of hate and violence that triggered his assassination and that of his brother, President John Kennedy, and of the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.

Our society cannot afford the continued loss by violence of its national leaders.

Therefore, we urge each local church in the North Carolina Conference to work actively to establish a climate of Christian love and justice and to become effective instruments of reconciliation.

We commend President Johnson in his appointment of a special commission to study violence in our nation and we join him in his call to observe Sunday, June 9, 1968, as a national day of mourning.

RESOLUTION

Interim Housing Maintenance

I. We call on the governing bodies of all municipalities and counties in North Carolina to enact and to enforce laws requiring that all residential rental property be kept in functionally good repair or be removed from the rental market, thus policing or regulating this vital commerce for the protection of the tenant.

II. We call on all Methodists and other citizens owning residential rental property to practice the ethic of the golden rule in keeping said property in good repair, and those who rent to abide by the same ethic.

III. We call on our churches to consider immediate and long-range housing needs in the lowest income residential areas, and to give time, leadership, labor, and money to meet both kinds of needs, forming work groups jointly with other churches of both races.

RESOLUTION ON FIREARMS CONTROL

Whereas, the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Senator Robert F. Kennedy have shocked our nation into an awareness of the easy accessibility of firearms by criminals and those mentally incompetent to bear them,

*In adopting the statement in Par. 318.7 on the moral and social responsibility of ministers, the General Conference seeks to elevate the standards by calling for a more thoroughgoing moral commitment by the candidate and for a more careful and thorough examination of candidates by district committees and Boards of Ministry. The legislation in no way implies that the use of tobacco is a morally indifferent question. In the light of the developing evidence against the use of tobacco, the burden of proof would be upon any user to show that his use of it is consistent with the highest ideals of the Christian life. Similarly, regarding beverage alcohol, the burden of proof would be upon any user to show that his action is consistent with the ideals of excellence of mind, purity of body, and responsible social behavior.

Therefore, the changes here are not to be interpreted as relaxing the traditional view concerning the use of tobacco and beverage alcohol by ministers of The United Methodist Church. Rather they call for higher standards of self-discipline and habit formation in all personal and social relationships. They call for dimensions of moral commitment that go far beyond any specific practices which might be listed.

Whereas, approximately 18,000 Americans die annually from intentional and accidental shootings by all types of firearms, and

Whereas, the growing unrest in the cities is worsened through potential rioters' easy access to firearms,

Therefore, be it resolved:

I. That the North Carolina Annual Conference commend Congress for passing the hand-gun control section of the Crime Bill.

II. That this conference call for the following:

A. Strict federal regulation of mail order sales of rifles and shotguns.

B. A federal registration of all guns if individual states fail to do so, according to the recommendations of the Federal Crime Commission.

C. The purchase of firearms permits which require positive identification of both individuals who now possess firearms and those who propose to buy them, so as to reduce their possession by felons, the mentally incompetent, and minors, and,

D. A reasonable waiting period between application and issuing of the above permits to enable applicants with rash motives to "cool off."

III. That the local churches in the North Carolina Conference study the issues related to misuse of firearms, and

IV. That we urge church members in our conference to send individual letters and telegrams to their congressmen calling for adoption of the above legislation and to write to newspaper editors expressing their concerns for stricter firearms control.

STATEMENT ON "THE CRISIS IN THE NATION"

Our nation is experiencing its worst domestic crisis in the last 100 years. Divisions between rich and poor, black and white, young and old are steadily widening. This polarization of attitudes threatens to erupt into tragic and massive destruction of people and property.

Taking into account both the national crisis and the request of this Conference for specific suggestions from this Board on what we can do about the situation in our local churches and communities this summer, we strongly urge every charge in the North Carolina Conference to begin with a study/action group dealing with the crisis as soon as possible. All pastors have received a mailing from our General Board of Education regarding our United Methodist Packet on "The Crisis in the Nation." The cost is $3.85 per packet and this thorough compilation of resource material can be ordered from Cokesbury. An annotated list of the packet's contents is found on pages 36-37 of the June issue of The Methodist Story-Spotlight.

The principal tool in this packet is the booklet Crisis In America: Hope Through Action, which is designed to serve as a guide for considering the various aspects of our national crisis. Although it contains a very specific list of over thirty action suggestions through which it hopes America's "'silent good people' will become the acting servants of the Lord," the booklet also contains the following statement in its Introduction:

"There are no experts on the crisis in our nation. You do not need to read a hundred books or hear a thousand lectures. Many policies and sure-fire answers have been advanced, but they are all challenged by others. We must rely on one another if we are to discover the answers we all urgently need. The best place to begin is right where you are, seeking with others to understand the situation that involves us all whether we live in a small town, a suburb, or the city itself."

We call upon each pastor and charge in our Conference to begin immediately this search for understanding and we enthusiastically join our General Boards of Missions, Evangelism, Laity, Education, Christian Social Concerns, and Publication in recommending the purchase and use of the resource packet, "The Crisis in the Nation," as an effective instrument in this search.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

This is one committee which has not met during the quadrennium but each year it has had an answer ready when Question 48 was called by the bishop. We are grateful to the communities that have made this possible.

To date we have not received an assurance of an invitation for the 1969 Conference. Several communities have been asked and we are still expecting an answer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE CORPORATIONS

(See Journal, 1967, p. 22)

Whereas, the Committee on Annual Conference Corporations began as a study committee, authorized by the 1959 Annual Conference (See Journal, 1959, pp. 245-246), the committee became a "standing committee" by action of the 1963 Annual Conference. (See Journal, 1963, p. 266). The work of the committee is reported in Journals 1960 through 1967; and

Whereas, as a "standing committee" of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the committee, pursuant to its authority, recommended changes in the Charters of the corporations of the Conference as were needed, and assisted in the preparation of the Amendments to the Charters of the corporations as were required by the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Now, therefore, as a "standing committee" of the North Carolina Annual Conference, the committee shall continue to be concerned with further improvements of the Charters of the present corporations, as may be needed, and the committee shall give guidance in the preparation of Charters of all new corporations authorized by the North Carolina Annual Conference. The committee shall also review and recommend as to all proposed Amendments to the Charters of the corporations, and the committee shall be active in all matters pertaining to the relationship between the North Carolina Annual Conference and its corporations. (See Discipline, 1964, par. 22).

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The 1968 Assembly of the North Carolina Council of Churches, held on April 23 and 24 at the Dilworth Methodist Church, Charlotte (with Church Women United beginning their meeting on April 21, the Pastors' Conference falling on April 23, and Covenant Presbyterian and St. Mark's Lutheran Churches assisting as hosts) had twin foci—Christian Social Action because of the present crisis in the nation and Christian social Ministry because rural poverty is linked with urban crisis. Prophets, apostles, and Jesus the Christ call us in 1968 to consciousness, conscience, and commitment. The Magnificat of Mary expressed a deep identity with the poor, and Mary's Son, by accepting baptism by John, confirmed God's common cause with the impoverished. Contrary to Marxism, we say that material things are not enough to satisfy human hunger. People of the new birth—rich and poor—confess that their privileges carry obligations to learn and work together without patronage, condescension, or suspicion of brother.

At the conclusion of the East Asia Christian Conference in February 1968 D. T. Niles is reported to have quoted Henry David Thoreau: "If you build castles in the air that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them." In 1964 the North Carolina Council of Churches undertook expansion to meet the needs of our communities in our time, updating cooperative Christian efforts with all people of good will. In four years new foundations have been put under some of the structure. There is much more to be done.

I.

The work of the North Carolina Council of Churches is done through the Department of Church Women United, the Department of Christian Youth, the General Committee on Business and Finance, the General Committee on Public Relations (and its Committee on Radio and Television), and five commissions — Christian Education, Christian Social Action, Christian Social Ministry, Council Organization and Extension, and Inter-church Cooperation. Under these commissions there are twenty-three program committees made up of representatives from member communions. The Executive Board, also made up of representatives elected from the constituent bodies, and the Assembly, with its official representatives, are the only two groups empowered to speak officially for the North Carolina Council of Churches. Commissions and committees may speak and act in their own names, subject to review by the Executive Board and/or the Assembly.

II.

One of the most encouraging developments of the past twelve months was the adoption by the Luther League Unit of North Carolina of the Migrant Ministry of the North Carolina Council of Churches as the project for financial support of the Lutheran "Penny Parade" last November. As a result of this effort by young people age 12-24, the Luther League president, Michael Frye of Lenoir-Rhyne College, and its treasurer, Glenn Miller of Boyden High School, Salisbury, presented to the Executive Director of the Council of Churches on March 5 a check for $2,230.14 to be used to employ chaplains who will minister with migrant and other seasonally employed agricultural workers during this year. These young leaders indicate that there is more to come for support of this work. The Council is deeply grateful for this significant support from a significant source.

III.

The present membership of the North Carolina Council of Churches consists of thirty-nine member bodies, drawn from sixteen denominations, having in the judicatories 6,723 congregations and 1,350,000 communicant members. The Council affords a symbol of unity in Christian purpose, a channel for widely varied ministries, and an agency for cooperative service to the members and to the world.

SAMUEL S. WILEY, Executive Director
North Carolina Council of Churches

REPORT OF THE DEACONESS BOARD

We continue to have two active deaconesses in the North Carolina Conference — Miss Bernice Ballance, church and community worker on the Salemburg area project, Salemburg, North Carolina, and Miss Ethelynde Ballance, director of Christian education, Raeford Methodist Church, Raeford, North Carolina. Two retired deaconesses reside within our Conference: Miss Elizabeth Davis, Nashmont Rest Home, Rocky Mount, and Miss Mary Nichols of Wilmington.

The two active deaconesses attended the annual meeting of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Deaconess Association which met in Birmingham, Alabama, in February. There they learned of some of the changes concerning deaconess work. One of the biggest changes is that there will no longer be a Conference Deaconess Board, but the interpretation of the deaconesses' relationship and the recruitment of deaconesses will be the responsibility of the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations.

Miss Joan Kiernan, one of the recipients of our North Carolina Conference Women's Society scholarships, continues her study at Scarritt College in Nashville, Tennessee. She plans to become a deaconess.

As the responsibility for interpretation and recruitment passes to another board, we rejoice in the opportunities we have had through the years. Our deaconesses continue to be available when called upon to help promote deaconess work in whatever way possible.

Report No. 2

The trustees of the Duke Endowment, the Durham Committee and the Divinity School of Duke University join in expressing sincere appreciation to Bishop Paul N. Garber who, through his Episcopal office, has given excellent leadership to the programs pertaining to the Work of the Rural Church. In particular did Bishop Garber provide guidance to the institution and operation of the Committee on Church Architecture. Through the efforts of this committee the quality of architecture has been enhanced and the number of churches using professional architectural services has greatly increased.

The trustees of the Duke Endowment are instituting a program whereby the two Annual Conferences in North Carolina Methodism will be more closely related to the programs under the Rural Church Committee. Bishop Garber has been requested to set up a committee to be known as the Bishop's Advisory Committee, which will represent the two Annual Conferences and the Duke Divinity School in reviewing programs and making recommendations to the Rural Church Committee of the Duke Endowment.

The Rural Church Program is designed to be of assistance to the small and rural Methodist churches of rural North Carolina, ever seeking to help the churches help themselves rather than doing for the churches the things which they can do for themselves. Long-range planning, creative programming, and effective leadership training are encouraged as the Duke Endowment works cooperatively with the Annual Conference agencies.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

The Commission on Ecumenical Affairs was authorized by our Conference at the annual meeting in Goldsboro last June. Bishop Garder appointed the members and convened the Commission on December 7, 1967.

The following officers were elected: Cecil W. Robbins, president; Mrs. E. L. Hillman, vice president in charge of study; Dr. C. P. Morris, vice president in charge of promotion; Reverend Vernon C. Tyson, secretary; Bill Price, financial secretary; Robert E. Cushman, executive member-at-large; Mrs. Robert L. Jerome, executive committee member-at-large.

The Commission has held two meetings and the Executive Committee has held an additional meeting.

The Commission scheduled an ecumenical breakfast at the Methodist College Cafeteria, Friday, June 7, at 7 a.m. The Annual Conference program is being given June 7 at 10:30 a.m., with Dr. Norman L. Trott, president emeritus of Wesley Theological Seminary, as speaker.

The Commission recommends to the Annual Conference the following program for the 1968-1969 conference year:

1. A study and training session for Commission members to be held at North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, August 28-29, 1968.
2. Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, January 16-23, 1969.
3. Consultation on Church Union (COCU) visitation Sunday, April, 1969.
4. Spring meeting of the Commission, April 11, 1969.

The Commission strongly urges our Conference to support the North Carolina Council of Churches in its varied and vital activities, and especially appeals to the Conference to give greatly increased financial support to the Council in its various ministries. We commend heartily the work of Dr. Samuel S. Wiley, executive director, and his able staff, Reverend Charles Herron, director of Migrant Work, and Reverend Jack Crum, director of Christian Social Action.

We urge our laymen and ministers to cooperate with other church bodies in furthering the cause of Christian brotherhood and in strengthening the bonds of fellowship across geographical, national, racial, religious, and social lines.

We recommend that the Conference continue a Commission on Ecumenical Affairs and that funds be appropriated to enable the Commission to develop a broad and effective program.

COMMITTEE ON GENERAL CHURCH SCHOOL MINISTRY

Wallace H. Kirby, Chairman

I. Report for 1967-1968

A. With the introduction of the new adult curriculum in the fall of 1967 many Adult Sunday School Classes have taken on new vitality. Some churches have set up adult study groups at times other than Sunday morning. The use of Methodist curriculum materials in the children's, youth, and adult divisions has increased until we now have only six churches in the Conference not using some Methodist materials. A recent survey revealed that the North Carolina Conference leads all Annual Conferences in the Richmond, Virginia, Cokesbury area in the percentage of churches using Methodist materials. We look forward now to the introduction of the new youth curriculum in September, 1968.

B. Eighteen Christian Workers' Schools were held last year in the following areas: Alamance County, Durham, Bahama, Hertford, Fayetteville, Belhaven, Greenville, Snow Hill, Washington, East Carteret, New Bern, Millbrook, Raleigh, Wilson, North Moore, Sanford, Hamlet and Troy. These schools enrolled 1122 persons and 808 received course cards of recognition. Fifty-three adults in training were involved in four Laboratory Classes and fifty-one of these received course cards. There were two One-Teacher Schools involving 38 persons. The School of Christian Missions at Methodist College, Fayetteville involved 529 persons.

C. A Consultation Training Laboratory was held at Camp Chestnut Ridge, September 4-6, 1967, with Dr. George E. Koehler of Nashville, Tennessee as the leader. Twenty-four persons attended this three-day workshop which was designed to train resource leaders to assist local churches in planning their educational ministries.

D. Numerous Consultations were held in local churches by Conference Board of Education staff members, District Directors and certified instructors, in such areas as Planning Educational Facilities, Using Resources in the Church's Educational Ministry, Planning the Church's Educational Ministry, Improving Teaching-Learning, Net Settings For Educational Ministry, etc.

E. Many persons from our Conference participated in summer leadership enterprises at Lake Junaluska. Fifty-two adults attended the Regional Leadership and Laboratory School, July 30-August 11, 1967. A team of four persons participated in the Special Workshop on "The Educational Task of the Church During the Next Decade", held in connection with the Leadership School. One person was enrolled in the Seminar For Prospective Laboratory Leaders in the Children's Division and two were enrolled in the Seminar For Prospective Laboratory Leaders in adult work. Our Conference was also represented in the Workshop For Leaders of Through-The-Week Nursery Schools and Kindergartens, July 30-August 11, and the Church School Administrator's Conference, August 11-14.

II. Recommendations for 1968-1969

A. Leadership Training

1. Christian Workers' Schools

a. We recommend the discontinuation of all course cards of recognition in Christian Workers' Schools because we feel this is insufficient motivation.

b. We recommend that pre-registration be conducted in each local church at least thirty days prior to the school. In the interest of good stewardship of both talent and money, at least twelve persons should be enrolled in each class.

c. We recommend the following schedule of honoraria for instructors:

- $40 for a 3-night, first series school,
- $50 for a 4-night, first series school,
- $60 for a 5-night, second series school,
- $75 for a laboratory school.

Wherever possible, the school should provide the dean with honorarium equal to that of an instructor. The participating churches will provide one-half of the instructor's honoraria and the expense of all instructors—lodging, meals, and travel (8c per mile).

d. We recommend that the Board of Managers of each school innovate new ideas and develop new schedules to fit the situational needs.

2. We recommend that the Board of Education staff organize a week-long training session for Church School leaders and pastors to be held in early September. The purpose of such a session would be to help such leaders use more effectively the curriculum resources and the pastors in conducting church membership confirmation classes.

3. We call attention to the fact that resource persons are available to assist local churches in their educational needs such as leadership training, planning the educational ministry, planning educational facilities, and so forth.

4. We recommend that the Board of Education join with the Board of Lay Activities in providing studies for laymen in theology and other areas, and that the Executive Secretary initiate such conversations.

5. We recommend that the staff of the Board of Education determine how technical schools might assist in the work of leadership development.

6. We recommend that a conference-wide training session of Church School administrators be held at one of the colleges between summer school sessions. Such a conference, designed specifically for Church School Superintendents and Commission on Education Chairmen, would be limited to 50-60 persons and would begin on Friday evening and continue through Sunday afternoon. The specific emphasis will be on the local church developing its own educational ministry.

7. We recommend that the Interboard Coordinating Council conduct workshop sessions on the organizational structure of the United Methodist Church.

B. Continuing Education in the Local Church

1. We recommend that the Commission on Education initiate quarterly workers' conference sessions involving two or more neighboring churches for the purpose of reviewing the literature for the next quarter and sharing teaching procedures. The Board of Education will recommend, if requested, resource persons to assist in such sessions.

2. All pastors will be given an opportunity to request bulletin covers for the observance of Christian Education Sunday on September 29, 1968. Every local church is encouraged to observe this special day so that Christian Education is seen to be important. We recommend that the Committee on Youth Ministry design the cover of said bulletin.

C. Continuing Education of Ministers

1. Supportive Ministry:

a. Propositions: (1) The church has failed to capture the imagination of its people with a vital, creative, on-going educational ministry in the local church. (2) The educational ministry succeeds or fails in the local church. The pastor is the principal educator in the local church, and bears the major responsibility for equipping the laity (teachers/leaders/learners). To do this he needs to be involved continuously in a training program designing to help him in the command of content and communication skills, and to help him assume an enabling role in the total teaching ministry. (3) The Board of Education should help local pastors fulfill their role as educator by establishing a supportive ministry which provides continuous training in content and communicative skills in all areas of the Christian faith.

b. Structure:

(1) Content: courses in the communication of theology, Bible, ethics, Christianity and culture, personality development, and current resources.

(2) Setting: regional institutes or seminars (for example, Raleigh-Durham, Greenville, Red Springs); eight half-Mondays per quarter.

(3) Personnel: Divinity School or college faculty, or others so skilled.

c. We recommend that the Executive Secretary select a sub-committee to investigate the possibility of holding two pilot projects in the area of the supportive ministry and such plans to be presented to the Board of Education.

d. We recommend that the Board of Education set aside up to $800 in support of the project, such funds to be taken from the leadership training fund.

2. We support the resolution of the Conference Commission on In-Service Training in recommending that the Commission be discontinued and that a "Commission on Continuing Education of The Ministry" be established for the purpose of developing a more adequate and coordinated program of continuing education for the ministers of the North Carolina Annual Conference. (See report of Commission on In-Service Training).

3. We call attention to a Junior High Church Membership Confirmation Lab and Seminar for Pastors to be held at Hayes Barton Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C., as a joint project of the North Carolina and Virginia Annual Conferences. This Lab will be limited to ten pastors from each Conference. We anticipate that in the future additional such labs will be held to better prepare pastors for conducting Church Membership Confirmation Classes.

D. Special Days

We urge each local church to observe the following special days in appropriate and effective ways and that they take the special offerings called for after explaining the purpose and importance of each.

1. Promotion Day in the Church School, August 25, 1968 (no special offering).

2. Christian Education Sunday, September 29, 1968 (included in the "Single Figure Asking" but may be taken to apply on this asking).

3. Student Recognition Sunday, December 29, 1968 (no special offering).

4. Race Relations Sunday, February 9, 1969—Special Offering for Paine College in Augusta, Georgia (not included in "Single Figure Asking").
5. Methodist Student Day, June 8, 1969, Special Offering for Methodist Student Loan and Scholarship Fund (not included in "Single Figure Asking").
6. World Service Sunday in the Church School each fourth Sunday.

Section B

COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY WITH CHILDREN

Mrs. James Auman, Chairman

Progress Report for 1967-1968

Since the meeting of the Annual Conference last June, your Committee on Ministry with Children has been without a Director. J. Conrad Glass, Jr. has capably assisted with meetings and activities in this area, in addition to his regular duties as Director of Youth Ministry. For this assistance we are grateful—but we still look forward to the time when a full-time Director of Children's Ministry can be employed.

Highlights of our year have included: seven Children's Courses offered in seven Christian Workers Schools. One hundred forty-three workers were enrolled with 101 receiving credit. One Laboratory Enterprise, with eight persons enrolled, with six receiving credit. Seven hundred forty-three boys and girls engaged in the summer camping program.

The Committee on Ministry to the Blind has been investigating possibilities of securing our church school curriculum materials on tapes. The Reverend J. Earl Richardson, Chairman, has been able to have the first book of the adult curriculum taped and this may be secured by writing him. He has continued to work closely with our Governor Morehead School in providing suitable church school materials for use with students there.

Fifty boys and girls attended the Camp for Mentally Retarded at Camp Don-Lee. The camp, this past summer, was directed by Mr. Harley Cecil, with assistance from staff members at Butner.

Children's workers again assisted district teams in missionary education institutes in the fall as they presented the children's materials on this year's themes of "Japan", and "Christ and the Faiths of Men". Increased attendance on the part of children's workers was noted.

In November our Committee, and the entire Board of Education, honored the Reverend Wesley Brogan at a dinner, in appreciation of his nine years of service with the Board of Education as Director of Children's Work. A copy of the resolution of appreciation for his work was printed in the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Vacation Church School Institutes this spring are being led by District teams, involving some 45 or 50 volunteer leaders. Evaluation of this enterprise will, of necessity, come at a later date. Institutes are scheduled in each of the eleven districts and our fine staff of district directors have been responsible for this work.

Time permitting, we would like to have a brief look at this quadrennium of 1964-1968, for it has been a very special one for those of us in the children's field. This has been the quadrennium in which our new curriculum has been introduced and because of these new materials a great deal of enthusiasm has been generated, and many good solid foundations laid. Because of the need to introduce our new curriculum more small group meetings were held and therefore a closer unity has been developed within the leadership of these age group workers. During this quadrennium we have organized our committees dealing with ministry to exceptional children; the camp for Mentally Retarded was initiated. A compilation of week-day kindergarten teachers has been made and a special all-day conference held with them. A conference-wide laboratory was very successfully carried out at Rocky Mount, and scores of new teachers have been recruited for service beyond the local church.

Recommendations for 1968-1969

1. Vacation Church School Institutes to be held in each district in the spring of 1969, between the period of April 8-25. District directors will be asked to make plans for these institutes, the hours will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. No materials will be offered for sale at the institutes since our publishing house now handles materials well in advance of the institutes.

2. Explore the possibilities of adding an additional enrichment group at Vacation Church School Institutes for other interested persons; such as: creative arts, outdoor enterprises, theological discussion, etc.

3. Continue committees organized for ministry to persons with special needs, and we recommend the continuation of the Camp for Mentally Retarded at Camp Don-Lee.
4. Participation in missionary education institutes, cooperating with the Board of Missions in presenting this year's materials on "Southeast Asia" and "New Forms of Mission".
5. Consult with Conference Music Committee about possibilities of a workshop on Music and the Christian Education of Children.
6. Encourage participation of leaders in the refresher courses being offered for leaders of Christian Workers Schools and Laboratory Enterprises.
7. Consider the possibilities of consultation with the Board of Hospitals and Homes on our mutual concerns of needs of children in local communities. We are thinking especially of some means of expanding our ministry to guidance with behavior problems of children.
8. District directors take leadership in planning one-night sessions to help local church workers to plan use of curriculum for the following quarter. Also, conduct curriculum sessions for teachers who have begun teaching since 1964. The purpose of these sessions is to acquaint these teachers with the theology, educational, philosophy, resources, and format of the Children's Curriculum materials.
9. Consider the possibility of holding a Conference Lab School in 1969.
10. As soon as is possible, the securing of a full-time director of Ministry with Children.

COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY WITH YOUTH

W. A. Graham, Chairman

Progress Report for 1967-1968

Enrollment in the Youth Division decreased by 796 to 26,559 in 1966-1967.

As has been the policy for several years, a varied program was offered for the youth of the Conference this past year. The following ministries were held (the record of attendance is listed beside each event): Appalachian Trail Hike in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park (16), Senior Camp at Camp Don-Lee (47), Workshop at N. C. Wesleyan College (214), Subdistrict Workshop at Methodist College (51), Annual Conference Session at Methodist College (401), United Nations-Washington Study Tour (38), and EXPLORE (50). A total of 817 persons participated.

A further word might be said about the EXPLORE Weekend, March 29-31, 1968. This experience was planned in cooperation with the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations. The central idea of this weekend was to have young people to live in the homes of adults who were employed in the occupation in which the young person had expressed some interest. Over 60 young people applied, and even though approximately 90-100 adults were contacted, we were able to place only about half of the youth. The overwhelming response to this experience seems to indicate that this is an experience which young people are wanting.

This year's Senior Summer Program will again offer a choice of ministries. The program will consist of Trail Hike, "Where the Action Is!", Subdistrict Workshop, Senior Camps at Don-Lee and Chestnut Ridge, Workshop, and Annual Conference Session.

In Junior High camping 549 youth attended the Conference camps this past year. In the area of leadership education, we can report 12 courses were offered in Christian Worker's Schools, with 165 enrolled and 92 receiving credit. In addition, a special youth lab and seminar were held at Hayes Barton Methodist Church in Raleigh on "You and Your Life Work". Ten laboratory leaders from all over the Southeastern Jurisdiction attended this training experience, with two of the leaders from our Conference. The Reverend Dick Gibson, Minister of Christian Education at Hayes Barton Methodist Church, was responsible for getting this experience located in our Conference. Eleven "Workshops on New Trends, Directions, and Curriculum in Youth Ministry" were held in each district to acquaint the ministers with the "New Day in Youth Ministry".

The Youth Committee acknowledges eight years of alert leadership as our chairman by W. Albert Graham. We appreciate his vigorous spirit, his sensitive insight, and his honesty in search. He has given a quality of genuine ministry to his position.

Because J. Conrad Glass, Jr. continues to provide renewing freshness and helpful openness in his role as Conference Director of Youth Ministry, the Youth Committee fully recommends that he be re-appointed to this ministry.

Recommendations for Youth Ministry 1968-1969

1. That the Senior High United Nations-Washington Study Tour be held March 15-21, 1969.
2. That a youth mission study be held in each local church using either of the following study materials, "New Forms of Mission" or "Southeast Asia".
3. That adult workers with youth be urged to participate and cooperate in the Missionary Education Institutes held in each district for the purpose of providing training for teachers in the local church congregation-wide mission studies.
4. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of again offering the EXPLORE Weekend as a part of the Senior Program.
5. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of conducting a week-long canoe camping experience.
6. That the Youth Council continue to explore the possibility of conducting a "Beach Ministry" during the Easter Weekend or at another time when Senior Highs "migrate" to the beach.
7. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of an ecumenical work camp with the Roman Catholics.
8. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of developing youth leadership teams for the purpose of developing leadership for local churches.
9. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of engaging in "sensitivity training" for themselves.
10. That the Youth Council consider the possibility of continuing the Subdistrict Workshop.
11. That the possibility be explored for the development of a leadership program to train local church persons in the skills of informal group leadership which would include such areas as communication, sensitivity training, etc.
12. That a Coaching Conference be held in September to help leaders to prepare for the teaching of the new leadership courses in youth ministry.
13. That the possibility be explored for a Weekend on the Arts for youth and adults.
14. That the possibility be explored in cooperation with the Commission on Vocations and the three colleges for the development of a Vocational and Testing Guidance Service in one or more of the Methodist colleges.
15. That the Youth Council explore the possibilities of developing a study tour which would look to other areas of the United States for areas where the church is in ministry, for instance, a Nashville Tour.
16. That the possibility be explored for a Recreation Workshop for youth and adults.
17. That inner-district meetings be held in July or August, 1968, for youth officers and their teachers and counselors as an attempt to help prepare them for the new curriculum materials which will be used beginning with the first Sunday in September, 1968.

Section D

COMMITTEE ON ADULT MINISTRY

Kelly J. Wilson, Chairman

Progress Report for 1967-1968

Enrollment in the Adult Divisions of our church schools decreased by 234 from July 1, 1966 to June 30, 1967. This is the smallest decrease in several years.

Thirty-two Preview-Demonstration Workshops were conducted across the North Carolina Conference during June and July to prepare local church adult leaders for effective presentation of the new adult curriculum (2023 adults were trained in these workshops). Study of Unit I of Foundation Studies in Christian Faith, "Man's Search for a Meaningful Faith" was begun in local churches the first Sunday in September, 1967.

The following Adult Leadership Education enterprises were also held: 3 Adult Labs with a total of 45 persons enrolled and 44 credits granted; Adult Learning in Changing World taught in 5 Christian Workers Schools (2 schools enrolled 56 adults and the other 3 have not reported yet); Adult Work in the Church taught once with an enrollment of 23 persons; and Young Adult Work in the Church taught once (no report).

Evaluations and Reflections

Reports from local churches, pastors, and adult education leaders indicate that the new adult curriculum has been well received. Curriculum Information Statistics compiled by Cokesbury in Richmond show that all of the adult classes in 187 of our North Carolina Conference churches are using the new adult curriculum. 264 churches are ordering both Foundation Studies in Christian Faith units and Wesley Quarterly. 359 churches are using Wesley Quarterly only. Thus over half of our churches are using the new adult curriculum.

A number of churches have organized new adult study groups using the new adult curriculum at a time other than the regular Sunday School hour. This affords an opportunity to reach additional adults not involved in the Sunday morning classes. It also enables regular teachers of all age groups to participate in an adult study group. More churches should follow this pattern.

Recommendations for 1968-1969

Reports from across the entire conference, as to the acceptance of the new adult curriculum, revealed one significant factor. Wherever the local pastor effectively fulfilled his role as Christian educator, worked closely with his adult leaders in learning as much as possible about the new adult curriculum and how to effectively use it, and continued to provide an enabling back-up ministry for his adult leaders, the new adult curriculum has been received with great enthusiasm. Therefore, it is our contention that the major efforts of the Conference Board of Education, in cooperation with the other boards and agencies, should be directed toward providing a supportive ministry to the local pastor as educator.

Pastors are willing to schedule the necessary time for well planned and led training sessions that will help increase their knowledge and skills in communicating the Christian faith and way of life. To this end, the Committee on Adult Ministry makes the following proposals:

1. Supportive Ministry to Pastor: The Adult Committee developed a basic proposal for continuing education, outlining purpose, areas of study (stressing skills of communication), structure and setting. Since this proposal related to the total educational ministry, the Committee referred the proposal to the Committee on General Church School Ministry for action. This Committee favorably received and adopted the proposal (See Part C of Section II of the Committee on General Church School Ministry Report). The Committee on Adult Ministry pledges its full support to the effective implementation of this proposal.

2. Cooperative Ministry to Young Adults: For several years our committee has urged that new patterns of ministry be developed and carried out to reach young adults, urban and rural, that are not now being ministered to by present efforts. Lack of leadership and finances have hampered any effective efforts. We now propose the setting up of an Interboard-Ecumenical Research and Experimentation Committee to begin serious development of this type of young adult ministry. Competent and concerned personnel and finances should be made available from all boards and agencies. Efforts should be made to locate and join forces with other denominations and agencies that are working in this area. An ecumenical ministry is necessary if this new "sub-culture" of the young adult world is to be touched by a meaningful Christian witness. Young adults from the area of concern must be actively involved in the research and planning of such a ministry.

3. Use of Mass Media As Leadership Training Aid to Local Churches: We recommend that TRAFCO and the General Board of Education pool talents in developing a series of one minute "spots" that will lift up choice bits of content out of current units as the new adult curriculum as they speak to specific persistent life concerns. These spots should be composed with an eye to use on television, radio and also in printed media. These could be used just prior to news casts and other prime listening times. In print, the brief statements could be high-lighted by use of the "Flame Emblem" found on all the new adult curriculum materials, Foundation Studies in Christian Faith.

4. New Adult Curriculum Follow-up Workshops: As new units appear and new leaders are recruited by local churches, a real need is felt for additional workshops similar to the original Preview-Demonstration Workshops. Occasionally classes have given up on the new curriculum because they felt they did not know enough about how to use the materials effectively. We recommend that District Directors of Adult Ministry, along with the District Superintendent, pastor and boards of managers of Christian Workers School, work together in planning and carrying out such workshops wherever needed most in each district. Some of these could be a part of the Christian Workers School.

5. We recommend that boards of managers of Christian Workers Schools make a concerted effort to include the basic leadership education courses such as Understanding Adults, Adult Learning in a Changing World and Teaching Groups in the Church. Adults Labs should be planned in all schools where at least two of the above basic courses have been taught recently.

6. Local churches should be reminded that trained resource persons are available to come and assist them in working through their own specific local concerns and needs of adult education. Such assistance can be obtained through the District Director of General Church Ministry or by writing the Board of Education in Raleigh.

The Committee on Adult Ministry recommends that a letter of commendation be sent to Dr. James C. Stokes, Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, for his effective and informative publicizing of units of the new adult curriculum as they are made available for use by local churches.

We commend the fine work of our Conference Director of Adult Ministry and take this opportunity to express our concern about the vacancy left by his leave of absence. We appreciate his personal sacrifices which have made the varied work of camping, Adult Ministry and other achievements possible.

Section E

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

R. T. Commander, Chairman

"The modern family is struggling against great difficulties: the tensions created by the world situation, uncertainties due to the present military demands on youth, inadequate housing, uprooting of families due to unprecedented population shifts, and the coarsening influence of many mass media on the lives of children. The end result of these difficulties is evidenced by the high rate of divorce, juvenile delinquency, broken lives, and a general laxity of moral standards. It is only when the family fulfills its highest functions and is truly Christian that its members rise above these difficulties and thus aid in halting the trends threatening the home." These concerns have stimulated our thinking which initiated the following recommendations. (Discipline, Par. 1821)

Progress Report for 1967-1968

Family Life Conferences were held in the Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Greenville and Raleigh Districts. Marriage Enrichment Programs were sponsored in the Burlington and New Bern Districts. Family Life Workshops on a local church basis were held in Hamlet, Aberdeen, Laurinburg, Raleigh, and Rockingham—and on a subdistrict basis in Burlington and Gatesville. Our Family Camp at Don-Lee and Tent-Trailer Family Camp at Kerr Lake were popular and well-filled.

Recommendations for 1968-1969

1. That local churches give serious consideration to a constructive study of the standards of morality of a Christian family and of the sacredness of sex in the Christian life, as stated in our Methodist Social Creed, Article 1820, Section III, subsection A, C6.

2. That District Seminars on Family Life be held for pastors to study these family life recommendations of the Discipline.

3. That a packet of materials be sent to the chairmen of local Family Life Committees with specific suggestions: for the above study, with discussion questions; for the first family life committee meeting with an agenda. The packet will also contain a brochure on the Marriage Enrichment Program, which our committee heartily endorses, and the basic pamphlet, "Committee on Christian Family Life."

4. That we encourage the widest possible use of the Marriage Enrichment Program, published by the Upper Penninsular Family Life Bureau, Escanaba, Mich., 49829.

We express appreciation to our Conference Director, Rev. John H. Sutton, Jr., for his thoughtful and kindly guidance of our Committee on Family Life and wish him God's blessings during his sabbatical leave.

Mr. John Meares, First Methodist Church, Cary, N. C.
Mrs. John W. Weigle, St. Marks Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C.
Mrs. William Bear, Westminster Methodist Church, Kinston, N. C.

The ministry of Christian education in the local churches of our Conference takes on increased importance each year. The work of the Ministers and Directors of Christian Education is reflected in not only local church ministries, but in the work of the sub-district, district, and conference-wide programs of Christian nurture. In recognition of the responsibility carried by our Ministers of Education, Directors of Education and Educational Assistants, the committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That a sub-committee be established and authorized to work closely with the Conference Board of Education for the purpose of establishing salary guidelines to be used by local churches in their efforts to secure qualified Directors of Christian Education. This committee is also authorized to consider and make recommendations directed toward increasing the effectiveness of local church policy as related to the Director of Christian Education.

2. That the Committee on Ministers and Directors of Christian Education serve as a committee of the whole to thoroughly investigate the possibility of setting up a four-year summer course of study which would lead to certification as Associate in Christian Education for those persons in our Conference who are currently not certified. Any efforts in this direction are to be done in cooperation with the Western North Carolina Conference.

3. The Committee addressed itself to the problem of adequate support for Directors of Christian Education and Educational Assistants in our Conference and we recommend that our Conference Board of Education investigate the possibility of extending to Directors and Educational Assistants the advantages of coverage in our Conference plan of hospitalization insurance for lay employees.

4. We strongly recommend that the Leadership and Laboratory School, to be held at Lake Junaluska, receive the full support of each Director. We also recommend that our Directors attend the Conference for Professional Workers in Christian Education to be held at Lake Junaluska in August 16-19, 1968.

5. That the Directors in North Carolina Conference be further informed concerning the 1968 meeting in October of the Christian Educators Fellowship to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana. This is the first meeting of this group and will provide a valuable experience for all of those attending. Each local church employing a person in Christian Education should make provisions for financial assistance for this nationwide meeting in New Orleans.

6. That the Conference Board of Education request the Department of In-Service Training of the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church include in its plans for continued education for ministers some provision for the continuing education needs of Certified Directors and Ministers of Christian Education.

7. That the June meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference and that North Carolina Conference Directors and Ministers of Christian Education be supported by all local churches employing persons in Christian Education. This meeting, to be held in June of 1968, will provide additional training for our educational workers in the area of youth ministry. We request that our Conference Board of Education inform local churches that Directors and Educational Assistants are expected to attend, and that wherever possible the local church provide financial assistance.

8. That the North Carolina Conference Board of Education host the Conference Fellowship Directors of Christian Education at a luncheon to be held during the 1968 Annual Conference.

II. MUSIC SECTION

1. Certified: During the past year the following person has been certified by the North Carolina Conference Board of Education as Director of Music:

Mrs. Janice P. Chandler, Trinity Methodist Church, Troy, N. C. 27371

2. Renewed: During the past year the certifications of the following persons have been renewed as directors or ministers of music:

Mrs. Charles Davenport, First Methodist Church, Wilson, N. C. (Director)

Mrs. Alma Whitfield Offutt, Queen Street Methodist Church, Kinston, N. C. (Director)

Mrs. Marilyn H. Johnson, Centenary Methodist Church, New Bern, N. C. (Director)

*Mrs. T. S. Dickens, Jr., Box 322, Halifax, N. C. (Minister)

*Mrs. Dorothy Barnes Flowers, First Methodist Church, Mt. Olive, N. C. (Minister)

Mr. Fred B. Duncan, Long Memorial Methodist Church, Roxboro, N. C. (Director)

Miss Virginia Caroline Wright, First Methodist Church, Hertford, N. C. (Director)

Mrs. J. P. Stansel, St. Paul Methodist Church, Maxton, N. C. (Director)

Discontinued:

*Mrs. William D. Miller, White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C.

(Minister)

Mr. Marvin W. Burke, Edenton Street Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C. (Director)

*Lay Persons

Recommendations for 1968-1969

1. That District Directors of Music Ministry by arrangement with the District Superintendent obtain from ministers, at a ministers' meeting, the names and addresses of all music personnel in their district. That a duplicate list be sent to Dr. C. P. Morris.

2. That District Directors of Music Ministry enlist the aid of subchairmen in various parts of their district to help promote workshop attendance by telephone and personal contact.

3. That Music Ministry magazine should be made available in all church libraries and be promoted at all district music workshops.

4. That all local church musicians attend any workshops or seminars in their area in order that they may receive help in strengthening the music ministry program in the local church.

5. That local church musicians be urged to attend the Biennial Convocation of NaFOMM at Sioux City, Iowa, August 6-13, 1969.

6. That every Methodist musician meeting the requirements listed in the leaflet number 9063-B, "The Certification of Directors or Ministers of Music", be urged to seek certification as a Methodist Director of Music. Information and application form may be obtained from the N. C. Conference Board of Education, P. O. Box 10957 Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

7. That each local church observe "One Great Hour of Methodist Singing"

8. That local churches make use of the "Hymn of the Month" program as recommended by the General Board of Education.

9. That persons interested in the music of the Methodist Church become members of the National Fellowship of Methodist Musicians (NaFOMM).

10. That the conference chapter of NaFOMM make available an extensive Cokesbury church music display at all annual conferences.

11. That the conference chapter of NaFOMM plan and hold two duplicate conference music workshops during the year to be held at East Carolina University (being more centrally located than Rocky Mount) and Methodist College in Fayetteville.

12. That the conference chapter of NaFOMM include and work with Directors of Christian Education in all workshops and conferences.

Section G

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND CONFERENCES

W. Warren Bishop, Chairman

Report for 1967-1968

Camping, as a part of the total program of Christian Education, continues to play a vital part in the North Carolina Annual Conference. During 1967, approximately 1,600 young people were involved in camping programs sponsored by the Board of Education. 5,400 other persons were involved in local church retreats and planning sessions, day camping, picnic groups, student groups and others. Of special note is the growing use of Camp Rockfish for activities of the latter type. Also of special importance is the fact that many of our camp weeks are filled to capacity, with vacancies occurring most among Junior High boys.

Features of last year's program, and included in the schedule for 1968, were Elementary IV-VI Camps, Junior High and Senior High Camps, Sunfish Sailing Camp, Family Camps, and the Mentally Retarded Camp. The Kiwanis Club of Fayetteville sponsored two weeks of camping for underprivileged boys at Camp Rockfish. Camp Kerr Lake continues to be available for family tent-trailer use, day camps and other programs of local churches.

Directing the camp program for 1968 will be: Dr. Gerald Shinn, Wilmington College Faculty Member, Camp Don-Lee; Mr. John Cottingham, Duke Divinity School Student, Camp Rockfish; and Mr. Jimmy Creech, Duke Divinity School Student, Camp Chestnut Ridge. During the summer of 1968, we will also begin using a few select persons in a Junior Counselor or Counselor-in-training program. It is hoped that this will enable us to better train counselors for our camping program.

Other important achievements in 1967 include the work of a Committee on Maintenance which is still at work compiling a master schedule for the maintenance of our camp facilities. When completed, this committee will have thoroughly analyzed and set up procedures for the up-keep and development of all facilities.

The Campaign for $300,000.00 in capital funds to meet emergency needs and development needs of our Conference Camp facilities has met with some success. As of April 1st, approximately $100,000 has been pledged and approximately $30,000.00 has been paid. This represents slightly more than one third of our charges participating. For the crusade, color brochures were prepared on each camp and a twenty minute color film on camping was produced. The film has been widely acclaimed and used. Also, District promotional dinners were held and District and local church committees organized. We are deeply grateful for each church which has participated to this point in the financial crusade, and thank them for taking leadership in this great need of our Conference camps.

The master plan of Camp Kerr Lake has been reworked and has been submitted to the Kerr Lake Reservoir Development Commission for their approval.

Camp Crusade Resolution

We Recommend That an intensive effort be made during the Conference Year 1968-1969 to complete the Crusade for $300,000 in cash and three year pledges for emergency needs of our four conference camps adopted by the 1967 Annual Conference.

We Further Recommend That the District Superintendent, in consultation with the District Lay Leader and the District Crusade Chairman, suggest goal ranges for each pastoral charge, based upon the district goal range, unless already provided for. It is recommended that this meeting be held in the afternoon prior to the Set-Up Meeting of the District Board of Lay Activities.

That during late July and August eight to ten persons, selected by the District Superintendent in each district, in consultation with the District Lay Leader, District Camp Crusade Chairman and District Director of Camping, be trained to meet with local church leaders in each church to help in the promotion of the Crusade as further outlined.

That during late August and early September, these persons thus trained meet with the pastor, church lay leader, the chairman of the official board, the crusade chairman and the Commission on Education Chairman in each church to enlist their aid in helping the church set its own goal range for the campaign.

That is September, or earlier if possible, the Official Board of each church be confronted with this program and be given the opportunity to accept its own goal range figure and to develop plans for achieving that goal.

That October 1968 be observed as Camp Crusade Month in each local church.

That Sunday, October 6, Crusade Committee member visit each adult class and seek to solicit a pledge from them.

That Sunday, October 13, Layman's Day, present Camp Crusade during the worship hour in the local church. On that Sunday afternoon, solicitation of pledges from individuals begin, continuing on through the week.

That other pledges be solicited from Methodist Men, W.S.C.S., MYF, etc.

That a report of pledges and payments be made by each pastor to his District Superintendent on Monday, November 4, 1968.

(For a listing of these emergency needs, refer to the 1967 Journal of the North Carolina Conference, pages 232-233).

Resolution Concerning Camps Building and Maintenance Fund

The Conference Treasurer shall serve as the receiving agent for all funds designated for the Conference Camps, including funds contributed by individuals, organizations and local churches in the Conference Camps Crusade.

Funds for the Conference Camps held by the Conference Treasurer shall be requisitioned by the Conference Director of Education weekly as bills become due to meet budgetary items for Conference Camps as approved by the Conference Board of Education.

The Conference Treasurer shall transfer all Camp Crusade receipts to a special savings account for Conference Camps. He shall maintain an accurate record of money designated for each camp. He shall transfer money from the special savings account to the Conference Treasurer's checking account upon the authorization of the Conference Director of Education as funds are needed to meet current obligations for each camp for projects approved by the Conference Board of Education.

The Conference Director of Education shall maintain an accurate record of all pledges and payments to the Conference Camps Crusade by districts, local churches, organizations, and individuals.

Appreciation

The results of our program in camping in the North Carolina Conference are due to the efforts of many people, and to each staff member at our camps, each young person who attends, each local church that has helped in any way, we express our deep gratitude. We could not achieve any measure of success without the cooperative efforts of all Methodists in our Conference.

Especially, do we commend the following for their special efforts in behalf of camping:

—Mr. Gene Clayton, program director at Camp Rockfish, who also serves during the remainder of the year as superintendent and caretaker at Camp Rockfish. Mr. Clayton will be serving in an advisory capacity this summer only, as he will be studying toward his doctorate degree.

—Dr. Gerald Shinn, who has served as director at Camp Don-Lee, and who will be returning this summer.

—Dr. C. P. Morris, our Executive Secretary, who spends many hours and expends much effort in guiding our camping program as Business Manager.

—Rev. John Sutton, our Conference Director of Adult Work and Camping, who not only has been the resident program director of Camp Chestnut Ridge, but also recruits staff and is responsible for the total camp programming for the Conference. We are deeply grateful for all his efforts and look for his return to our camping ministry at the completion of a year on Sabbatical.

—Mr. Robert Reed, Superintendent of Camps, who carries responsibility for the maintenance of our four Conference Camps and for supervising construction programs. We are also grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Reed for their faithful work in taking care of retreat groups using winterized facilities at Camp Chestnut Ridge throughout the year.

V. Capital Funds Crusade

A. Report of Executive Director, Association of Methodist Colleges in the North Carolina Annual Conference

Received on original	$5,000,000.00	Goal (3-20-68)	$4,085,000.00
Received in 1964-1965		$244,000.00
Received in 1965-1966		$257,000.00
Received in 1966-1967		$137,000.00
Received in 1967-1968 (3-20-68)		$116,000.00

1. Rev. James A. Auman, Executive Director is commended for his energetic and effective leadership in this effort during the past four years. We recommend that this office be continued with salary and office expenses being provided by the Association of Methodist Colleges in the North Carolina Annual Conference and with office space and equipment being provided by the North Carolina Annual Conference. We also recommend that, in keeping with the Discipline of the Methodist Church, this office continue to be related to the Annual Conference Board of Education and the Commission on Christian Higher Education, with the understanding that work in connection with the Capital Funds Crusade is under the Conference Board of Education. We request that Bishop Garber reappoint Rev. James A. Auman to this position.

2. We recommend that the Conference Board of Education appoint a committee to study the relationship of the Association of Methodist Colleges in the North Carolina Conference and the Board of Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference and that its findings be reported to the 1969 Annual Conference.

B. Recommendations Concerning Completion of Capital Funds Crusade.

1. That the Conference continue to seek payments to the fullest extent possible from those churches that have not yet met their quotas. That the Official Board of each of these churches be consulted by the District Superintendent concerning the extent of its obligation and its plan for meeting the obligation.

2. That the Conference support Bishop Garber's plan for cultivating friends of the Colleges by personal letters to and follow-up contacts with a group composed of at least 25 individuals nominated by each District Superintendent from among persons in their respective districts who are able to contribute substantially to the completion of the quota assigned to their districts.

3. That the annual College Day be continued and that it be utilized for encouraging both church-wide and individual plans for the continuous support of capital and needs of the colleges through various types of voluntary programs including individual contributions and pledges and the inclusion of college capital fund support in the annual budget of local churches.

4. That the North Carolina Annual Conference direct the new Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry to develop plans for raising the remainder due on our $5,000,000 Capital Funds goal.

5. That the Board of Education place before the 1968 Annual Conference session full information concerning (a) the status of the Capital Funds Crusade, (b) the effects of the Capital Fund debts on the future development of the colleges, (c) the nature of the obligation assumed by the Conference when it founded the new colleges and launched the Crusade, and (d) the need for assuring communities that have assisted in founding and sustaining the colleges and agencies that have advanced capital funds loans that the Conference will raise the remainder of its $5,000,000 goal.

VI. College Sustaining Fund 1968-1969

A. In keeping with the recommendation of the Commission on Interjurisdictional Relations of the North Carolina, Western North Carolina, Virginia and North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conferences of the Methodist Church, we recommend that the North Carolina Conference assume its pro-rata share of the support which Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has been receiving from the former North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, Central Jurisdiction, based on the following formula: Western North Carolina Annual Conference, $7,500.00; Virginia Conference, $2,000.00; North Carolina Annual Conference, $2,000.00 Total $11,500.00.

We further recommend that the same ratio be used in the distribution of the remainder of this fund for 1968-1969 as was used for the previous year, in accordance with the schedule listed below:

Bennett College		$ 2,000.00
Duke University (Divinity School)	4.2 percent	21,966.00
Greensboro College	3.2 percent	16,736.00
High Point College	3.2 percent	16,736.00
Louisburg College	24.0 percent	125,520.00
Methodist College	32.7 percent	171,021.00
North Carolina Wesleyan College	32.7 percent	171,021.00
Total		$525,000.00

We request the Commission on World Service and Finance to arrange for these institutions to receive their College Sustaining Fund support in equal quarterly payments.

B. Support of Ministerial Education

The 2 percent Plan adopted by the General Conference for Theological Education will be in effect 1970. Until then, we strongly urge support of the 1% Plan now in effect.

VII. Resolution Constituting A Conference Commission On Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry

In keeping with paragraph 1181, Section 2, The United Methodist Church, The Plan of Union, we recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference constitute a Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry.

VIII. Resolution Establishing a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry

The Interconference Consultation Committee on Christian Higher Education of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, after a frank and cordial exchange of views, recommends:

A. "That the respective Boards of Education propose to both the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference that they join in constituting a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry and that each authorize its Committee or Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry to determine, in consultation with its bishop, its membership on the Regional Commission with the understanding that the two committees or commissions shall adopt a plan that provides for identical representation on the Regional Commission."

B. This recommendation, which was approved by the Committee on Christian Higher Education, will implement Paragraph 1181, Section 3, pages 238-239, in The United Methodist Church, The Plan of Union, that is proposed for adoption at the Dallas General Conference. The constitution of a Regional Commission will provide an agency for continuing interconference cooperation in such matters as the following:

1. A Statewide campus ministry
2. Relationships involving colleges with which they have a joint concern
3. Other aspects of Christian Higher Education of joint interest to the two Conferences.

IX. Educational Specials for Campus Ministry

We deplore the low salaries being paid to our campus ministers. In most instances they are receiving less than the minimum salary provided by the two Annual Conferences for local church pastors, even though they have a number of years of service to their credit. To help alleviate this imbalance we offer the following resolution:

A. We support the action of the 1967 North Carolina Annual Conference and the Western North Carolina Annual Conference approving Education Specials for the support of campus ministry in North Carolina, and urge the District Superintendents to call this to the attention of local churches and request that each local church in the North Carolina Annual Conference be urged to include a Conference Education Special in its budget.

X. Resolution of Appreciation

During the past eight years Dr. Arnold K. King has served as an active member of the Conference Board of Education. During the past four years he has served as Chairman of the Committee on Christian Higher Education. We regret that due to Conference rules allowing a maximum of eight consecutive years on a Conference Board, he will not be permitted to serve on the Conference Board of Education next year. He has given the Committee on Christian Higher Education wise and forceful leadership during the past four years. We hereby express to him our sincere appreciation for his dedicated service to this Committee and to the Conference Board of Education.

XI. Amendment to The Charter of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Inc.

Amend Article VI by repealing the entire article and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Article VI

The business and affairs of this corporation shall be vested in, administered and managed by the trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College College, Inc.

The Board of Trustees shall consist of not less than 24 and not more than 30 members. At least six of these shall be ministerial members of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church; at least six shall be residents of Nash and Edgecombe Counties; and at least three-fourths of the membership at any time shall be members of The United Methodist Church. Trustees may succeed themselves. All trustees shall serve until their successors are elected.

The trustees shall be divided into four classes of not less than six nor more than eight members each. The term of office of one class shall expire on July 1 of each year.

Amend Article XI by eliminating the first two words "twelve (12) trustees"—and substituting therefor the words "one-half of the membership of the Board of Trustees" shall constitute a quorum.

Amend Article 8 "Quorum" of the By-Laws.

Delete the words "twelve trustees" and insert "one-half of the trustees."

RESOLUTION: TRIBUTE

Whereas, Bishop Paul Neff Garber has given strong and unprecedented leadership to Christian higher education during a period that spans almost half a century; and

Whereas, his influence has been felt in our region and throughout the world

1. As professor of church history, registrar, and dean of the Duke University Divinity School where he gave enthusiastic leadership in the training of young men and women for the ministries of the church;

2. As author of timely books and articles on church history that have inspired thousands to a more devoted Christian service;

3. As an engaging and stimulating lecturer and speaker on college and university campuses and before hundreds of religious gatherings which have been inspired and blessed by the contagion of his spirit;

4. As a wise and discerning episcopal leader in Europe and Africa where he gave inspiring and heroic leadership during a time that involved the healing of wounds and the rebuilding of faith and hope following the most destructive war in our history;

5. As a stalwart champion of Christian higher education in the Council of Bishops and as president of the Division of Higher Education of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church;

6. As the tireless and indefatigable bishop and chief pastor of the Richmond Area, to which he gave dynamic leadership in strengthening and enlarging the existing Methodist colleges of Virginia and in the founding of a new senior coeducational college at Norfolk, Va.;

7. As the presiding bishop of the Raleigh Area in giving inspiration and greater strength to the Duke University Divinity School, Greensboro and High Point Colleges and our Wesley Foundations;

8. As the staunch advocate in the enlarging and strengthening of Louisburg College which has resulted in bringing this historic institution to a new position of influence and prestige;

6. As the tireless and indefatigable bishop and chief pastor of the Richmond North Carolina Wesleyan College at Rocky Mount, two senior coeducational institutions which within the short span of a decade have achieved the highest academic accreditation and have taken their places in the forefront of church and college circles.

Therefore, in deep appreciation for his enduring contributions to Christian higher education in the North Carolina Annual Conference and elsewhere, the Board of Education of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, on this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord 1968, expresses its profound gratitude to this great churchman and educational statesman, Bishop Paul Neff Garber, for his inspiring example, his indomitable courage and his wise and able leadership in bringing our Conference to a preeminent place in Christian higher education. Had it not been for his faith, heroism, and persevering leadership this miracle in Christian higher education would not have happened and this Conference could not have achieved an annual support of college-operating budgets through the Sustaining Fund of over five hundred thousand dollars and three colleges valued at more than twenty million dollars.

Moreover, the Board expresses its humble thanks to almighty God for sending this great man to be the episcopal leader of our Conference during these days of challenge and opportunity. It also expresses its gratitude to Mrs. Garber for the support she has cheerfully provided him and the cause of Christian higher education during the year he has given himself so completely.

Furthermore, members of the Board join all of our ministers and laymen in praying for God's continuing blessings upon this esteemed servant of the church and in assuring him that all of us, inspired by his example, will carry on the work he has done so well with the objective of making the influence of Christian higher education felt even more profoundly.

Be it Further Resolved, that copies of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Education, the North Carolina Annual Conference Journal, and that copies be provided to the North Carolina Christian Advocate and Bishop Garber.

INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY

"Through those tough college years, if it hadn't been for the openness of the Campus Minister, I probably would have left the Church altogether!" That was the sentiment expressed recently by one of the ministers who now serves effectively in our state. Openness and flexibility are possible when one's faith is strong. A ship may venture from shore when there is confidence in its anchor. A firm faith, maturity, education and experience help to make the accepting spirit that is so essential in the effective Campus Minister.

The Campus Ministers who serve best in our state are able to do so because of their faith, maturity, education, and experience. Our full-time Campus Ministers average seven years in their present appointments. They are committed and capable.

But we are losing men. Three personnel changes are being made this summer

The Reverend Jackson W. Carroll, who has been on leave of absence from his post as Methodist Campus Minister at Duke, has resigned. He has his Ph.D. degree and will be teaching at another university. The Reverend Banks Godfrey, Associate Methodist Campus Minister at Chapel Hill, has resigned. In addition, the Reverend Maurice Ritchie, after four very effective years, will be leaving Boone to pursue graduate study. We fear that we shall lose additional men unless we are able to support them more adequately.

It is at tremendous financial sacrifice that we are privileged to have capable persons serving the campuses of our state. If an adequate housing allowance, including the cost of furniture, were given, hardly a one of them would be making the minimum salary paid our pastors in local churches—and everyone knows that pastors are underpaid.

The Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry is determined to provide adequate compensation for our men who serve so valiantly on the campuses. This year we are instituting a basic salary plan which will include increases for children and experience. To do this we need increased giving to the cause of Campus Ministry. An Educational Special for Campus Ministry is one of the ways that every local church can help to meet the need. We urge that each church take such a Special.

We shall do the best we can with what you give us—and we shall do the best we can to expand the base of support through alumni cultivation and other means.

The Campus Ministry has an exciting future. No one knows what students may do next. That is one of the reasons we need mature ministers who are full of faith and capable of counseling our idealistic youth.

We of the present Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry join others in recommending the establishment of a Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry for this new quadrennium. This will afford a fuller expression of the unity we feel exists between our Conferences and among our Methodist colleges, Wesley Foundations, and other posts of Campus Ministry, and Duke Divinity School. Already we have witnessed the disappearing of suspicions and the fading of fears which are caused by division.

Ecumenism continues to spread on the campuses, as elsewhere. We are pleased always to cooperate with our Christian brothers of other denominations, and we foresee even closer working relationships in the future. We want ecumenism, and want it to be responsible ecumenism. Therefore, we plan to make proper preparation for each venture.

Recruitment of Church careers continues to be one of our emphases. Numerous ministers throughout North Carolina received a boost on their way from the Campus Ministry.

Our state has produced exceptionally fine leaders through the Methodist Student Movement, and we are pleased with their continued devotion to Christ and the Church. Last year Charlotte Bunch Weeks, who has served as President of the Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina, served as the first President of the University Christian Movement. This year two of the twelve members of the National Council of the Methodist Student Movement came from schools in our state. They are: Dennis Campbell, the President, who was President of the MSM of N. C. during his senior year at Duke; and Anita Thomas, who served as President of the Wesley Foundation at UNC-G. Dennis now is enrolled at Yale Divinity School.

Students from North Carolina who have been named to General Boards of The United Methodist Church are as follows:

Board of Education—Mr. Tom Raper, 2446 Lyndhurst Ave. (home address), Winston-Salem, N. C. 27103. (School address): Box 9474, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. 2706.

Board of Missions—Mr. Douglas Tanner, 1234 N. Washington St. (Home address), Lenoir, N. C. 28139. (School address): Box 4075, Duke Station, Durham, N. C. 2706.

Board of Evangelism—Mr. Joe Mann, 2219 Lee Avenue (Home address), Sanford, N. C. (School address): 843 Morrison, UNC-Chapel Hill, N. C. 27514.

The increasing cooperation between local churches and the Campus Ministry pleases us. We seek even more of this for the future. And we pray that God will use this ministry to His glory.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

I.

THE PAST YEAR

We have dreamed, planned, worked, and prayed for evangelism in our conference, seeking a spirit-filled life for ourselves and our people. We have worked on every level from the local church, where evangelism has to be done, to the annual conference.

We led in planning and conducted the Orientation Workshop for pastors new to our conference. Our conference program and institutions were explained to the new ministers.

Our Conference Board continued to publish The Good News and mailed it bi-monthly to the pastors and chairmen of Commissions on Membership and Evangelism. We are pleased with the response and involvement of the chairmen as they learn and are reminded of the conference program of evangelism and feel close fellowship with other commission chairmen and the pastors.

Desiring to learn more of the spirit and methods of evangelism, the board director attended jurisdictional and national meetings at Junaluska and San Antonio. The board president also attended the Council of Evangelism at San Antonio. The director attended and/or shared in most of the district conferences and district lay rallies, the Conference Laymen's Retreat at Methodist College, district preachers' meetings, assisted in planning and conducting Lay Witness Missions, and preached in local churches as invited. We have desired to be a symbol and reminder and promoter of evangelism in the total life of all the church.

The district secretaries of evangelism have been active in serving their districts. The 53 members of the board have been alert and active to represent the board and promote the cause of evangelism as this has been possible.

II.

YOUTH EVANGELISM

1. Young American Crusades, Rev. Robert H. Gibbons, evangelist and director. A Person County crusade was held in 1967 with tremendous appeal and response. Similar crusades are planned for Henderson, Rocky Mount, and Wilmington in 1968.

The Conference Board of Evangelism is sponsoring and assisting with Young American crusades. Gibbons is a member of our Conference.

2. Youth Revivals are effective where youths do the sponsoring and planning and the speaker can communicate with youth. We recommend Rev. J. H. Kinkle of our Conference on the basis of his successful youth revivals on subdistrict and city-wide levels.

3. Fellowship of Christian Athletes appeals to teen-age and college youth. Most of the larger colleges have a chapter, made up of Christian athletes and coaches, who gladly go to churches and crusades as invited to give Christian witness. We can provide you with names and addresses when you need such witnesses.

We recommend that local efforts be made to organize chapters in the high schools. School authorities are usually very sympathetic to the Fellowship.

4. Youth Retreats. College students who are affiliated with Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Campus Crusade for Christ are available to lead youth retreats in churches or church camps.

5. Sermons from Science Program, prepared by Moody Institute of Science, community-wide, meeting in non-church buildings. Tons of science equipment are brought in to reach the scientific mind for Christ.

6. Paul Anderson Program. Anderson is the world's strongest man and uses his strength to make a powerful personal Christian witness.

7. We offer information and guidance in the programs here discussed.

8. The average age of Americans today is 26, and will be 25 by 1970. Too many youths are drifting aimlessly. Youths are being reached for Christ by churches that practice the youth evangelism we propose to you. All of these programs are better if sponsored interdenominationally.

III.

FAMILY EVANGELISM

Modern living tends toward the breakdown of the family, which undermines the church and civilization. Christian families are the best background for evangelism and combatting evil influences.

We recommend local church emphasis on daily family devotions, with The Upper Room as a guide, provision and reading of Christian books and magazines.

"A little child shall lead them."

IV.

INACTIVE MEMBERS AND SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

We feel that one of the church's greatest needs is the renewal of the inactive and fringe members. We suggest some effective approaches.

1. Biblical preaching that calls for conversion and discipline.

2. Church attendance crusades from September to Christmas and/or January to Easter. Use the mails. Visit the people. Distribute literature on church attendance. Register church attendance on cards or pads available from Tidings.

3. A Visitation of entire membership, using Mission to Members Turnover Chart prepared by our Conference Board, which stresses church attendance.

Train the visitors with the turn-over chart, "Let Us Go Into the House of the Lord."

4. Lay Witness Missions are being held across the Conference, with churches and individuals revived and coming to life spiritually. We have seen churches reborn. Here is the best program we have seen to quicken the best members and leaders of churches and bring a vital experience to inactive members.

About 35 of our churches have held missions.

We co-sponsor with the Board of Lay Activities. Churches interested in missions should contact the director of our board or the conference lay leader.

5. Assimilation of New Members is as important as getting new members.

We recommend the Fellowship Friend idea. Assign each new family to a family in a similar situation of children, profession, age, to see that the new family becomes involved in the life of the church.

Give new members something to do as soon as possible.

Methodist training and orientation should be given to transfers from other denominations.

The turnover chart, "Spiritual Life for Methodist Christians," is good in Methodist history, beliefs, organization, and purpose.

V.

SOUL-WINNING

Last year our Conference received 4,309 members by profession and had a net gain of 1,999. This was good, but the spirit of Christ and the white fields challenge us to do better.

1. Visitation Evangelism, despite modern distractions, is as effective as it was 20 years or 20 centuries ago. Christ did it and commanded His disciples then and now to do it. Evangelism visitors should be spiritually prepared by prayer and training. The turnover chart, "Two by Two," is excellent.

2. Membership Training Classes should be held for children and youth-adults before membership reception during Holy Week, and in the fall, where possible, looking toward Christmas Sunday.

Greater emphasis should be placed on adequate training of members before and after reception. We recommend 13 weeks of training classes.

3. An Evangelism Spirit should permeate the entire life of the church. Magnify, preach, practice. The Commission on Membership and Evangelism should be alert and active. The great evangelism task is too great for the pastor alone. The joy of winning a person to Christ should be experienced by every member and not just the pastor.

4. Prospects for membership may be discovered in many ways: relatives and friends of recent members, families represented in church organizations such as the Scouts, persons attending church and its organizations, church attendance registration, newcomers, censuses. The prospect list should be built and maintained with eagerness and care. The prospect list should be a prayer list for each commission member.

VI.

SMALL GROUPS

We are convinced that the growing small group movement offers hope of much-needed spiritual renewal for Methodist churches and members. This is a return to early Methodism and early Christianity. There is intimacy, sharing, prayer, Bible study, witnessing, questing, commitment, and high resolve for Christian discipline and concern for the church. There is a cutting edge of desire to reach and win the lost and needy people, a modern version of the Wesley class meeting.

Small group suggestions for meetings in the homes:

1. The Twelve
2. The Yokefellows
3. Sharing or prayer groups

LAY WITNESS MISSIONS

We assist churches in planning missions.

For churches that have had missions, we recommend Christian Growth Conferences as follow-up maturity studies.

We plan to hold district or regional renewal rallies for persons who have been in missions for fellowship, training of persons to be future lay witnesses, and those interested in planning missions. A similar conference rally was held February 16, 1968, at Raleigh with 150 enthusiastic persons attending.

VII.

Our Board is helping to sponsor and finance the Summer Beach Ministry of Rev. Hank Wilkinson and others at Nags Head. Baptists, Methodists, and Presbyterians work and finance together. For the last two summers, religious movies have been shown on the beach. Folk spiritual music is provided by young people. Young Christians witness briefly to what Christianity means to them.

Larger plans are being made for the summer of 1969, including a colored circus tent and ice cream parlor, where youth can meet for fellowship and the religious inspiration that will be provided.

We are fortunate in the interest and leadership of churches in the area and the various denominations.

We ask your prayers for divine guidance and blessing in this opportune field of evangelism.

If you have ideas of a summer ministry at lakes and other beaches, let us know.

VIII.

SYMBOLS

1. The Lay Witness Mission symbol of the circle and three fingers is meaningful to persons familiar with the Lay Witness Mission. It says, "God Loves You — I Love You."

2. The pocket cross witnesses to the carrier when he sees or feels it and it witnesses to the public when he makes changes for purchases.

IX.

PASTORS' CONFERENCE ON EVANGELISM

The 1967 Conference was held at Methodist College. Leaders were Dr. Wilson O. Weldon and Dr. J. W. Sells. The 1968 Conference will be held August 27-28 at Wesleyan College.

We will continue to hold panel discussions of evangelism and spiritual life subjects pertinent to pastors, conducted by ministers of our Conference who have demonstrated their abilities in the various areas of interest.

X.

LAY CONFERENCE ON EVANGELISM

Our third annual Lay Conference on Evangelism will be held at Wesleyan College August 10-11. Resource leader and speaker will be Rev. Ross Whetstone, newly-appointed director of Care and Conservation of Members of the General Board. Dr. Claude Thompson will be preacher and inspirational leader.

Winners of the 1967 attendance trophies were Haymount Church, Fayetteville, for the largest attendance, and Mebane Church, for the most man miles traveled.

The Conference is designed for local church commissions of Membership and Evangelism.

XI.

EVANGELISM AND DEVOTIONAL LITERATURE

We keep about 250 of the most pertinent folders and books published by Tidings and The Upper Room of the General Board. This is sold through our office on a cost basis. Orders are filled promptly. You are invited to come and browse. A price list will be sent upon request.

We have added to our stock manuals and other books related to the Lay Witness Mission and the follow-up Christian Growth Conference.

XIII.

AIDS OF EVANGELISM

Development of "The Twelve."

Maintaining an active Fisherman's Club.

Constant search for new prospects.

Never-ceasing effort to deepen spiritual commitment of each member.

Keeping alert to moving members that they transfer promptly.

The district secretaries are anxious to help, as far as possible, in the churches of subdistricts of their respective districts in assisting pastors and commissions with their evangelistic needs.

The Conference Executive Director of Evangelism is available by appointment for the following types of programs in the district, subdistrict, or local churches:

1. "Sunday for Evangelism," or "E-Day," as it is sometimes designated.

9:45 a.m. Lead combined adult and/or youth classes of Sunday school in a discussion on "Taking Christ and the Church to the People."

11:00 a.m. Preach an evangelistic sermon.

3:00-5.00 p.m. Workshop with Commissions on Education and Evangelism, Official Board, church school teachers, and other leaders dealing with the work of evangelism, or other plans requested.

2. Revivals in new, static, or declining churches, in cooperation with the Board of Missions and other groups.

3. Week-night Workshops for Commissions on Membership and Evangelism on subdistrict, charge, or local church basis.

4. Combination preaching and witnessing mission on subdistrict, charge, or local church basis.

5. Consultation in office in Raleigh.

6. Help through correspondence.

7. Display of books and helps in the office in The Methodist Building.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend the reappointment of Howard M. McLamb as Conference Executive Director of Evangelism.

We recommend that the secretary of the Board of Evangelism be appointed as Conference Secretary of Evangelism.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. H. B. Jones and Rev. Robert J. Rudd as Approved Conference Evangelists.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Hubert Sidney Huggins III as Approved Conference Evangelist.

The Approved Evangelists may have a display at annual conference and share in the program of the Pastors' Conference on Evangelism. We commend the services of our conference evangelists for revivals and spiritual life missions.

REPORT OF THE N. C. CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Minutes of the 1967 Session

The Anniversary Celebration of the Historical Society at the 1967 Annual Conference in Goldsboro, featured an address by Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, president of East Carolina University in Greenville, and a member of the Saint James Methodist Church in Greenville.

Program Plans for the 1968 Session

The 1968 Anniversary celebration at the Annual Conference will be highlighted by an address by Bishop Willis Jefferson King of New Orleans, Louisiana on the topic, "The Negro In The Methodist Church In America". In light of the merger of the former Central Jurisdiction Churches within the bounds of our conference with the Raleigh Area churches, we feel that his address will have a special meaning to us at the 1968 Conference.

SeJ Historical Meeting

The Historical Society Secretary, the Rev. Frank Grill, Fayetteville District trustee, Dr. Cecil W. Robbins, president of Louisburg College and Brooks B. Little were North Carolina Conference representatives to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Historical Society meeting at Lake Junaluska in July, 1967.

Of Historical Note

We commend the Rev. W. C. Wilson for his interest and concern in gathering items, memorabilia, etc. for our conference archives.

We request that each church in the Annual Conference have a History and Records Committee. If the local church does not have a history already written, we urge the pastor to work with this committee or a person so designated to compile and write a history.

The Historical Society Secretary has been successful this year in obtaining a number of local church histories.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Report No. 1

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

PART I—REVIEW OF THE YEAR

During the past year the Methodist Home has concentrated upon the improvement of the quality of the services rendered to children and the gradual extension of other services in addition to the group care program. While group care has continued to be our main service, we have recruited additional foster homes which have been licensed by the State Board of Public Welfare for our use and we are using them for children who need this kind of service. We have, also, expanded our service to selected children who could be served better in their own homes, with some financial assistance and casework service from the Methodist Home, than they would be served by breaking up their homes and bringing the children into our group care program.

The effort to improve the condition of our property has continued through the year with painting and renovation of several of the cottages and long delayed major maintenance to our Administration Building.

Both the Trustees and the administration have been continuing, during the year, the very careful self-study of our agency and its program which was initiated last year. The Group Child Care Project, associated with the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, was engaged to do a professional study for the Home. The study had two major divisions: one was a careful research effort to discover what are the needs for services to children in our Annual Conference area, what are the trends and what are the anticipated needs to be met in the future. The second division was a very careful survey of the services now being offered by the Methodist Home for Children with reference to their nature and their quality. The review of these two major divisions will result in recommendations concerning the improvement of services now rendered and the addition of services which should be rendered by the Methodist Home for Children. The research is complete. The report is in the hands of the Survey committee. With this information in hand and these recommendations before it and the Board of Trustees will be in a position to make wise decisions concerning plans for the future. Important plans that need to be made have been delayed until after this careful study could be prepared.

It is not necessary to call attention to the fact that the inflationary trend puts the Methodist Home in the position of having to spend more money in order to maintain its services at the present level. The current budget for the year ending September 30, 1968, anticipates a deficit of nearly $20,000. The Trustees decided to set up the deficit budget rather than to curtail our services for this year and give time to make adjustments and to develop long-range plans. It has been necessary to increase the salaries paid, not only to meet the governmental requirements, but also to meet the competition from other employers. The pressure for increased expenditures for salaries will increase rather than decrease.

The Methodist Home for Children is caught up in the rapid changes that are taking place in our whole society. Adjustments will have to be made rapidly in the future in the light of the changing needs for services to children and their families in our area, and in the light of the changing public services offered by governmental agencies, and in the light of the radically increased cost of providing the needed services for children. We must all be prepared for these changes.

With sadness we report the death of Miss Mary Ferree May 13, 1967. "Miss Mary", as she was affectionately known by her former students, was for many years the kindergarten teacher at the Methodist Home for Children. She retired in 1960. She used to live at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham in 1963 where she died after an extended illness. Miss Mary's life was an inspiration and a blessing to a great host of people who knew her.

The Board of Trustees wishes to commend Superintendent J. W. Lineberger and his excellent staff for the effective way in which they are carrying on the program of the Methodist Home for Children. The staff is being continually strengthened. The program is being continually improved.

Report No. 2

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

Part I

THE HOME AND ITS SERVICES

The Methodist Retirement Home represents you and your church in the care of many of the retired members of your church for your church has accepted the challenge of Christ and followed the example of John Wesley in its concern for the needs of older people.

The Home is owned and operated by the North Carolina Conference with Trustees elected by the Conference. You have helped make The Home possible through an item in the budget of your church which is used for debt retirement and expansion of facilities.

The eight new apartments and the addition to The Fowler Building, completed in 1967, are now filled. The Home is caring for 182 members in its twenty-eight apartments, and the Gibbons and Fowler Buildings in which domiciliary and infirmary care are available. This is the capacity at the present time though this will be raised to 185 when three more Members are moved permanently to The Home's infirmary.

Twelve additional apartments are under construction and should be completed not later than the first of October, 1968. This will raise the capacity of the Durham Home to approximately 200 and will complete the present unit for this will fill both the dining room and the infirmary to capacity.

Your Retirement Home is serving your church's retired members in a fine way. It is providing its Members an opportunity to be independent with dignity, to escape loneliness, anxiety, and the fears that come with aging. It gives its Members assurance of care in sickness and health in a Christian environment which is warm with love, comfort and security.

"The real meaning of life at any age is found in man's relationship to God, and this relationship gives meaning to all human values. The goal is not to keep the aging busy, but to help them find in every moment an opportunity for greatness". In your Retirement Home members are helped in meeting this goal. In The Home they find a purpose for living for two of the fears of aging are the fear of disappointing others and the fear of loss of ego building experiences . . . I am no longer needed or wanted . . . In The Home the strong help the weak and everyone has an opportunity to share with others even as you are sharing with The Home and its members through your prayers and your financial support.

Since The Home is a part of the church it operates financially like the church. Members pay according to their ability and all receive equal services. Those who do not have sufficient assets are maintained in The Home by its benevolent program. The largest source of income for this program is The Mother's Day Offering. Other contributions come as gifts from individuals or groups such as the furnishing of a room and other memorials or by the sending of a contribution in memory of a loved one. Such gifts are recognized in appropriate ways. One of the major sources of income for the continuing work of The Home is through wills.

The Home is doing much benevolent work. Fifty seven of the 182 Members are OAA recipients and seven additional Members are paying less than the current rate of $200 per month. More than 45 percent of the Members in the main building are Old Age Assistance recipients. With an increasing number of members whose care must be supplemented and with increasing costs, there must be additional income from Members, the Conference, or elsewhere.

As a retirement home only those who are reasonably able to care for their daily needs are accepted. While the rule of thumb is that the Member be able to keep her room with weekly maid service, dress herself, and go to the dining room without assistance, the final decision is left to the Medical Committee after an entrance physical examination. Preference is given to Methodist, both clergymen and lay people from eastern North Carolina though others are accepted. The Home is prepared to keep a member for life once she is accepted. Requirements are minimum age 65 (62 for apartments), a life service to the church and community and a need for the services offered by The Home.

Each case is considered individually by the Admissions Committee both as to physical condition and finances. The filing of an application places the applicant under no obligation.

FINANCIAL POLICIES

Members of The Home are on either a monthly boarding basis or on a Life Contract. Those who are financially able to pay the cost of their keep are expected to do so, and in addition are urged to make gifts to The Home. Others pay according to their ability, and the Church, through its benevolent program, provides the difference.

Members entering The Home on a Life Contract find complete security. The Home guarantees care for the member as long as she remains in The Home. In exchange for this protection and security the member is asked to leave part of her estate to The Home.

The monthly rate covers room, board, laundry, maid service, services of The Home's physician, the routine medicine and the nursing geriatric care available in the Home's infirmary, along with the religious and social program of The Home.

The comment is often made by ministers and laymen of the Conference that, "all the Home is interested in is the Member's money." The fact is, that 45 percent of the Members in the domiciliary care facilities and infirmary are Old Age Assistance recipients or are not paying as much as the cost of their care. While there are a few members who will leave The Home assets through their wills, there are many more who have their monthly keep supplemented through the Benevolent Program of The Home.

Not more than one-third the Members in The Home have sufficient assets to keep them for their life expectancy. Less than 20 percent of the Members will leave The Home more than a few thousands dollars if they live for their life expectancy. In the meantime the Church will have done many times the amount left by members in benevolent work. The monthly rate charged the Members is based on actual day to day costs, and does not take into account cost of buildings, interest or depreciation which means that the Members are not paying room rent.

The question is often asked, "Why does The Home require people to apply for Old Age Assistance". There are two reasons: first, this is a legitimate means of income for older people who do not have sufficient income to care for themselves; second, that though the Church has been very liberal with The Home, it has not given The Home the benevolent money necessary to care for these people without this additional source of income.

A few of the Members in The Home are on a monthly boarding basis. Many of these do not have sufficient assets to pay as much as the monthly rate but for some reason are not eligible for Old Age Assistance.

Approximately one-half the Members in The Home are on life contracts. The contract guarantees care for the Member for life. They are never signed without the member's family, their minister's or lawyer's approval, unless the Member insists that she fully understands and can make her own decision. The contract may be broken by the Member up to a year with no penalty and after a year with penalty. No assets come to The Home except the monthly rate until the Member is deceased.

The Member is asked to set up all or part of her assets in a care account which is invested by the Trust Department of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company. This amount is based on the Member's ability to pay, and the Member's life expectancy. The fund accumulates its earnings. The Home draws monthly upon this account its rate of care for the Member, the amount of money agreed upon at the time of the signing of the contract for Member's personal spending and in addition, money for the payment of unusual medical expenses which includes premium on hospital policy, dental work, glasses, etc. In exchange for the guarantee of care for life The Member, after funeral expenses, etc., are paid, will leave one-half of the balance in the care account to The Home and dispose of the other half according to the terms of Member's will.

Though we do not know all of the implications of Medicare, the Members have been signed up for both parts of the Medicare Program. This is helping the Members with the hospitalization and surgical bills but so far, Medicare has meant little to The Home. Unless the interpretation of the Medicare law is changed, it will not financially help The Home or the Members while in The Home.

The program of The Home is carried out by an excellent staff of loyal and dedicated people who go the second mile in serving The Home's Members.

The Trustees have had much to do with the success of The Home, for they have given freely of their time, talent and money. The leadership of Bishop Garber and the members of his Cabinet, as well as the leadership and financial support of the ministers and laymen of the Conference mean more than can be expressed in words.

A Member living in an apartment makes the same monthly payment as a Member in the main building and has available every service offered there.

The Member makes a capital gift to The Home which gives her the privilege of living in an apartment as long as she is a Member of The Home; however, she may, on doctor's orders or by request, move into the main building.

If you are interested in Retirement at Its Best, with privacy plus protection and security, and with the best medical and nursing care available when needed, you should consider retirement in the Methodist Retirement Home.

NEEDS TO BE MET

Within the foreseeable future there will be approximately a half million people in North Carolina over sixty-five. Many of these are Methodists who are within the area of responsibility of the North Carolina Conference. The Home in Durham is filled and the waiting list continues to grow with new applications coming every week.

Bishop Garber states . . . "We have really only begun in the task and opportunity of caring for our aging members. We must as soon as possible find the way to care for more of our retired friends."

The Trustees of The Home feel that it is now time for the construction of another home strategically located within the bounds of the Conference. Such a home should be near a strongly concerned Methodist constituency. There must be available utilities, public transportation to the area, an adequate supply of labor, both skilled and unskilled, and medical services. Within a reasonable distance must be a hospital, church, and shopping facilities.

This home will bring to the community a fine Christian institution. It will give those who have a part in making it possible a sense of sharing in the name of Christ with many retired people who need someone to care for them. This home will serve the retired people of the area, for 50 percent of the Members in the Durham Home come from a radius of less than fifty miles. Though the Home in Durham has excellent facilities and its Members receive the finest services available they would still like to keep closer geographical ties with the place they call home.

While the Conference, through the Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated, is prepared to invest some money in this new home, a large part of the initial investment will have to come through a Capital Funds Campaign by the Conference or from interested individuals or groups in the area where the home will be located. The Church will add to the facilities as there is a need and the Church will help with the large amount of benevolent work the home will do.

This home offers an excellent opportunity for a living memorial for some individual or family, for the home will grow and serve for generations.

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY AND A CHALLENGE FOR YOU.

Part II: Requests

The Board of Trustees requests the Bishop to appoint Reverend Joseph F. Coble to be Administrator and Reverend Harvey B. Johnson to be Administrative Assistant for the year 1968-1969.

The Board of Trustees requests the privilege of solicitation of funds for the purpose of carrying on the work of The Home and financing another home within the bounds of The Conference.

Part III Nominations for Trustees

Term to expire in 1970: Reverend W. E. Tisdale.

GOLDEN CROSS COMMITTEESection I

Our group insurance program continues to receive support and cooperation by the ministers and churches. This cooperation and support demonstrates the fact that the insurance program is serving to fill a need within the conference.

The insurance program combined with the federal program of Medi-Care has decrease the amount used for the Golden Cross Program.

The committee makes the following recommendations:

I. The Golden Cross support be continued at $20 per day during 1968-69, thereafter amended as follows:

1. "That the Blue Cross-Blue Shield hospital coverage provided for the effective ministers and Approved Supplies of our Annual Conference be increased to give the following coverage:

"$25.00 per day room allowance with H comprehensive benefits, also extended benefits; medical payment at the rate of $12.00 for the first day, $8.00 for the second day, and $4.00 per day thereafter; and that Schedule L of the 'Surgical Benefits' be adopted, which provides approximately a 25 percent increase in surgical payments."

2. "That this policy go into effect July 1, 1969, in order to give the churches an opportunity to make allowance for the increased cost in the budget for the new year."

3. "That the premiums be billed in the following manner:

"Two quarterly billings at the rate of $57.96 per family, per quarter, to be paid by the church or charge; two quarterly payments in the same amount to be paid by the minister. For a single minister the rate of $20.23 per quarter."

II. We commend the work of Chaplain Wesley Aitken and his staff in the Chaplaincy Program at Duke Medical Center. The Chaplaincy Program presents the witness of the church in one of the finest ways. The program makes the service of chaplains available to persons from across the state and the eastern portion of the nation. We recommend that our support of the Chaplaincy Program be increased from $4200 to $4700 for the Conference year 1968-1969.

Section II

I. The committee recognizes the work with alcoholics of the Rev. J. C. Dunn at the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw, N. C. We recommend that the conference continue its support of the home in the amount of $2500 for the Conference year 1968-1969.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON IN-SERVICE TRAINING FOR PASTORS

The Committee's work during this conference year has been an evaluation and planning for coordinated effort in continuing education for pastors within the North Carolina Annual Conference. Recommendations regarding the work of continuing education for the coming quadrennium are herein offered.

I

Recommendations approved for the 1968-1969 Conference Year include two clinics on "Rethinking the Ministry" in Greenville and Fayetteville led by Dr. Carlyle Marney of The Interpreter's House. The Committee has also approved clinics in "Biblical Theology" for the Wilmington and Burlington Districts.

A scheduled meeting with leadership from the Department of Continuing Education, the Board of Education in Nashville, Tenn. has been set for late May to enable the present Committee to formulate additional plans in light of the General Conference legislation regarding continuing education.

We are grateful to the Duke Endowment and the Annual Conference for their support of In-Service Training, during the first quadrennium of its existence as a committee.

The work of this group has been evidence of a hunger on the part of many of our pastors to be "on the contemporary cutting edge of life". The success of clinics in Preaching, Biblical Theology and Pastoral Counseling in the Greenville, New Bern, Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, Sanford and Elizabeth City Districts has provided the impetus needed to project our larger concerns for continuing education.

Therefore the following recommendations and proposals are made to the Annual Conference.

II

RESOLUTION

We recommend that the Commission on In-Service Training of the North Carolina Annual Conference be discontinued, and that its work and program be expanded by the establishment of a Commission on Continuing Education of the Ministry, for the purpose of developing a more adequate and coordinated program of continuing education for the ministers of the Conference.

We recommend that this Commission be composed of the following members:

1. One representative elected by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.
2. One representative elected by the Conference Board of Education.
3. One representative elected by the Conference Board of Evangelism.
4. One representative elected by the Conference Board of Mission.
5. One representative elected by the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work. (Discontinued as a Commission)
6. One representative elected by the Conference Commission on Christian Social Concerns.
7. One representative elected by the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School.
8. One District Superintendent selected by the Cabinet.
9. One representative from the faculty or administrative staff of Louisburg College appointed by the President of Louisburg College.
10. One representative from the faculty or administrative staff of North Carolina Wesleyan College appointed by its President.

11. One representative from the faculty or administrative staff of Methodist College appointed by its President.

12. The Director of Continuing Education of the Divinity School, Duke University.

13. Five members-at-large appointed by the Bishop.

We recommend that the Bishop appoint a convener to organize the Commission, electing a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and other officers as desired, as soon as practical following the June, 1968 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

We further recommend that the Commission, when organized, have one meeting with the officers of the present Commission on In-Service Training for the purpose of coordinating and completing plans for seminars and clinics already projected for the Conference year 1968-69.

It is further recommended that the Commission cooperate with the Department of Ministerial Education, Division of Higher Education, Board of Education, The Methodist Church and its Associate Director in charge of continuing education of the ministry with regional and ecumenical commissions, and with the Divinity School of Duke University.

PURPOSES TO BE SERVED

We recommend that the commission established to plan and project schools and seminars for the Continuing Education of Pastors work diligently to coordinate such projected plans of several boards and agencies of our Conference so as to have fewer meetings of a higher quality in affording a stimulus to continue the educational preparation and enrichment of all the ministers in our Conference. We believe such a program would supplement, not supplant, and might be coordinated with programs presently offered by our theological seminaries.

We recommend that such sessions for continuing education should provide the opportunity for continuing education for all men serving appointments from college level to graduate level; for updating theological education by refresher material and by confrontation with new approaches to theological material and methods; for sharing new ideas and improved methods in Church Administration.

We recommend that sermonizing and lecturing be held to a reasonable minimum, with strong emphasis on assigned reading, discussion groups led by able churchmen, open forum studies of assigned texts, by review of the better audio-visual materials and methods, and by supervising creative writing efforts from each minister. The small class, the seminar, the tutorial, and the directed study methods should be freely used to supplement a few excellent platform presentations.

We would recommend that program promotion be avoided in these schools. Any such school should be encouraged, but completely voluntary, or "low pressure." We would endorse the value of financial inducements for pastors of low to moderate income, with the possibility of scholarships offered to each minister the first two or three years in the Conference.

As business and industry do, we should make it easy and essential to remain "fresh" and aware of new ideas and methods, aware of the change in the church, in our society, and in the educational and business world.

C. WADE GOLDSTON, Chairman

WILLIAM K. QUICK, Secretary

REPORT OF INTER-BOARD COORDINATING COUNCIL

REPORT No. 1

The Inter-Board Coordinating Council has made progress during this conference year in carrying out the report of the Study Committee of Ten, adopted at the North Carolina Annual Conference of 1966.

Section V of the report stated that "The Annual Conference shall purchase and furnish parsonages for all ministers serving the annual conference in conference executive positions." This matter was referred to the Conference Board of Trustees, and after a study of the matter a report was presented to the Council and was adopted as follows:

1. That the conference trustees believe it is advisable for the Annual Conference to purchase and furnish parsonages for all ministers serving the annual conference in executive positions.

2. That the Conference Board of Trustees direct each board or agency employing ministers in full-time executive positions with the responsibility of selecting, purchasing, furnishing, and maintaining a suitable parsonage for these ministers, the said parsonage to meet the approval of the conference trustees.

3. That the conference trustees serve as a coordinating agency between the various boards and agencies that find it necessary to own parsonages, and that an annual report be made to the conference trustees on a form supplied by them showing ownership status, condition of parsonage, and the annual cost incurred in ownership.

4. That prior approval of conference trustees be obtained before disposition of any parsonage.

5. That present arrangements existing between boards and executive secretaries may be continued at present status until there is a personnel change, at which time the board involved will purchase and furnish a parsonage for replacement personnel.

6. That thereafter whenever parsonages are provided that ministers assigned the conference in executive capacities be required to use said parsonages.

7. That the above recommendations go into effect at the 1968 Annual Conference.

8. The financing of parsonages for boards and agencies of our Conference be handled by the Board of Trustees of said Conference in consultation with the Commission on World Service and Finance. The committee for the financing of the parsonages shall include the chairman of the Board of Trustees, the chairman of Methodist Foundation, Inc., the chairman of the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the chairman and executive secretary of the board or agency concerned.

Section VI of the report stated: "There shall be a uniform salary scale, including all forms of compensation, for all conference executive secretaries."

Section IX of the report stated: "The Inter-Board Coordinating Council shall request that the Commission on World Service and Finance appropriate funds to provide salaries and all forms of compensation including travel expenses for the conference executive secretaries, associate conference executive secretary, conference treasurer-business administrator, conference secretary, and conference statistician."

These instructions were followed by the Inter-Board Coordinating Council and request was made by the Council to the Commission on World Service as follows:

1. That the base annual salary for all executive secretaries be $10,000 per conference year, $600 of the amount being designated for utilities.

2. In regard to other forms of compensation that:

a. All lay executive secretaries shall be privileged to participate on a voluntary basis in the Lay Employee Plan of the Methodist Church. If the lay executive secretary decides to participate, the amount of six per cent of his annual salary will be paid by the North Carolina Annual Conference to the Lay Employee Plan of the Methodist Church for the annual premium.

b. The North Carolina Annual Conference will take care of the pension payment of all executive secretaries who are clerical members of the North Carolina Conference. This means that the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay "in the amount of twelve times the current annuity rate as provided in the Discipline 1618.2c and 1618.7a (Journal, 1966, page 285).

c. In regard to the Ministers' Family Hospitalization Insurance Plan, the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay one-half of the yearly rate for the executive secretaries who are clergymen. This is in line with the action of the North Carolina Conference of June 1966, as follows: "That each charge be apportioned an amount equal to one-half of the yearly family rate of the policy of its member or members. That the various boards, institutions, and other agencies of the Conference contribute one-half of the amount of the family premium for their full-time ministerial employees." (Journal, 1966, page 251).

d. In regard to the Ministers' Retirement Fund, the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay the one per cent now paid by the local charge. This refers to the following item: "Each charge in the conference shall be required to pay into the fund annually an amount equal to one per cent of what it reports as paid in salary, travel, and utility allowance to the pastor and also associates, if any, under episcopal appointment or who may hold membership in the fund." (Journal, 1966, page 287).

e. In regard to the Group Life Insurance Policy Program, the North Carolina Conference will pay the annual premium for the executive secretaries who are clergymen.

f. In regard to the moving expenses, the North Carolina Conference will pay annually the sum of $25 to the Ministers' Moving Expense Fund for the executive secretaries who are clergymen and will also pay the moving expenses of the executive secretaries who are laymen.

3. In regard to travel expenses, that mileage for the executive secretaries, associate executive secretary, directors, and the conference secretary and conference statistician be set at ten cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and seven cents per mile for mileage beyond 15,000 miles. This allocation for mileage covers all travel expenses such as food and lodging on trips within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference.

4. That, until parsonages have been provided for all the executive secretaries, an amount up to $1,800 per year for housing allowance will be paid to the executive secretaries without parsonages.

5. That $7,000 be the annual base salary of the associate conference executive secretary. In addition he will receive the same allowances as are granted to the executive secretaries for housing, pension, hospitalization, group insurance, moving expenses, and Ministers' Retirement benefits.

6. That $6,600 plus $1,300 for housing, be the annual base salary for the directors. In addition, the directors will receive the same allowances as are granted to the executive secretaries for pension, hospitalization, group insurance, moving expenses, and Ministers' Retirement benefits.

7. That the same salary and all other compensations granted to the executive secretaries be granted to the conference treasurer-business administrator.

8. That the salary of the conference secretary be $1,500 plus $1,800 for housing allowance.

9. That the compensation for the conference statistician be $600.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

No. 1

The 1967 Annual Conference speaker for the Anniversary Hour of the Board of Lay Activities was the Conference Director of Leadership Development, Dr. Paul Hardin, III of the Duke University School of Law. The subject of his address was, "Go Into All the World". Mr. Walter F. Anderson of Raleigh was recognized as the Layman of the Year and given a life membership certificate in the Methodist Men's organization. Mr. Anderson responded with moving words of gratitude.

The theme of the Board of Lay Activities during the 1967-68 Conference Year was centered on the Stewardship of the Laity. Emphasis was directed to the following areas of concern=

- Stewardship of Tithing
- Stewardship of Time and Ability
- Stewardship of Ministerial Support
- Stewardship of Gifts and Wills

The Se.J. Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska on July 27-30 was held with a capacity record in attendance. It was estimated over 2,000 persons were on the Assembly Grounds as a result of this annual jurisdictional meeting. The theme of Christian Commitment was given attention throughout the program of the conference.

The Conference Laymen's Retreat was held on the campus of Methodist College, Fayetteville, over the week-end of August 26-27 under the resource leadership of E. James W. Sells and Reverend Alvin B. Weston of the Se.J. Office in Atlanta, Georgia. Approximately 400 laymen, representing all eleven districts, were in attendance as treatment was given the stewardship program for the year.

The 5th annual District Training Sessions on Leadership Development were held in the eleven districts during the month of September. In addition to the heretofore named areas of stewardship concern the following subjects were offered=

- Commission on Stewardship and Finance
- Committee on Pastoral Relations
- Every Member Visitation

"Christ Ambassadors" was the theme selected by the General Board of Lay Activities to be given emphasis on Layman's Day for Sunday, October 8, 1967. The scriptural basis was taken from II Corinthians 5:20, "We come therefore as Christ's ambassadors".

One of the truly great meetings of the church was held at the Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh on Monday, November 6, 1967, under the primary sponsorship of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation and the Board of Lay Activities. 2000 Methodists, representing nearly 500 local churches, gathered for the first Conference-wide Stewardship Rally in the Raleigh Area. With Bishop N. Garber as the presiding officer, inspirational addresses were heard from the following on the general theme of "We Witness Through Stewardship": "Renewal Through Stewardship," Dr. G. Don Gilmore; "What Christian Stewardship Means to Me," Bobby Richardson; "The Support of the Ministry," R. R. Allen; "Stewardship Motivation," Walter F. Anderson; "Stewardship is the Answer!" Dr. James Roy Smith.

Tapes of the addresses were made and are available for use in local churches through the TRAFICO office in the Methodist Building in Raleigh. In addition, the combined choirs of Louisburg College, Methodist College, and N. C. Wesleyan College, under the direction of the Reverend Robert Gibbons, stirred the large gathering of Methodist with their excellent singing of several selections.

The Annual District Lay Rallies of the North Carolina Conference continue to hold the attention of our people after fifteen consecutive years. The 1968 series honored Bishop Paul Neff Garber and gave recognition to the significant part he has made to the success of these annual lay meetings. Since 1953, Bishop Garber has attended and participated in 130 of the district rallies held in our conference.

Since 1964 nearly $19,000.00 has been made possible in Christian Vocational Scholarships through the rally offerings received. Records in attendance were established this year in three districts: Fayetteville, Wilmington and Greenville. Ladies were included in the invitation to three of the district meetings: Fayetteville, Wilmington, and Durham.

A summary of the 1968 District Lay Rallies is shown as follows:

Date	District	Attendance	Speaker
Feb. 5	Goldsboro	574	Charles L. McCullers
Feb. 6	Raleigh	619	William R. Henderson

Since the beginning of the No-Silent Pulpit Program in 1955, hundreds of laymen throughout the conference have made it possible for worship services to be held in every local church during the Lenten Season. In most districts, training sessions for lay speakers have been scheduled with varying degrees of success.

One of the certain indications of spiritual renewal coming to the church in our time is noted in the Lay Witness Missions. Forty churches in the conference have conducted such missions over the past two years. There are presently over 300 laymen—men, women, and youth—who have volunteered their services in the North Carolina Conference as Lay Witnesses. The Board of Lay Activities, cooperating with the Board of Evangelism, under the leadership of the Reverend Howard M. McLamb, is lending every support possible to the missions held in the conference.

Dr. Charles Q. Coffman, Director of the Section on Spiritual Life of the General Board of Lay Activities lead in a consultation meeting of Lay Witness Mission Coordinators, and other interested persons, held at the Methodist Building in Raleigh on March 29, 1968.

On Saturday March 30, 1968 the Conference Board of Lay Activities was called in session for the purpose of organizing the new Board of Laity of the United Methodist Church. During this time the Board's activities for the Conference Year 1968-69 were planned. "The LIFE of the Laity" will be developed as the theme along the outline as provided by the Study Book, In and For the World, by Stanley J. Menking.

The new officers of the Board of the Laity were selected as follows: Chairman and Conference Lay Leader, James T. Patrick; Vice-Chairman, J. Edward Legates; Secretary, Grier L. Garrick; Associate Conference Lay Leader (Stewardship and Finance), Valter F. Anderson; Associate Conference Lay Leader (Lay Life and Work), William C. Marley.

As Chairman of the Board of Lay Activities since 1963 I wish to pay tribute and express appreciation to the five Associate Conference Lay Leaders who have served well in the areas assigned to their responsibility: Charles L. McCullers, Methodist Men; William C. Marley, Lay Evangelism; James F. Rogers, Stewardship; Frank H. Mason, Lay Speaking; Paul Hardin III, Leadership Development.

To Bishop Paul N. Garber, the members of his Conference Cabinet, who have meant more to the work of the board than words can express, I offer my sincere appreciation for their cooperative labors.

To the countless number of devoted pastors and dedicated laymen of the North Carolina Annual Conference, I extend the greeting associated with the Lay Witness Mission, "God loves you, and so do I". You have helped to make the past five years, as lay leader of the best Annual Conference in Methodism, the most meaningful of my life.

For the infinite goodness of God's mercy and patience during these years, I am grateful beyond expression.

REPORT NO. 2

By action of the Annual Conference of 1963, the eight-year tenure was restored on all major boards of the conference, with the exception of the Secretary of the Board of Pensions (page 226, 1963 Conference Journal). In addition to this exception an amendment was approved, and later recorded on page 286 of the 1964 Conference Journal, whereby with reference to the Board of Lay Activities, the eight-year tenure would apply to office on the board rather than membership.

This was made possible in order that time spent as an associate district lay leader would not count as time against a possible tenure as district lay leader. Nor would time in the office of associate district lay leader and/or district lay leader count against a possible tenure of office as conference lay leader.

Due to the increasing number of offices available on the board in recent years, such as district and conference directors of various areas of lay work, and the desire to involve more of our laymen in the activities of the board, the Conference Board of Lay Activities, meeting at the Methodist Building in Raleigh on March 30, 1968, voted to recommend to the 1968 North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville on June 4-7, that effective with the 1968-1972 quadrennium, the tenure of any office on the Board of the Laity be considered a quadrennial appointment, subject to the annual election of those officers as required by the Discipline. This recommendation, with the proviso that any interim vacancy in office filled during a given quadrennium, would not count against time eligible for service in the same office during the next full quadrennium succeeding.

REPORT NO. 3

For a number of years it has proven a hardship on the part of many professional and business men to attend week-day meetings scheduled by various conference boards and agencies. This practice has hindered, if not discouraged, lay participation on the conference program planning level. At a time when the church is calling for greater involvement in its total mission it would seem every effort should be made that would encourage in this direction.

The Board of the laity is conscious of the general convenience of the meeting scheduled during the week-days for the average minister. Certainly, the attendance of both clergy and the laity is to be desired if the total church is to be represented.

It is therefore requested that the 1968 Annual Conference direct those conference boards and agencies which have equal, or near equal, lay and clergy representation on their memberships to canvass their members by mail and ascertain if there should be any minorities in their membership who would prefer at least one meeting of the organization scheduled for a Saturday during the conference year.

It is further requested that any follow-through action taken on the findings be left to the responsibility of those boards and agencies involved.

REPORT OF LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

Surveys have been made on the Advocate publishing interest and the leasing of vehicles for conference staff. We are now making a survey on conference information which will encompass the total area of dissemination of information of all our work.

We recommend that salaries of all appointments, other than conference ministers, be published on one page of the Conference Journal. (Under consideration).

Miscellaneous	694.98

Estimated operating expense 95,705.91

Estimated Cash Balance June 8, 1968 $ 20,257.42

Our leasing continues to be complete and no vacancies are contemplated. Our conference space is fully occupied and normal growth of our activities causes us to fit more snugly into our quarters.

The usage of our meeting rooms increases slightly from year to year but with advance scheduling the space will be ample to meet the needs for some years to come. It appears that we have more visitors from our Methodist people throughout the conference and visitors from other conferences. We are delighted to have this interest shown and welcome these visitors. The Conference JOURNAL will carry the audited report for the fiscal year.

REPORT OF METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

No. 1

For the nine-month period ending February 28, 1968, I am pleased to report that your Foundation appears to be headed for another successful year. In spite of certain economic uncertainties, the investments and assets of the Foundation have stood up remarkably well, showing a steady growth and improved return on invested capital. The policies and procedures followed are constantly being reviewed and adjusted.

light of current economic conditions. The advice and counsel of Moody's Inc. is still highly valued. Our over-all investment policy of "progressive conservatism" seems to be well founded.

During the year, the quarterly Board Meetings have been well attended. It is anticipated that our new procedure of mailing to all directors, in advance of quarterly Board Meetings, detailed financial information will be continued. During the year we have encouraged, and have received from your Board of Directors, many valuable suggestions. In this connection, during the past year, we were pleased to have Hugh G. Dupree join the Board as a representative from the Methodist Home for Children.

The skill and active participation of A. C. Edwards will be truly missed. His spirit and constructive contributions through the years will, however, be of continuing benefit to all. Mr. Edwards was one of the early group that conceived and brought into being the Methodist Foundation, Inc. He served faithfully until his recent death.

We quote from the charter:

"Membership shall expire as soon after the quadrennial meeting of said North Carolina Annual Conference as a successor has been elected, except members elected by the membership on the happening of a vacancy shall expire upon the election of a successor, which may be done at the next regular meeting of the Board or Commission charged with the election of such member."

Therefore, we respectfully direct attention to the necessity for action by the agencies involved and we respectfully suggest that such action might be accomplished at the time of reorganization for the new quadrennium for the several groups.

With revisions, the membership shall be constituted as follows:

the resident bishop of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church.
that person holding the office of treasurer of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church.

that person holding the office of president of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance.

three members elected by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance from the membership of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

four members elected by the Commission on World Service and Finance from the conference-at-large based upon their recognized ability in investments.

that person holding the office of Conference lay leader.

that person holding the office of president of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Pensions.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Missions.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Trustees.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Education.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes.

one member elected by the Methodist Home for Children, Inc., of Raleigh, N. C.

one member elected by the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., Durham, N. C.

one member elected by the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work.

one member elected by the Conference Commission on Promotion and Cultivation.

one member elected by the bishop and the Cabinet.

one member elected by the Conference Board of Evangelism.

one member elected by the trustees of Louisburg College.

one member elected by the trustees of Methodist College, Fayetteville, N. C.

one member elected by the trustees of North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Total membership: 26.

DEPARTMENT OF GIFTS AND WILLS

No. 3

It is now more than ten years since the dream began. I was first related to it when invited by Bishop Garber and a small group of men to come and give guidance to the organizing of a Wills program by the Methodist Fund.

My first suggestion was to change the name from Methodist Fund to Methodist Foundation, Inc. This change along with suggested plans for operation was presented to the Board of Methodist Fund the same day. It was unanimously voted to change the charter to read Methodist Foundation, Inc., and to incorporate a Gifts and Wills program as a chartered part of the future operation of the board.

Little dreaming of the far-reaching action of the day, I returned to Philadelphia to find on the following morning on my office desk, an air mail special delivery letter inviting me to be the first director of the department. I began work in the North Carolina Conference on March 1, 1959.

This was an entirely new venture, not only for the Conference, but for Methodism. Since our beginning we have given more than 25 Conferences copies of our charter and by-laws, with method of operation, and by correspondence and visitation these Conferences are now operating Methodist Foundations.

The special gifts money of the Conference has been, and rightly so, directed to our two new four-year colleges, and the strengthening of our junior college. This special educational program has not obscured our other major causes, for our promotional program has included all the causes of the Conference both great and small.

Some of the greatest works are never recognized until long after the author of the work has been long gone. Many of the world's greatest artists lived and died in loneliness.

ness and poverty, never seeing their works in art galleries, while centuries later they are sold at prices of a million dollars or more. The writers of the world's greatest music never heard their scores publicly acclaimed by voice or instrument. They, like painters, died in need, without their works recognized. It remained for the years to reveal.

All reachers for the great and good must endure as seeing the invisible. It is this vision of the future that gives strength to endure.

One of the greatest gifts and wills program was inaugurated and realized in our midst. Trinity College, a small struggling college named for the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. A small college built by the sacrifices of many, but the great Duke University would never have been built without their gifts. A far-seeing business man saw the hope of fulfilling the dream every man has of stamping upon moving history, his name. Mr. Duke's vision and generosity stands as a monument and an example for all men, both great and small. The Duke will has provided this year for this Conference $138,000.00 for Church Extension, $38,750.00 for Minimum Salary, and $85,755.06 for Pensions—total of $262,505.06. These are recurring gifts every year; the total may vary some from year to year. In addition, the Conference trustees have $311,000.00 in trust for the benefit of retired ministers. A total of $573,505.06—over half a million dollars. Furthermore, most of the ministers had their tuition to the Seminary from the Duke funds.

In simple appreciation of all this, every minister and layman of this Conference who is not already supporting the Wills program should face about and give full support to it. All pulpits should be open and the director invited to present to all congregations, enlisting all Methodists to make wills leaving something for Conference causes to advance the cause of Christ in North Carolina.

There would be no schools such as Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Browne, and we may include a late-comer, Boston University. All these are the results of gifts and wills. The beginning of these institutions was slow and meager; the gifts and wills were small and slow. The momentum of growth changed all this, all because there were those willing to work, pray, believe, and support according to their abilities.

We could also point out the great programs of philanthropy and charity as shown in hospitals, homes for children, homes for the aged, missions for the fallen, national and world missions of the Methodist Church. All of these, supported by gifts and wills, have reached undreamed-of greatness.

The last 15 years of the North Carolina Conference have shown more growth and progress than all its preceding history. This was because the Conference launched the central treasury, new boards, commissions, Methodist Foundation with its Department of Gifts and Wills, and with many new congregations. No conference in Methodist history has made such strides as the North Carolina Conference has in this period.

Mr. Gurney P. Hood, first president of the Methodist Fund, and the Methodist Foundation, did not rest until the Gifts and Wills program was launched. He was ably assisted by Marvin J. Cowell, Dr. John C. Brauer, Charles Hubbard, John M. Dozier, O. L. Lathway, Dr. Charles Jordan, J. E. Garlington, Lon Edwards—just to name a few of the many who saw a vision and had a dream.

In the early part of my work, Mr. Hood and I traveled thousands of miles meeting bankers, trust officers, church leaders—both clerical and lay, with men and women of means. We would be gone for days at a time, all at his own expense. This Conference will never know of his many gifts. He gave in life and he gave in death.

John M. Dozier, second president of the Foundation, was vitally interested in this program. Both he and Mr. Hood gave more time to this department than to the investment program. John spent many hours in my office after the closing business of the day, planning for and working for the wills program, and also traveled hundreds of miles making and supporting it in any way he could.

When Mr. Dozier left, the nominating committee came to me and asked me about a successor. I told them I saw only one man for this hour, and that was our vice president, Sidney Gulledege. They talked with him, came back and told me that due to his heavy work load he felt he could not take on more at this time. I suggested they go back and ask him to reconsider, as the Foundation greatly needed his capable leadership and experience in handling investments, and that we would take care of all the clerical matters for him. I don't need to tell you how ably he has done this, and how deeply we are in his debt.

John Brauer moving to California was a great blow. He was a leader in the Wills program and gave so willingly of his time and resources. Let me parenthetically say—he has organized a Methodist Foundation with Gifts and Wills Department in the California-Nevada Conference. The treasurer of that Conference says his program is growing by leaps and bounds.

Mr. Lee Parker has so ably stepped into the place vacated by Dr. Brauer and is giving freely of his time to this program. While knowledge of wills cannot be made public, Mr. Parker is giving good account of himself.

Our Wills Dinners and meetings have always proved profitable. It is to be hoped that in the not too distant future an honor roll can be started of those who have made wills favoring the cause of Christ that may be made public.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Mayes, secretary of the department and my personal secretary, has given faithful and loyal service.

Every pastor and every layman should give this department full support, for gifts and wills are the only hope to sustain and promote the institutions, boards, and commissions. We cannot hope to do it from local church budgets and on Sunday collections. The Conferences that have tried it have lost their colleges or the schools remained small and struggling, as did their boards and agencies. Our Conference will be no different unless we promote our wills program.

My years here have been good years. The Conference has been most kind, and the ministry gracious.

F. OLEN HUNT, Director

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

The work of the conference director during the 1967-68 conference year began before the previous year's annual session in Goldsboro was concluded. Coverage at the Goldsboro session was outstanding and we are grateful to the press, radio and television for their cooperation.

A. During the past year, the director attended the Workshop on Public Relations and Methodist Information at Lake Junaluska, sponsored by the national commission, leading one of the sessions at the workshop.

B. We have provided publicity for a number of conference boards and agencies as requested during the year.

C. The conference director has also cooperated with the personally arranged contacts and interviews for the TRAFICO-produced "American Profile." The profiles of five laymen in the North Carolina Annual Conference plus a Negro physician have been shared with the national and world-wide audience of "Profile," which seeks to tell the story of the unusual un-ugly American. It is heard on almost 400 radio stations in the United States and is beamed overseas via the Voice of America.

D. The director has cooperated with the editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate in providing news coverage and pictures including the retirement of the conference treasurer, the Bishop's Confirmation Class, etc. With the help of the District Directors, we also planned for a salute to Bishop Paul Garber on his retirement with a special section of the Advocate on May 23.

E. The coverage by the director of General Conference was widely distributed. A total of 24 newspapers and 25 radio stations were given releases, reports or "beepers" from the conference in Dallas.

F. We are grateful to those directors in each district who publicized district events.

BILL QUICK, Conference Director

REPORT OF THE METHODIST STUDENT CENTER AT EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

A ministry of "Presence" to the Students, Faculty and Staff of East Carolina University through preaching, teaching and pastoral counseling.

Supported by the Methodist Church through the Women's Division of the Board of Missions, the Interconference Commission and Local Church Educational Specials.

PRESENT PROGRAM

Coffee House (Friday and Saturday) 8-12 pm

Varied Entertainment (Music, occasional poetry, movies)

Conversation (contact with students on the "fringe" of the Church)

Coffee (the equalizer)

Largest "one night" group—95—Average participation 40. Between five and six hundred students have enjoyed the relaxing atmosphere of the "Catacombs" which is located in the basement of the Student Center. When one layman was asked why he was serving in a church-sponsored coffeehouse. He said, "We simply want to be known to the students as people who accept them as they are."

Worship (Sunday) 10:30-12 noon

Mr. Hobbs, Students and Invited Guests, speaking. Lunch is served on the 1st Sunday of each Month. Over 80 different students have participated in this small group worship and have continued to express their appreciation for this ministry.

Largest Sunday Morning Group 39—Average Participation 20

Supper—Conversation Groups

A number of students have participated in the Monday evening fellowship which is followed by a warm home cooked meal. Discussion follows ranging in topics from "Student-Faculty Relationships" to "Urban-Renewal" in the city of Greenville. This program is coordinated with Canterbury and the Episcopal Campus Minister.

"Student-Faculty Relationships" to "Urban-Renewal" in the city of Greenville.

This program is coordinated with Canterbury and the Episcopal Campus Minister.

United Campus Ministry

The Wesley Foundation, while not organizationally connected with the other denominational groups is working cooperatively toward providing a more effective program on the campus. The campus ministers meet weekly together to plan student-faculty gatherings, study groups and are presently sponsoring a Fine Arts Seminar to New York City. Two workshops were held this year for parish ministers in Eastern North Carolina utilizing University personnel and resources.

I might add that this has been the most productive year for our Wesley Foundation program since my appointment to this ministry. The Student Center Building is being used more by students and faculty for worship and fellowship and those students who are more than casually involved attest to the value of this ministry through their enthusiasm and actions. As one minister noted just recently, "It's difficult to find a vacant room these days in the Methodist Student Center." Many thanks to those who are making this ministry possible—the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Interconference Commission and most especially, the local church.

REPORT OF MINIMUM SALARY COMMISSION

I.

The Minimum Salary Commission recommends for the conference year 1968-1969 that the minimum salaries of our ministers who are serving pastoral appointments on a full-time basis be as follows:

Single Ministers

First year in Conference	$3,800.00
Second year in Conference	3,900.00
Third year in Conference	4,000.00
Fourth year in Conference	4,100.00
Fifth or more years in Conference	4,300.00

Married Ministers

First year in Conference	$4,100.00
Second year in Conference	4,200.00

Third year in Conference	4,300.00
Fourth year in Conference	4,400.00
Fifth or more years in Conference	4,600.00

Married Ministers with One or more Dependent Children

First year in Conference	$4,600.00
Second year in Conference	4,700.00
Third year in Conference	4,800.00
Fourth year in Conference	4,900.00
Fifth or more years in Conference	5,100.00

The Commission recommends that all student ministers serving appointments in our Conference shall be eligible for the following Minimum Salary support:

Single	$3,100.00 plus travel*
Married	3,300.00 plus travel*
Married with one child	3,600.00 plus travel*
Married with two or more children	3,800.00 plus travel*

Undergraduate students already under appointment may continue to receive the same level of salary support as is currently being provided in keeping with the level of 1965-1966, until they receive their A.B. degrees, or its equivalent, or they may receive support in keeping with the new schedule for student ministers, whichever is greater.

A further exception will be made for student ministers attending other approved seminaries. Additional assistance may be provided, up to a maximum of $500.00, dependent upon the personal needs of such student ministers.

When a student pastor graduates either from college or Divinity School and begins to serve as a full-time minister, his minimum salary shall be equal to the requirements of his new status and will be paid him from the first day of the first full month served full time.

The Commission recommends that retired ministers, serving as Retired Supplies, and receiving Minimum Salary assistance, may receive up to $3,000.00, including travel and utilities, regardless of the amount of their pensions.

The Commission also recommends that a maximum of $6,000.00 be permitted during 1968-1969 for Special—church situations, any support above minimum salary levels to be provided by the Duke Foundation and/or the Board of Missions.

II.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE USE OF MINIMUM SALARY FUNDS

The Commission urges each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds, its minister, and district superintendent so to administer the affairs of the charge that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support.

To enable the conference, the commission, and the superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned the following principles and procedures are set forth:

AID TO CHARGES

1. All requests for financial assistance on pastors' salaries for the succeeding year shall be presented by the district superintendent to the secretary of the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting.

2. Minimum Salary aid provided by the conference shall not be used to raise the salary above the minimum set by the conference.

3. The family or marital status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge shall govern the amount paid the minister for the entire conference year.

4. In considering the salary for a charge, we call attention to the fact that the Commission on Minimum Salary must count salary, travel, utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances as salary in making appropriations to the charge.

*Travel allowance is based on the distance of student's parsonage from the school he attends. When the parsonage is 25 miles or less, it shall be $100.00; when the parsonage is more than 25 miles but less than 50 miles, it shall be $200.00; when the parsonage is more than 50 miles but less than 75 miles, it shall be $300.00; when the parsonage is more than 75 miles but less than 100 miles, it shall be $400.00; and when the parsonage is 100 miles or more from school, $500.00 shall be a maximum travel allowance.

a. We stress the importance of reporting all such contributions, so that all ministers involved may be treated alike.

DIVIDING CHARGES

5. The Commission on Minimum Salary suggests that, as a general practice, no appointments be made with a membership of less than 200, if the charge is to expect Minimum Salary support.

a. Divisions of circuits should be on the basis of mutual agreement by all churches on the circuit rather than simply from the desire of the larger church to withdraw for its own benefit and advancement.

b. If a new charge is to be served by a student pastor, that fact should be given the charge before it agrees to its new status.

6. When the division of a charge is considered necessary and minimum salary is to be requested for either of the new charges resulting from such division, such project shall be presented to the secretary of the Commission on Minimum Salary not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting, so that a satisfactory evaluation can be made by the Commission. Without its approval the Commission shall not be obligated to provide minimum salary support for either of the churches resulting from such division.

7. In the division of circuits where one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of World Service and Benevolences.

a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay 80% of pastoral support, and its share of World Service and Benevolences.

b. The Commission on Minimum Salary further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive Minimum Salary aid, shall make every reasonable effort to reduce this aid by 20% each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The district superintendents are to inform all charges receiving, or to receive aid in the future, of this regulation. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be served by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall pay 80% of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree to reduce the aid by 20% each year.

d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the student appointment must pay 80% of said salary.

A NEW CHURCH AS A CHARGE

8. When a new church is to be established and becomes a new charge, the district superintendent shall present for study the complete details of the proposed project not later than five days after the May Cabinet meeting. These details shall be presented to both the Conference Board of Missions and the Commission on Minimum Salary. If such new church is approved by the Board and Commission, the Commission shall provide Minimum Salary assistance and the Board shall supplement the salary to make it adequate, and shall assist the new charge in providing living quarters for the minister and a place to meet and worship. It shall be understood that each year the new charge shall accept more of the budget until it becomes self-supporting. We require that each new church shall become self-supporting in a period of ten years or less, or assume circuit status.

a. Exception will be made if charge has made reasonable effort to become self-supporting and is willing and able to increase salary at least $300.00 annually, increase its World Service proportionately, and reach full support within five more years.

III.

RESOLUTION ON INCREASING SALARIES OF MINISTERS IN THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Whereas, the North Carolina Annual Conference has been reported by the General Board of Pensions as having one of the lowest "average salaries," as defined in the 1964 Discipline in The Methodist Church; and

Whereas, the North Carolina Conference has one of the lower Minimum Salaries of the Annual Conferences in The Methodist Church; and

Whereas, the North Carolina Conference has the lowest "average salary," the lowest minimum salary, and the lowest cash income per minister when compared with the South Carolina Annual Conference, the Western North Carolina Annual Conference, and the Virginia Annual Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that:

1. The North Carolina Annual Conference, meeting in Fayetteville on June 4-7, 1968, requests the Commission on Minimum Salary in cooperation with the bishop and the district superintendents to study all possibilities for increasing the salaries of ministers, and especially student ministers, and to prepare a brochure showing why salaries need to be increased in the North Carolina Conference.

2. The North Carolina Annual Conference requests the Commission in cooperation with the Cabinet to use this brochure for promoting discussion of this problem in every local church in the Conference.

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

Report No. 1

GENERAL STATEMENT

Our Board is composed of twenty-one of our most consecrated ministers. These men give freely of their time to guide young men to become active and effective ministers of our Church. We are grateful for the splendid cooperation they have given and the generous amount of time spent in this work. We especially wish to commend our two faithful registrars, Reverend Ben F. Musser and Reverend Christian White who have rendered untiring service for the Board.

We were saddened last summer by the sudden passing of the Reverend Robert W. Bradshaw, one of the faithful and devoted members of our Board. We greatly miss his wise counsel, gentle spirit, and Christian witness which were an inspiration to all of us. The confidence he inspired in young ministers challenged them to do their best for Christ and His Kingdom.

Proposals to the General Conference concerning the ministry, if adopted by the body, will serve to coordinate the total work of the Board of the Ministry. New term would be used and an associate membership established which would lend more prestige to the ministerial office.

Courses of Study School

The Board supervises the Approved Supply Pastor in his course of study. Our conference has 150 of these men who are required by the Discipline to take four-year studies in the summer Pastors' School at Duke or elsewhere. The 20th Session of the Duke School will be held from July 8 through August 8, 1968. Scholarship aid of $100.00 is available from our conference for each man who attends the four weeks and $50.00 for "License to Preach" or "Introductory Studies" which covers a two week period. Under unusual circumstances this work may be taken by correspondence but only when authorized by the Conference Board. Only one year's work may be taken per year.

Spring Meetings

The Spring Meetings for interviewing candidates will be held at St. Paul Church, Goldsboro, March 24, and 25, 1969, beginning at 9:00 a.m.; and one day at Duke Memorial Church, Durham, March 26, 1969, beginning at 9:00 a.m. and concluding at 3:00 p.m.

Recommendations

1. That no one be appointed to serve a charge who has not completed the "Studies or License to Preach." Such a person cannot legally perform the ministerial duties to his members such as matrimony, nor administer the Sacraments. The course of study must be taken through a Correspondence Department of Ministerial Education at Nashville, or at the Duke Pastors' School.

2. Those who wish to continue to hold their Local Preachers License are required by the Discipline to complete a minimum of one-half year of the course of study each year (Par. 307.2). When this is not done, he loses his local preachers license and must start over again by taking the course on License to Preach, using the current study course. A maximum of twelve years is allowed him to complete the Introductory studies and the four-year studies. District Committees on the Ministry are urged to closely supervise this work.

3. Part-time Approved Supply Pastors are required to complete a minimum of one-half year of the course of study each year until all four years are completed (Par. 318).

4. May 18, 1969 will be Ministry Sunday in the United Methodist Church. Every pastor is expected "to preach on the meaning of Christian Vocation and the call and challenge of the ministry and other types of full-time church work, and to advise with youth, students, and young adults about their educational and vocational plans." Let every pastor take the lead here. The crying need is for more persons to man our pulpits who are adequately trained to meet the challenge of this critical hour.

5. All pastors who are new to the North Carolina Conference are required to attend the Orientation Workshop which is held early in July of each year. This workshop is free and provides a new minister a wonderful opportunity to learn the North Carolina Conference program.

6. The Manual for Pastoral Relations Committees is excellent and should be used by all churches in our conference.

The One Percent Ministerial Educational Plan

We heartily recommend the continuation of the One Percent Educational Plan and insist that this item be included in the local church annual budget. Many of our men are being assisted by this fund and others need such aid.

BEN F. MUSSER, Registrar

Report No. 2

THE ONE PERCENT PLAN OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

(NOTE: By action of the 1968 General Conference, the present One Per Cent Plan herein set forth below, remains in effect until 1970 only.)

Article I

AUTHORIZATION FOR THE PLAN

The Southeastern Jurisdiction Conference in session at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, on July 15, 1960, adopted a resolution implementing the Ministerial Education legislation of the General Conference. (See 1960 Discipline, paragraph 670.2).

Article II

NAME

This plan for ministerial education shall be called the One Percent Plan, and otherwise known as the Southeastern Jurisdictional Fund for Ministerial Education.

Article III

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. The Conference Ministerial Scholarship Fund Committee

The North Carolina Conference portion of the One Percent Plan shall be administered by a Conference Ministerial Scholarship Fund Committee (hereinafter called the Committee). This Committee shall function as a committee of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. The chairman of the committee must be a minister, who shall be an ex officio member of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Section 2. Membership of the Committee

The Committee shall consist of two ministers in full-connection in the North Carolina Conference, one of whom shall be chairman; and two laymen, nominated by the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. In addition to these elective members, the chairman and the registrar(s) of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Duke Divinity School shall be ex-officio members with voting privileges.

The chairman shall serve as chairman for the quadrennium. The nominations of the chairman and the members of the Committee shall be subject to election at the Annual Conference. The chairman and the registrars from the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall serve on the Committee as long as they hold their respective positions on the Board. The elective members are to be staggered in their terms of service so that half rotate off the Committee at the end of each quadrennium.

At the beginning of the quadrennium the chairman shall convene the Committee. The Committee shall then select a vice-chairman. Should the chairman of the Committee vacate his office either by resignation, or by rotation, or by death, the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall select another chairman to serve until the following Annual Conference. The vacation of the office by the vice-chairman or registrar shall be filled by the Committee from among its members. After the system of rotation has been established, each member shall serve a maximum of eight years, and the system of rotation shall continue permanently.

Section 4. Duties of the officers

a. The chairman shall preside over the Committee during its regular and called meetings. He shall perform all those duties that usually pertain to the office of chairman.

b. The vice-chairman shall preside during the absence of the chairman, provided that if he should be a layman, he shall not succeed to the office of chairman, nor shall he serve as the ex officio member of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

c. The registrar of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall be the regular secretary for the Committee and shall perform all those duties that usually pertain to said office. The records, payments, and collections that will be involved in this scholarship program shall be handled through the office of the chairman of the Committee. All monies in this scholarship program shall be handled by the Conference Treasurer, to be disbursed upon requisition by the Committee chairman.

Article IV

FINANCES

Section 1. Income

The Commission on World Service and Finance shall continue the policy of financial aid to the scholarship program of our Conference by promoting the voluntary support of the local churches in this program. The churches shall be urged to contribute each year an amount equal to one percent of the total operational budget, exclusive of building funds, capital expenditures, and special offerings adopted by the Conference, and Advance Specials.

Section 2. Division of Income

One-half of this fund shall be divided by the Conference Treasurer between Candler School of Theology and Duke Divinity School, as recommended by the Jurisdictional Conference. The other half of this fund shall remain in the hands of the Conference Treasurer, and be administered by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications through the Committee.

Section 3. Administrative Costs

The annual administrative costs of the student scholarship program shall be paid out of the funds received by the Conference Treasurer for the student scholarship fund.

Article V

GRANTING OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Section 1. Screening of Applicants

The Scholarship Committee shall meet twice a year—prior to or during Annual Conference and again in the fall, preferably the same time as the Cabinet meets—to process applications received by the chairman and/or the registrar of the Committee. These applications shall be made by the use of a formal application form supplied by the Committee. Following the study of the applications and an interview with each applicant, the Committee shall make its decisions.

The decisions of the Committee shall be final, provided that it may request the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to give counsel concerning any applicant, and provided further that the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall determine the eligibility of any applicant as regards his status in the Conference and in the traveling ministry.

Section 2. Eligibility

The North Carolina Conference Scholarship Fund shall be available to Methodist students who have evidenced their desire to become Methodist ministers under appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and have been approved by the District Committee to obtain their Local Preacher's Licenses, and are enrolled in one of the colleges affiliated with the Methodist Church. Students who are already enrolled in and are attending a school not affiliated with the Methodist Church, who during their college careers decide to enter the ministry, may be considered as special cases by the Committee.

The applicant for such scholarship aid must be recommended by the pastor of his church and his district superintendent, provided that if he is already in college or seminary at the time of his application, he must also have a recommendation from one of the representatives of the Department of Religion of the institution where he is enrolled; provided further, that if the applicant is attending a state or private institution where there is no Department of Religion, he shall obtain a recommendation from either the Director of the Wesley Foundation at the school, or from the pastor of the church which he attends while he is at such a school.

Approved supply pastors, serving appointments paying the minimum salary, who wish to pursue studies leading to the A.B. or B.D. degrees, or both, may apply for a service loan subject to the same rules, regulations, and restrictions as shown in section three (3).

Section 3. Restrictions

a. Applicants for service loans shall be students with financial need who are enrolled in colleges or universities, or seminaries approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and pursuing such studies as will lead eventually to Conference membership. The intensity of this need shall be indicated in the financial section of the application form, and discussed in an interview with the Committee.

b. Service loans are not to be considered as salary supplements. They are loans to be secured by a duly executed note and subject to repayment, as per sections six (6) and seven (7).

Section 4. Student Requirements

It shall be required that a student have at least a "C" average at the time of his original application. Thereafter, he must maintain at least a "C" average in order to be eligible for the renewal of his scholarship loan for the succeeding year. The Committee shall proceed in close cooperation with the colleges and theological schools wherein the Ministerial Scholarship students are enrolled.

Section 5. Amount of Individual Loan

The amount of each individual loan to any applicant shall be determined by the Committee on the basis of the merits of each case.

Section 6. Securing the Loan

Any loan granted under this scholarship fund shall be secured by a student loan agreement prepared by the Scholarship Committee, stating clearly the terms of the scholarship loan, properly signed and dated by the applicant, and witnessed by the finance officer of the school which he attends.

Section 7. Repayment of the Loan

Those who receive their B.D. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited theological school, or Approved Pastor's School, may repay the loan in service under appointment in the North Carolina Conference. For each year of full-time service in the North Carolina Conference $200 and the interest thereon shall be considered repaid, with the further provision that a maximum of six (6) years' full-time uninterrupted service in the North Carolina Conference shall repay all monies, including interest, received by the individual from the scholarship fund. If a student for some reason does not continue in the Methodist ministry, or if he shall take appointment in some Conference other than the North Carolina Conference, or if he does not receive the B.D. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited seminary or accredited Pastor's School, the note or notes shall be repaid in full, including interest, on a cash basis. Such a cash obligation shall be met in annual payments of not less than $200 a year, including interest, and shall be paid in full by the end of an eight-year period beginning with the first year after he terminates his formal schooling. The rate of interest shall be three percent (3%) per annum. If a scholarship recipient should serve in the North Carolina Conference long enough to repay in service only a part of his total grant that part not repaid in service shall be repaid in cash, in keeping with the terms stated above, beginning with the year of termination of his service in this Conference.

Article VIGUIDANCE FOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Committee shall keep in close contact with all students receiving scholarship aid. Students may be requested to meet the Committee annually at a place and date designated by the Committee. Further, a student receiving scholarship aid shall report for counseling to his pastor and the district superintendent also at least once annually. The pastor and the district superintendent shall report in writing to the Committee the results of this period of counseling.

Article VIIPERSONNEL

The following persons have been nominated for the elective positions and the term of service on the Committee:

Ministers: W. M. Howard, term to expire 1968; H. S. Garriss, term to expire 1972

Laymen: Cliff Edwards, term to expire 1968; Roy Turnage, term to expire 1972.

The Chairman of the Committee for this quadrennium is H. S. Garriss.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The North Carolina Conference Board of Missions believes that mission is not a special function of a part of the church. Rather, it is the whole church in action. Mission is the body of Christ expressing Christ's concern for the whole world. It is local and it is world-wide. It is God's people seeking to make all men members of the people of God. In fact, mission is the function for which the church exists. Peter said to the church, "You are . . . God's own people." We are God's people for one specific purpose: "that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." (I Peter 2:9). To receive God's kindness, in being made a member of his people, lays upon each and every one the obligation to declare that kindness so that others, too, may become his people.

In order to fulfill this concept of mission, the North Carolina Conference Board of Missions has been at work in many areas. This report is a partial summary of what has been done, and a projection of what we hope to do in the months immediately ahead. Included are also certain requests and words of appreciation.

APPRECIATION

Our appreciation is extended to Bishop Paul N. Garber for his continued support of the Board of Missions during his tenure as our bishop. Bishop Garber has been an inspiration to the programs and activities of the Board of Missions. We thank God for his presence with us, and as he leaves as our leader, we pray God's continued presence with him and Mrs. Garber.

The Board of Missions would like to express its appreciation to Dr. T. Marvin Vick, Jr., who for eight years was president of the Board. Under Dr. Vick's leadership, the Board of Missions made significant advancements in all the areas of its concern and outreach. We are fortunate to have had his guidance for this period of time.

GENERAL REPORTS

Church Extension

The Board of Missions, North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, Inc., was chartered by the State of North Carolina to facilitate the expansion of Church Extension within the bounds of the Conference.

The Board of Missions, Incorporated, has $794,283.54 in a revolving fund for the purpose of helping those churches which cannot secure local loans and to help churches to secure construction loans until their money from the General Board becomes available. We are finding it more difficult for churches to borrow money since the interest rate has been raised. Last year a total of fifteen churches received loans from our revolving fund and a total of six churches received construction loans. This revolving fund has been of crucial importance for many of our small churches.

During the past year your Board of Missions has secured one site for a church, which is located in the new development created by Weyerhaeuser Corporation in Jacksonville, North Carolina.

Ten Dollar Club

Since March, 1954, we have helped to build 71 new churches through the Ten Dollar Club. There are today 18 churches waiting to receive help from the Ten Dollar Club. We have paid through the Ten Dollar Club the total amount of $1,045,539.51. These 71 churches today are valued at $6,317,309.00. We desperately need new members for the Ten Dollar Club, if we are to keep the pace with the population growth in our Conference. Since our last report, we have helped the following churches to build their first units:-

July, 1967—Call no. 41—St. Andrews Methodist Church, Raleigh	$17,000.00
Nov., 1967—Call No. 42—St. Luke Methodist Church, Laurinburg	17,000.00
March, 1968, Call No. 43—Westview Methodist Church, Harrells Charge, Wilmington District	17,000.00
Total	<hr/> $51,000.00

On September 15 of each year the Ten Dollar Club Committee meets to approve churches to be helped by the Ten Dollar Club aid for the ensuing year. Church Extension Sunday will be held February 16, 1969. Our goal is at least one new member per church throughout the Conference.

Aid to Churches

The Board has endeavored to help churches through construction loans, through grants, and has assisted them in securing aid from the Rural Fund of the Duke Endowment. When a church loan becomes $20,000.00 or more, we help to secure the loan from the National Division of the Board of Missions. We have helped churches secure loans in building parsonages and through our grant and aid program have made outright gifts to many of these churches.

Parsonage aid in the form of rental allowance cannot be given for longer than five years, and this must be reduced on a graduated scale. In cooperation with the Commission on Town and Country Work and the Woman's Society of Christian Service a brochure entitled "A Guide for Building, Furnishing, and Maintaining Parsonages" has been compiled for the convenience of those interested in building parsonages. Free copies of this may be secured from 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Urban Life

During the 1967-1968 conference year, the Urban Life Committee held a two-day conference on "North Carolina's Newest Frontier." The purpose of the conference was to bring those in attendance to an understanding of North Carolina's rapid urbanization. It was a pilot project, and a very rewarding one. One of the real emphases within the new quadrennium must be in the urban work field. We recommend that this committee be continued.

Committee on Mission Studies and Cultivation

The aim of this committee is to provide local churches across the conference with materials to involve their congregations in meaningful mission study. The Conference School of Mission is our chief instrument and last fall a total of 529 persons attended weekend and weekday sessions of the school. Plans were formulated for Mission Study conferences in each district and 1,324 attended these sessions. We hope for broad response in local churches. This year's studies have included Ecumenism, Christ and the Faiths of Men, Japan, and Man and Community.

The Conference School of Christian Mission will be held this year at Methodist College, August 3-8. The weekend school will be August 3-4; the week of study, August 4-8. Themes for this year are New Forms of Mission, Southeast Asia, and the Gospel of John. Registration is open to any interested person.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND REQUESTS

World Missions

If the church is to fulfill its purpose in the world, it must be very sensitive to the calls for help that come to it from all places in the world. How desperate and how pitiful are the calls that come to the church from all areas of our world today! God's people are sick, hungry, cold, and ignorant; they are oppressed, persecuted, frightened, and hopeless. To help meet the cries of these people, your North Carolina Conference Board of Missions pleads with the churches in our Conference to respond to the cries for help through our Advance Special program, by assuming projects in each of the areas of outreach: World Missions, National Missions, Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief, and Conference Specials. This is one way in which we can "declare the wonderful deeds of Him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."

Duke Pastors' School

The Board of Missions submits the following as members of the Duke Pastors' School Board of Managers. The terms of those elected are to expire on the dates listed immediately following their names. Dr. James I. Warren, 1970; Rev. J. H. Miller, Jr., 1970; Rev. E. C. Shoaf, 1972; Rev. A. F. Fisher, 1972; Rev. L. C. Vereen, 1974; Rev. F. O. Fitzgerald, Jr., 1974.

District Missionary Secretaries

We express our abiding gratitude to the District Secretaries for the support given in leading our local churches to a larger vision of the world-wide mission of the church. They have given time, energy, and leadership in the total program of the Conference Board. In order that our District Missionary Secretaries may be better informed, it is the plan of the North Carolina Conference Board to send the District Missionary Secretaries to our New York offices during the 1968-1969 conference year where they may meet the staff members of the General Board of Missions, and learn first-hand what the church is doing. It is the feeling of the Board that this experience will be more valuable than any other training we could offer them.

Executive Secretary

We recognize and do express our gratitude to the Reverend Mr. L. C. Vereen, executive secretary of the Board of Missions, for his enthusiastic and efficient execution of the total program of the Board. Mr. Vereen has maintained the high quality of leadership which the Board of Missions has had in its executive secretaries. We recommend his reappointment as secretary of the North Carolina Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension for the ensuing year.

REPORT OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The annual North Carolina Pastors' School and Convocation was conducted at Duke University, October 30-November 1, 1967.

Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr., was the speaker at the opening session of the School when he presented the message at The Bishop's Hour. Bishop James K. Matthews was the Gray Lecturer and Dr. David H. C. Read was the Convocation Preacher. The Pastor's School Lecturer was Dr. Hans J. Hilderbrand and Dr. E. E. Wiley, Jr., was the Alumni Lecturer. Bishop Earl Hunt, Jr., was the speaker at the Alumni Luncheon. The Introductory Seminars were led by Dr. Charles K. Robinson, Dr. Harmon Smith, Dr. Delford Stickel and Dr. Donald Williamson.

Several members of the Divinity School Faculty gave substantial leadership in the entire program as did the Divinity School Choir in providing special music for the Chapel services. Ministers from the North Carolina, North Carolina-Virginia and Western North Carolina Conferences contributed in several parts of the program.

The Board of Managers of the School has given consideration to plans by which it is hoped the program may be made more attractive in 1968 than has been the case before. These changes will be announced along with other details of the program in the early fall of 1968. The Pastors' School and Convocation is scheduled for October 28-30, 1968.

Appreciation is expressed to agencies of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences which out of interest in the total program make financial contributions annually to its continuance.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGE STANDARDS

There has been an increasing number of requests for the brochure on Parsonage Standards, prepared in 1961, by the Conference Committee on Parsonage Standards. Copies are still available, free of charge, by writing to the Board of Missions and Church Extension, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

Another booklet which proves valuable to those planning to build a parsonage is entitled "Parsonage Planning" and may be obtained at the cost of $1.00 from Division of National Missions of The Methodist Church, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. Along with other vital information this booklet contains suggested floor plans. However, working plans are not available, but this book lists firms which you may contact if you find one which satisfies your needs.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report No. 1

SECTION A

The Board of Pensions is entrusted with the responsibility of providing pensions for our retired ministers, widows of ministers, and dependent children of ministers. To accomplish this responsibility the Board also has the duty to determine the service for which pension credit is to be given, make the apportionments to the charges for the pension fund, and recommend any other policies which contribute to the financial security of those for which we feel a responsibility. Therefore, we submit the following report to the annual conference in session, June, 1968.

Category	Total Enrolled	Total Service Years	Claimants Paid to	Rate Per Year
Ministers	88	2,615.00	$66.00	$172,590.00
Widows	94	2,475.00	46.20	114,345.00
Dependent Children	17	238.25	16.50	3,931.00
Special Claimants	6	98.50	66.00	6,501.00
Widows	4	43.25	46.20	1,998.00
Additional Claimants	3	30.00		1,194.00
Total	212	5,500.00		$300,559.00

Ministers	25	180.75	$66.00	$ 11,929.00
Widows	25	163.00	46.20	7,531.00
Dependent Children	9	19.00	16.50	314.00

Total	59	362.75		$ 19,774.00
-------	----	--------	--	--------------

Total to be paid out in pensions $320,333.00

Paid in Blue Cross Hospital Premiums 23,054.00

Board Expenses 2,200.00

Grand Total of Expenditures $345,587.00

To meet these obligations the following income is available:

Raise by charges making payments on Claimants Fund $332,910.00

Appropriation from Conference Trustees 7,000.00

Special Gift from Methodist Publishing House 9,000.00

Total $348,910.00

Probable balance at end of 1968-1969 $ 3,323.00

1. Under the Single Figure Apportionment, The Board of Pensions requested from World Service and Finance Commission an apportionment of $366,224.00 or an appropriation on each charge of 14.31 per cent of Total Money Raised under the Single Figure Askings. World Service and Finance has approved this request.

2. We recommend the annuity rate per service year for retired ministers and for eligible retired Approved Supply ministers be $66.00.

3. We recommend special appropriations as follows: Miss Nannie Pattishall, an amount equal to a dependent child's annuity for 28 year's service; Mrs. J. W. Smith: $600.00; James E. Mahoney, one year's service credit: $66.00; and O. E. Hall, one year's service credit of $66.00.

SECTION E

THE MINISTER AND SOCIAL SECURITY

1. The Social Security Law was amended in 1967 regarding the coverage for ministers. We quote the amendment:

"IF YOU ARE A CLERGYMAN WHO DID NOT ELECT SOCIAL SECURITY COVERAGE UNDER THE OLD LAW, YOUR INCOME FROM THE MINISTRY WILL NOW BE COVERED UNLESS YOU APPLY FOR EXEMPTION AND STATE THAT YOU ARE OPPOSED TO COVERAGE BY REASON OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLES OR CONSCIENCE.

Until the 1967 change in the law, income from the ministry was not covered by social security unless the clergyman signed a form stating that he wanted it to be covered. Clergyman who elected coverage under the earlier law will not be affected by the new provisions. They will continue to be covered.

For taxable years ending after December 1967, income from the ministry will automatically be covered unless the clergyman files an application for exemption, stating that he is opposed to receiving social security benefits (or other public insurance), based on services as a clergyman, by reason of religious principles or conscience.

As under the old law, a clergyman reports his income and makes his tax contributions as if he were self-employed, even though he may be working as an employee.

A clergyman who wishes to be exempted may complete Form 4361 and file it with the Internal Revenue Service. This form may be secured at any office of the Social Security Administration or of the Internal Revenue Service.

In general, a clergyman who entered the ministry in 1968 or earlier has until April 15, 1970 to file the form.

The new provision does not affect members of religious orders who have taken a vow of poverty. As before, they are not covered by social security." From S. S. I. Pamphlet No. 1967-1.

2. The General Board of Pensions has issued the following statement regarding the new amendments to the Social Security laws:

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF NEW SOCIAL SECURITY COVERAGE PROVISIONS WITH RESPECT TO MINISTERS

The Social Security Amendments of 1967 significantly changed the coverage provisions of the Social Security program (Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance and Hospital Insurance) as they relate to ministers: In brief, the situation is completely reversed. Under previous law, each minister had the right to elect individually (on an irrevocable basis, within a certain prescribed time) whether he wanted to be covered, whereas now all ministers are compulsorily covered unless they irrevocably elect within a certain period to be exempted on grounds of conscientious opposition or religious principles (i.e.: objection to any public insurance that provides benefits, such as those of the Social Security program). The term "minister" is used to include also missionaries and members of religious orders (other than those who have taken a vow of poverty). As before, coverage is on the self-employment basis.

Under the new basis, compulsory coverage begins with 1968. In order to obtain exemption, the minister must file an application therefor by April 15, 1970 (except that those who do not have net earnings from self-employment income, including some from the ministry, in both 1968 and 1969 do not have to file for exemption until April 15th following the second year after 1967 in which they have such earnings — primarily applicable to ministers ordained in the future. Quite naturally, any minister who had filed a waiver so as to obtain coverage under the provisions of previous law is not allowed to file an exemption because, obviously, he had not been opposed to public insurance.

Let us consider specifically how this provision operates for present ministers who are not covered under Social Security (since they did not previously file a waiver). If such an individual does not file an exemption by April 15, 1970, he will be liable for the self-employment tax for both 1968 and 1969 and for all future years. Even if he files the exemption after April 15, 1969, he will not have to pay the 1968 tax which he would have to otherwise declare on his 1968 income tax return that he had filed by April 15, 1969 (or he could get it refunded if he had paid it). A minister who presently is still eligible to file a waiver under the conditions of the previous law (essentially, only recently ordained ministers) can still do so and obtain the resulting coverage for years before 1968.

The important change brought about by this amendment is that now ministers can opt out of the Social Security system only on grounds of religious convictions or religious principles — and not on personal, political, or economic grounds. This seems equitable in relation to the situation for laymen who cannot opt out of the program for the latter reasons; and, therefore, it follows out more closely the original intent to exempt ministers only when the "separation of Church and State" principle is thought to be involved.

SECTION F

INSURANCE

1. Hospital Insurance: We recommend that the Board of Pensions continue to provide hospital insurance to our claimants. The policy for those claimants over 65 provides supplementary coverage with Medicare. We are pleased to announce that the rates have been reduced from $6.50 per claimant each month to $5.50 per claimant each month. For those claimants under 65 the Board of Pensions has provided insurance coverage comparable to the policy enforced by Blue Cross for our effective ministers. Our Board has studied the protection offered under the present plan of $15.00 room allowance, and we feel that this is inadequate with the continuing increased cost of medical treatment. Therefore, we recommend that for those claimants under 65 the coverage be increased to $25.00 per day room allowance, and medical payments on the basis of $12.00 the first day, $8.00 the second day, and $4.00 thereafter.

2. Group Term Life Insurance: The Group Term Life Insurance program offered last Annual Conference received a favorable response when offered to the Quarterly Conferences by the district superintendents. Throughout the Conference there were 57 men serving appointments who were not eligible; 31 ministers rejected the insurance and signed waivers to that effect; 460 are enrolled (which is 93.7 per cent). The insurance went into effect January 1, 1968. We recommend that the Group Term Life Insurance program be continued. We recommend that under the Single Figure Apportionment, an amount of $85.68 be added to each charge Single Figure Apportionment for premiums for Group Term Life Insurance. We are sorry to report that one claim for a dependent child for $100.00 has been paid thus far.

SECTION G

ADJUSTED RECORDS FOR ANNUITY CREDIT

We recommend that the following persons' pensions be adjusted so as to give pension credit for the service indicated:

Henry A. Bizzell, Jr.: three fourths year Approved Supply Service 1948-1949
Robert F. McKee: pension credit for service while teaching at Louisburg College 1952-1953

Albert F. Fisher: one half year Approved Supply Service 1954

James E. Smith: three years Approved Supply Service 1957-1960

Norwood L. Jones: one year service 1950

John M. Cline: one half year Approved Supply Credit 1946

Wesley G. Brogan: was appointed "Student" at last Conference. Therefore, he is to receive pension credit without the Board of Education making payment of $768.00. As payment was made, The Board will make the refund.

We recommend that Carl Calloway be given one half year credit for the Conference year 1967-1968, since his ministry in this conference was discontinued in January, 1968.

We recommend that J. B. Eskridge not be given credit for 1967-1968 for his appointment "Student" as he was not enrolled in school.

We recommend that D. D. Holt be given four years credit for the service he gave while serving as Executive Director of the Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, 1951-1955.

We recommend J. W. Scott be given one half year credit for 1967-1968 as he served in a capacity "without annuity credit upon the Conference" for part of the year.

We recommend that William A. Ruth be given pension credit for 1967-1968, as he was under episcopal appointment in this Conference. This corrects the Board of Pension report in the Journal which recommends he be appointed without annuity claim upon the Conference.

We recommend that the pension claim of Mrs. Gordon Casey, widow of Rev. H. H. Chester, be reinstated, she, having reached the age of 65 (see paragraph 1620.3 of the 1964 Discipline.) Claim is to be based on 27½ years of service.

We recommend Mrs. Hugh W. Prince, widow of the late Rev. O. W. Dowd, be reinstated for pension, with payment to be made on rate of 26.50 years of service.

SECTION H

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Average salary for Conference, 1966-1967: We report that the average salary for last year, as computed by the General Board of Pensions: $5,517.00.

2. We recommend that the expenses of the members of the Board of Pensions, the secretaries' expenses, and secretaries' honorarium of $900.00 be paid from current operating funds.

3. We recommend that those persons under episcopal appointment, Student, furnish a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Pensions, a statement of proof of enrollment before pension credit is approved.

4. We recommend that a Workshop for all claimants be held at the Methodist Building, June 21st, at 10:00 o'clock. At this time representatives from Blue Cross-Blue Shield, the Internal Revenue Service, State Revenue Service, and the Board of Pensions will be present to give information and to answer questions.

5. We recommend that Bishop Garber appoint as Ex Officio members to the Board of Pensions a cabinet representative.

6. We recommend that the Board of Hospitals and Homes elect a representative from that board to be an Ex Officio member of the Board of Pensions.

7. We recommend that a representative of the Board of Pensions become an Ex Officio member of the Board of Hospitals and Homes.

8. We recommend that Bishop Garber continue the committee appointed to study the Minister's Reserve Pension Plan. A. C. Edwards representing World Service and Finance Commission died before this committee's work was completed. We share with the entire Conference his loss. We request Bishop Garber to appoint a lay member from the Commission on World Service and Finance to complete the full committee.

9. With the plan of rotation of members which is in effect for the Board of Pensions, several of our members will terminate their service with this Board at this Conference. We of the Board of Pensions take this privilege to express our sincere appreciation for the loyal support, dedicated interest, and wise counsel we have received from the following members: Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, Seth B. Hollowell, Rev. A. L. Thompson, Willis Smith, Jr., Rev. John R. Poe, Claude G. Sommers, Rev. A. W. Lore, and Rev. L. A. Tilley.

REPORT NO. II

THE MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, THE METHODIST CHURCH

CONSTITUTION

This fund is intended to provide a single, lump sum benefit to be paid at the time of retirement of each member of the fund. The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors, and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer will obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each annual conference and pay to them promptly any benefit to which they are entitled.

Assessments: Each member shall pay into the fund one per cent (1%) of all money he receives each year from charge or conference sources (this includes salary, travel, and utility allowance, minimum salary fund payments, Duke Endowment, and missionary sources.)

Members transferring out of the North Carolina Conference or who may undertake work which does not entitle them to credit for service years in the conference pension plan and who wish to retain membership in the fund must pay into the fund 2% of their salaries and other income items received from church sources constituting a usual part of their annual income.

Beginning with the annual conference year 1968-1969 each charge in the conference shall be required to pay into the fund annually an amount equal to 1.12% of the charge total apportionment as determined in the Single-figure Askings apportionment.

Ministers who are members of the Ministers' Retirement Fund, and who are appointed to sabbatical leave; ministers who receive episcopal appointment student, and serve no charge, and ministers whose appointment is such that the salary received is indefinite or difficult to compute, these persons shall make an annual payment into the fund, an amount equal to 2% of the average salary of the annual conference, as determined by the report of the General Board of Pensions for the year or years affected. However, in the case of ministers appointed to sabbatical leave and those who are appointed as students, with no charge, when the ministers' salaries are below the average salary of the annual conference, they shall pay 2.12% of the new salary level of the charge they are leaving. These figures shall be supplied by the Board of Pensions by their respective district superintendents. In the event the district superintendent does not furnish the salary information, these persons shall pay on the basis of the average salary.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments: Each charge and each member of the fund shall submit the required payment no later than the last day of the month following the month in which the North Carolina Conference meets.

Benefits: Benefits shall be paid to members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If superannuated at the end of one year of membership	$ 200.00
If superannuated at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If superannuated at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If superannuated at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If superannuated at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If superannuated at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If superannuated at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If superannuated at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If superannuated at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If superannuated at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00

Dividends: Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members shall be divided in equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears. The total dividends of each member shall be paid to him at the time of his retirement or to his beneficiary in the event of his death prior to retirement.

Death Benefits: If a participating member dies while in the active service, the treasurer shall pay to his widow and/or other dependents the full amount of the basic benefit payment plus dividends to his credit.

Penalties: Upon superannuation or death of any member who has failed any year or years to contribute one per cent (1%) or 2% in any years in which he did not serve a charge, there shall be deducted from any benefits an amount equal to twice the amount he should have paid during the year or years he did not contribute. If any member of the fund fails to contribute the required per cent of his salary for more than a total of three years, consecutive or otherwise, he shall have no claim on this fund beyond the amount he has paid into the fund.

Eligibility for Membership: Each member on trial or in full connection who is serving a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, such work contributed to the minister's credit as years of service under the Conference Pension Plan shall be eligible to join. Membership is certainly in his best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. Ministers transferring into the Conference in full connection are eligible to join the fund in the years following the Conference in which their credentials are recognized. Eligible ministers may join the fund at any time although no member shall be eligible for dividend until he has been a member in good standing for ten years.

Approved Supply Pastors: Approved supply pastors may become participating members in this fund in the year following the Conference at which they are accepted as Approved Supply Pastors. The following conditions of membership apply to supply members:

1. If within five years of becoming a participating member, an approved supply is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus one-half the amount the charges he serves paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.

2. If an approved supply member has served five years but less than ten years since becoming a participating member and is not given work, he shall be paid the amount he has paid into the fund plus the total amount the charges he served paid into the fund during his years as pastor, and terminate his membership.

3. The provisions contained in this section shall apply only to those approved supply pastors giving full-time service to the ministry.

Investment of Funds: Funds paid in shall be processed and accounted for by the treasurer of the North Carolina Conference. He shall keep accounts to reflect: 1. Current Funds. 2. Members' Payments. 3. Dividend Funds. 4. Reserve Funds. All funds available for investment shall be invested at the discretion of the Commission on World Service and Finance of the Annual Conference in consultation with the officers of the Board of Pensions. The members' payments fund and the dividend fund, each fiscal year shall be in balance with the total of the credits to the accounts of individual members.

The members payments fund shall be set up by the transfer initially to said fund from the present reserve fund of an amount equal to the total members' payments. Interest income received hereafter shall be included with other funds available for dividends, except the present reserve fund shall be continued. It shall be set at 10 per cent of the members' payments and dividend fund combined as investment income permits. Adjustment shall be made annually at time of audit.

REPORT NO. III

THE REPORT OF THE JOINT DISTRIBUTING COMMITTEE TO THE NORTH CAROLINA-VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, AND VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCES

The Joint Distributing Committee, representing the several conferences concerned with the merger of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference with the North Carolina, Virginia, and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences, in accordance with the authority granted in paragraph 1609 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church presents herewith a report of an agreement by which the pension responsibility of North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference is allocated to the several successor Annual Conferences. This agreement is to be in full force and effect as of such date as the transfers of the churches of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference to the several successor Annual Conferences shall have been effected.

1. The pension responsibility of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference on account of years of approved service rendered prior to the date of transfer of ministerial members, probationers, and full-time approved supply pastors thereof, as approved by the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, is hereby accepted and approved for "annuity claim" by the successor Annual Conferences, in accordance with the following principles:

a. All approved service rendered while under appointment to a pastoral charge shall be accepted by the successor conference within whose geographical boundaries the charge is located.

b. Any approved service which was rendered while under appointment other than to a pastoral charge shall be accepted by the several Annual Conferences in proportion to the number of years of approved service rendered while under appointment to pastoral charges which will be distributed to such Annual Conference.

c. Any claim for supply service, which has not been approved and/or is not a part of the total distribution, shall be the responsibility of the conference in which is located the charge where such supply service was rendered.

d. Consecutive years of supply service in the North Carolina-Virginia Conference together with service in a successor conference shall be counted as consecutive years in ne conference for the purpose of qualifying such years for pension claims. (See 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church, paragraph 1631.)

2. Pension responsibility of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference on account of service rendered prior to the date of transfer shall be allocated by the Clearing House of the General Board of Pensions to the successor Annual Conferences in accordance with the principles set forth in paragraph 1 of this agreement.

3. The pension liability on account of years of approved service rendered to the transferred churches after the date of transfer shall be the responsibility of the successor Annual Conference in which such service is rendered; provided, however, that the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund conference contributions on behalf of all new entrants, who are participating in the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund, shall be continued through May 31, 1968, based on the North Carolina-Virginia Conference average salary and paid from the pension funds of that conference; and that the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund personal contributions continue to be payable by such ministers through May 31, 1968, on the same basis as for the period from June 1, 1967, to the date of merger.

4. During the period from the effective date of the merger through June 30, 1968, the annuities payable to all conference claimants of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall be paid by the General Board of Pensions on behalf of said conference from funds collected by the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference for that purpose based on the annuity rate determined by the North Carolina-Virginia Conference.

5. Beginning as of July 1, 1968, the annuities payable to conference claimants on account of the pension responsibility of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall be paid by the successor Annual Conferences.

6. The pension assets of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference remaining, after payments shall have been made, as authorized in Items 3 and 4 above, and as may be otherwise authorized by the North Carolina-Virginia Conference or by its Board of Pensions, shall be distributed to the successor conferences in proportion to the pension responsibility they receive. The service annuity credits under the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund, Partial Reserve Pension Fund, and Supply Reserve Pension Fund related to service in North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference shall be counted as conference pension assets and shall be distributed as Service Annuity Accounts. Any Service Annuity provided therefrom, at the time of the member's retirement, may be counted as a part of the pension payable on the basis of the annuity rate of the successor conference.

7. Any amounts collected by the General Board of Pensions related to claims or claims filed by the North Carolina-Virginia Conference shall be allocated to the successor conferences in accordance with the pro-rata formula used to distribute the assets of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference.

8. The years of approved service rendered in the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, prior to the date of transfer, and the pension assets of the North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference, as determined by this Joint Distributing Committee, shall be allocated as follows:

Annual Conference	Years of Responsibility	Pension Assets	Pro-rata Basis
North Carolina	_____	$ _____	_____
Virginia	_____	$ _____	_____
Western North Carolina	_____	$ _____	_____

9. The General Board of Pensions is hereby authorized and directed to put into effect the principles agreed upon by this Joint Distributing Committee and to distribute the pension assets and responsibilities of the North Carolina-Virginia Conference in accordance with the principles agreed upon by this Joint Distributing Committee.

10. Upon the completion of its work, this Joint Distributing Committee for the North Carolina-Virginia, North Carolina, Virginia, and Western North Carolina Conferences shall be dissolved as required under paragraph 1609 of the 1964 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

Representing the _____ Annual Conference of the Joint Distributing Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

With the closing of this quadrennium the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation of the Methodist Church brings to a culmination the "One Witness In One World." The very unification of the Evangelical United Brethren Church and The Methodist Church serves as an additional remainder of our purpose in One Witness of Jesus Christ or the world.

THE PAST YEAR

1. We commend Bishop Paul Néff Garber and the District Superintendents for their exemplary leadership in giving stress to the Neighborhood-One Program. The rewards are far greater than can be measured in any given statistic. Through the willingness and devotion of lay members of our church the smaller churches became stronger with the shared experiences and leadership of N-1 members.

2. The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation joined with the Conference Board of Lay Activities to sponsor the Conference-Wide Stewardship Rally in the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium on November 6, 1967. The theme of the conference was "We Witness Through Stewardship." Addresses by Dr. G. Don Gilmore, Bobby Richardson, Dr. James Roy Smith, R. R. Allen and Walter Anderson plus the combined choirs of all our Methodist Colleges in the North Carolina Conference stirred the audience to a deeper understanding of Christian Stewardship. The more than two thousand in attendance were challenged and accepted a stronger belief in the Stewardship of the laity. Because of this Rally laymen and clergy returned to their local churches to present a stronger witness and dedication to a more adequate stewardship through the local church. Evidence of this effort is being felt in World Service, Missions and Pastor's salary increases for next year.

THE FUTURE IS UPON US

Unless the Church is present as an agent of constructive change in this age of change we are overlooking a vital mission that lies on everyone's doorstep. One such effort to answer our age of change is the Methodist United Service Training (MUST II). The initiative came from the National Division of the Methodist Board of Missions, which continues to have administrative responsibility and administers Advance Special funds given for projects within MUST II.

The theory behind MUST II is based on a philosophy tested in New York City (MUST I — Metropolitan Service Training Project). It is two-fold:

1. The most effective way to secure change in both clergy and laity is to work with them in the development of resources they already have in them and adjacent to them.
2. The most effective way for renewal in the church is through the creation of grass roots, regional training processes and the development of frameworks to allow for cooperative action.

In other words, MUST II believes that problem solving is done right where the problem is. We best learn in the street, the neighborhood, precinct, or town where the challenge exists. The best teachers are often people in need. The location for training is the local church.

Work is already under way in many areas, awaiting funds for expansion. Other programs await initial funding. Every individual, church, district and annual conference can play a part by supporting MUST II projects with Advance Specials. For additional information on the immediate needs of MUST II, write to the Advance Department, Board of Missions of the United Methodist Church, 465 Riverside Drive, New York, New York 10027. An illustrated brochure, entitled "MUST II" is free for the asking from Service Center, Board of Missions of the United Methodist Church, 7820 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45237.

Again, we commend to your use the filmstrips, "David's World," and "Bridges," and the color film "And On The Eighth Day" from the TRAFICO library. Additional and more current films and filmstrips will be listed with the TRAFICO office in the Methodist Building in Raleigh.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The main job of this board is to publish the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Founded over a hundred years ago, it has today an increasingly urgent mandate to be an effective and eloquent voice in lifting up Christ and in challenging the Methodist people of this state to renewal in faith and in works. We are therefore concerned that all necessary steps be taken to enhance its effectiveness and to broaden the scope of its influence.

Basic to our operation over the years has been the print shop, which has produced the Advocate and has done a substantial amount of printing — mainly church-related — under the trade name of The Piedmont Press. Without the income derived from this facility the Advocate would not have been able to operate over the years without continuous additional financial support. We therefore believe that the operation of this job printing department should be continued.

However, it is essential that our obsolescent equipment be replaced with modern, efficient machinery. The financial loss due to this factor becomes more serious every year. It is the conviction of your board that our equipment should be up-dated immediately. Therefore, we have petitioned the two sponsoring conferences for an annual subsidy to be used to purchase this much-needed equipment.

The major item of equipment needed is a new modern press. We are proposing to make radical changes in the format and content of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. These changes cannot be carried out economically with our present equipment. We anticipate the use of color, and greater use of line drawings, photographs and other techniques of the graphic arts. In other words, it is our purpose to give the Advocate a completely new look, and to bring it into the forefront of our rapidly changing times.

In conjunction with this, we propose in the coming conference year to launch an aggressive, imaginative campaign to sharply increase our circulation. We hereby request the approval and support of the annual conference for such a campaign, and solicit the fullest cooperation from our pastors and churches.

The installation of new equipment will greatly enhance the capability of The Piedmont Press. We urge the increased patronage of our press by churches, conference boards, colleges and other institutions. With added versatility we plan to offer continued high quality work at competitive prices. Also, we would stress the fact that all profits from the operation of The Piedmont Press are invested in the production of a better North Carolina Christian Advocate.

We recommend that a specific campaign for the promotion of the North Carolina Christian Advocate be carried out in every church, either in a cooperative plan with the Committee on Publishing Interests or otherwise as may be set up by the Methodist Board of Publication.

In regard to all of the recommendations made above, we ask that in approving this report, the conference thereby adopt them as a part of the program of the conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

The impending union of the Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church, and the subsequent joining of the general publishing interest of the two churches will bring our Methodist Publishing House to the threshold of a new day of increased service to the eleven million United Methodists. For Publishing House administrators, the year was one of planning and preparation to put the House in the best possible position to carry forward its responsibilities in the new church.

The accomplishments of our Publishing House during the past year are not paralleled in any other year in Methodist Publishing House history, even though comparisons with other years be on percentage bases. The year's financial success has opened the way for needed expansion of the business to include the opening of new Cokesbury stores in Seattle, Washington (November 6, 1967) and Birmingham, Alabama (November 30, 1967).

In consideration of the year's success and prospects for the future, the Board of Publications increased the annual appropriation to the Conference Claimants to $800,000. Of this amount, the North Carolina Conference receives $10,571.37.

The church's reception of the new Methodist Hymnal, published in July 1966, has exceeded all expectations. As this report is written, more than 3,300,000 copies of the hymnal have been ordered and delivered.

Changes in lithographic and bindery equipment, required to produce the new hymnal, have placed the Publishing House in a position to produce larger quantities of printing and to render better service than ever before.

The new and quite different adult literature, "Man's Search for a Meaningful Faith," was ready for fall, 1967, distribution. Plans for new youth materials in 1968 were concluded. Plans for additional adult materials in 1969 were crystalized and feasibility checks are now being made.

During the year, circulation of Together, the general periodical for Methodist families, decreased from 636,893 to 589,914. Significant circulation increases were realized in several annual conferences and episcopal areas, however, as a result of special subscription campaigns.

Other highlights of the year's activity include the following:

- Total distribution of Abingdon Weekly Church Bulletins—85,734,800
- Re-establishment of the Abingdon Award, designed to encourage creative authorship of books of outstanding quality for possible publication by Abingdon Press.
- Publication of 108 new titles by Abingdon Press. Thirteen of these titles were Book Club Guild selections.
- Largest distribution of trade books in the history of the House.
- Armed Forces Unified Curriculum materials experienced an all-time high average circulation of 570,000 units per quarter.

THE FOLLOWING IS OUR PLAN OF ACTION FOR NEXT YEAR:

A. The Committee on Publishing Interests proposes to the Annual Conference that there be a representative of the committee in each local church. This person is to be known as The Church Publication Representative, and is to be elected by the Quarterly Conference (charge conference).

This is an important office and we recommend that due and careful consideration be given in the selection and nomination of this individual by the nomination committee in each local church. Further, we recommend that this individual be elected for a two-year term with the understanding he may succeed himself. This representative will be an at large member of the Administrative Board, A list of these stewards will be sent to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, Together, the Library Division at Nashville, and to Mr. A. R. White in the Cokesbury Book Store in Richmond, Virginia. This list will be sent by the district superintendent after the Fourth Quarterly Conference (charge conference).

We further recommend that the duties of the District Secretary of Publishing Interests be expanded to include promotion of the North Carolina Christian Advocate through the Local Church Publications Steward and for his title to read: District Secretary of Publishing Interests (including the North Carolina Christian Advocate). This has been done after conversation with the editor of the Advocate, Dr. James C. Stokes, and with his approval. If approved, this would eliminate the office of district director of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. We feel the merit in such a proposal is to further consolidate the work of the church to eliminate duplication.

B. The Duties of the At Large Member Are:

- To promote and secure subscriptions to our church papers, periodicals and books.
- To make reports to the Administrative Board and recommend ways to promote publications in the local church.
- To keep an accurate record (up to date) list of subscribers to church papers and periodicals.
- To serve as a resource person in the local church for audio-visual aids.
- To serve as chairman of the Publications Committee where such committee exists in the local church.
- To report his work in the local church to the District Secretary of Publishing Interests (including the North Carolina Christian Advocate).
- To promote libraries in the local church.
- To intelligently represent the work and interests of the Publishing Interests Committee.
- To serve as chairman of the Good Literature Committee where said committee is organized in the local church.

C. We further recommend that our Annual Conference take advantage of the offer of the Methodist Publishing House to provide bulletin inserts periodically, which would promote the "buying of books" by individuals. Each pastor would be responsible for requesting this service, once it is approved by the Annual Conference.

AARON TYSON, Secretary

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUSTENTATION FUND

Ministers' EMERGENCY Aid Fund

1. The Sustentation Fund is to be used for emergency relief in the form of grants to effective ministers and approved supply pastors serving appointments whose salary is paid by the local church or conference treasurer, and who become disabled to the extent that they are unable to continue their work, and whose income is not adequate to meet emergency needs.

2. Emergency appropriations shall be used to bring the disabled minister's income up to a maximum of $4,200 per conference year. If the applicant receives other personal income in excess of $4,200 such additional income shall be deducted from the emergency grant. In no event shall the emergency funds be used to supplement an applicant's income of $4,200 or above.

3. Payment of this $4,200 will be made on the basis of $350 per month. Payments will be made only during those months the applicant qualifies for Emergency Relief Funds. No funds will be appropriated without three-fourths approval of the Sustentation Fund Committee.

4. The Sustentation Fund Committee secretary must place all necessary forms in the hands of the Cabinet members at the beginning of each conference year.

5. In all cases the application forms—district superintendent, the doctor, and the applicant—shall be completed and forwarded to the chairman of the committee before approval of funds will be made except in those special cases as defined in paragraph 6. Any minister expecting to receive Emergency Relief Funds at the beginning of the conference year should make application not later than two weeks before the annual conference convenes.

6. In cases where application for Emergency Funds occurs during the session of the annual conference, the applicant's district superintendent, and the applicant, when possible, shall present an oral application to a joint meeting of the Cabinet and at least three members of the Sustentation Fund Committee. At this time appropriate action will be taken in keeping with the best interest of the applicant and in the spirit of the Emergency Relief Fund. The written forms must be completed and placed with the committee within thirty days of this meeting.

7. Funds will be made payable within thirty days following committee approval.

8. All cases shall be reviewed at the middle of the conference year to determine progress in each case. It shall be the responsibility of each applicant's district superintendent to see that the progress reports—statements from the doctor and the district superintendent—are completed and placed with the committee. Should this review of the applicant's disability reveal that he is capable of resuming work, it shall be the responsibility of the Sustentation Fund Committee to bring this information to the attention of the Cabinet.

9. Should the disability continue beyond one year, we call attention to the fact that the Board of Pensions makes Medical Disability payments based on a man's service years. We also call attention to the fact that it is possible that in some cases retirement may offer specific advantages over Emergency Relief Fund aid.

10. We recommend that the Ministers' Emergency Relief Fund be continued as an appropriation equal to one per cent of the pastor's salary in connection with the Ministers' Retirement Fund. Travel and utility allowances are to be included in the salary appropriation.

11. We recommend that expenses of travel, telephone, postage, etc., for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.

REPORT OF THE TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

The work of the Television, Radio and Film Commission is the business of communicating the Gospel. In light of this fact, your commission has sought to help the churches of our Conference keep abreast of all communication media that we together might better communicate the wondrous message of Jesus and His love.

TRAFECO is happy to render continuous service to the Conference through the Walton Memorial Audio-Visual Library. The Library is located in The Methodist Building, Room 215, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. Mrs. Robert Garrison, Librarian, is giving outstanding service and is always glad to assist in selecting appropriate films and filmstrips for use in the various programs of our churches. The new edition of the Audio-Visual Catalog has been completed and copies are available by writing to Mrs. Garrison at the above address. The catalog will be up-dated each year through supplements that can easily be inserted in the catalog. We continue to cooperate with all the Boards and Agencies of the Conference in purchasing for the library new films and filmstrips, as they are produced, for promoting the work of the church. Many of these agencies buy films and put them in the library for distribution.

Due to increased postal rates, the following changes in rental rates will go into effect July 1, 1968: (1) Filmstrips with record from $1.00 to $1.25; (2) Filmstrips without record from $.50 to $.75; (3) Record Albums from $.75 to $1.00; (4) 16mm films will be evaluated by the executive committee as to cost of rental based upon demand and length of film. By action of the Commission, unpaid rental fees will be handled in this manner: "TRAFCO cannot service requests for films where the account is delinquent 30 days after receiving request for payment."

General TRAFCO has produced a new children's television series called WONDER WINDOW. This series is now being carried on WTVD — Durham and WWAY — Wilmington.

AMERICAN PROFILE, another production of General TRAFCO, is a new idea in positive radio programming. It is designed to help contradict all the "bad news" that pours out to radio listeners each day. It is the story of people making a different kind of news — news of constructive action. Ordinary people tell their stories to host Bob Johnson. They are people involved — doing down to earth things — making a difference in the lives of others. AMERICAN PROFILE is broadcast five times a week on WBBB — Burlington, WCNS — Elizabeth City, WFVG — Fuquay Varina, WWGP — Sanford, WVCB — Shallotte, WENC — Whiteville and WOAM — Williamston.

Next Conference Year, the TRAFCO-TV Ministry Fund goes into the "single figure" asking. Your support of the "single figure" item in your local budget helps us continue to offer our services to your churches.

REPORT NO. 2

It is with a great deal of appreciation that we, the members of the North Carolina Conference Television, Radio and Film Commission, on March 25, 1968, recognize the great contribution of our Quadrennial Chairman, The Reverend Joseph K. Bostick. As we join together in probably the final meeting of the Quadrennium, we express our deepest thanks for his leadership and competence in an executive capacity. We also clearly note that he has never separated the technical and business phases of the work of TRAFCO from its reason for being, that is, using all media available to share the gospel of Jesus Christ with the world.

Joe Bostick completes this year, not only four years as Chairman of TRAFCO, but eight years of service on the Commission. It would be impossible to enumerate all of the contributions and achievements for which he has been responsible. It is without question that his greatest single achievement has been over the entire eight years of unselfish service, to set a real tone and attitude of a servant to the conference, and to foster a new and vital image of the work of Conference TRAFCO.

He has worked closely with and survived two Library catalogues and one supplement. It is true that only he, his family and church members, know how many hours have gone into the superb 1968 edition.

The growth and development of TRAFCO into a full-time service agency was his dream, and he was instrumental in promoting the idea and then having the faith that it would be successful. Only Joe realizes how much of a venture of faith it was on occasion, especially on each trip to World Service Commission in December.

He has himself gone, and made sure others on the commission participated in audio-visual training conferences and communications seminars on a jurisdictional and national level. He has led us to participate in each adventure and program that General TRAFCO has presented.

These are only a few of the many accomplishments for which we honor him this day. A small gift is not adequate to express our fullest appreciation. Best of all, to each of us on the commission, he's still "just Joel!" We thank you and we salute you.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

REPORT No. 1

The 1964-1968 quadrennium of work in the North Carolina Annual Conference of The Methodist Church is now history. Many significant accomplishments have been made by the annual conference during this period. The Commission on Town and Country Work has been involved in causing many of these achievements to be realized.

(1) The minimum salary for the ministers in the North Carolina Annual Conference has been increased from $4200.00 to $5000.00 paid during the current year. The Commission on Town and Country Work recommends that the minimum salary for the ministers in the North Carolina Annual Conference be set at $6,000.00 for the man in the maximum support category by or before the 1971-1972 conference year. To realize this goal, the Commission on Town and Country Work knows that many charges with an inadequate base of support will be challenged to strengthen their commitment by increased stewardship and by uniting with other churches through the realignment of charge boundaries. To have an adequate ministry for the church in the town and country areas, the churches and the annual conference must provide adequate support.

(2) The Commission on Town and Country Work rejoices in the fact that so many of the churches with smaller memberships are strengthening their programs through new forms of ministry and cooperation. The Commission would challenge all churches with smaller membership to look for new ways to minister to the total community with a total witness for Christ. Much can be accomplished through cooperation—among ministers and churches.

(3) The Rural Church of the Year recognition program has been initiated and the first award will be made at the 1968 session of the annual conference. This program is designed to encourage each local church in the rural areas (population less than 2500) to improve its ministry to the community and its participation in the total program of The Methodist Church on all levels.

(4) The Commission on Town and Country Work is pleased to have had a part (through the participation of its chairman) in the development of the Inter-Board Coordinating Council in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The Commission feels that this is a step in the direction of more unified planning and execution of the total administration of the annual conference program.

(5) The Commission on Town and Country Work welcomes the new ministers and the new town and country churches that become a part of the North Carolina Annual Conference as a result of the merger with the North Carolina-Virginia Conference of the Central Jurisdiction. The Commission pledges its support to these ministers and laymen and looks to them for added strength and guidance.

(6) The Commission on Town and Country Work wishes to express its appreciation to Bishop Paul Neff Garber for his inspirational leadership and wise counsel for the past 17 years. Also, appreciation is expressed to Mr. Roy L. Turnage, Jr. for his dedicated service to the Commission during the past 12 years in the capacity of promotional secretary.

It is the dream and prayer of the Commission on Town and Country Work that the total ministry of Christ be realized in increasing effectiveness to all of the people in the town and country areas of eastern North Carolina through the witness of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

No. 2

REPORT OF THE PROMOTIONAL SECRETARY

Once every four years the activities of the Commission on Town and Country Work embraces all levels of the church's program, from the general to the local church level.

Eighteen delegates from the North Carolina Conference attended the National Consultation on the Church in Community Life held at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio, September 5-8, 1967. The first ecumenical consultation of its kind brought together over 2,500 clergy and lay leaders, representing all major denominations, from the non-metropolitan areas of the United States.

On October 23-26, 1967, Town and Country leaders throughout the jurisdiction gathered for the annual meeting of the Fellowship of Town and Country Workers in the Southeast held at the Hinton Rural Life Center located near Hayesville. The commission was represented by six of its members, including the chairman, three district secretaries, and two church and community workers.

The 1968 Seminar on Church and Community was held February 19-20 in the Erdahl-Cloyd Building on the campus of North Carolina State University in Raleigh. "The Church Confronts—Urbanization, Technology, and Secularization" was selected as the theme. Ten persons from our conference connection attended the seminar. The annual meeting is sponsored by the N. C. Council of Churches and N. C. State University in cooperation with the various supporting church bodies.

On the annual conference level the commission cooperated with other boards and agencies in the sponsorship of the following:

Orientation Workshop for Pastors New to the N. C. Conference, Methodist Building, Raleigh, July 5-6, 1967

Duke Divinity School Summer Clinics, Duke University, Durham, July 17-28, 1967. Clinics offered: Church Planning and Development, Campus Ministry, Pastoral Care, Preaching, and Theology.

Pastors' Conference on Evangelism, Methodist College, Fayetteville, August 29-31, 1967. Resource persons: Dr. Wilson O. Weldon, editor, The Upper Room; Dr. James W. Sells, executive secretary, Se. J.

Significant new approaches in the service of the Commission on Town and Country Work to local churches made their appearance on the program scene during the 1967-1968 conference year:

(1) The first, and hopefully a continuing series, of district committee on Youth Services to the Churches, was organized in the Elizabeth City District, February 4, 1968. The purpose of the committee is to help provide youth with service opportunities within the framework of the church, as authorized in Report No. 5, page 310 of the 1967 Conference Journal.

(2) Consultations on Churches with Small Memberships were held in the Elizabeth City and Fayetteville Districts. Reports from these consultations indicate the need for better communication and understanding of churches in this category are at long last being considered.

The Commission on Town and Country Work of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church requests of each local church with less than two hundred and fifty members that a Committee on Cooperation be elected by the Charge Conference and listed among other committees on the official Charge Conference roll. This committee will work with the district superintendent and the district secretary of Town and Country Work to discover new ways to strengthen the mission of the small membership church.

The first Methodist Rural Fellowship retreat was held in the Providence Church, near Goldsboro, on February 27-28, 1968. The retreat proved to be beneficial to the thirty-five ministers and laymen attending. The several sharing sessions were recorded and a report of the findings made by the Reverend H. L. Harrell, president, revealed the hopes and aspirations, as well as many of the frustrations, often related to the rural church and its ministry.

The following is given as information: There are presently operating within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference the following Group Ministries:

East Carteret Group Ministry—1963-1968

Caswell Group Ministry—1966-1968

There are two church and community workers currently engaged in the following areas of our conference:

Salemburg area—Miss Bernice Ballance, worker

Moore County area—Mrs. Edna Swain Williams, worker

During the past seventeen years, which history will record as the "Garber Era" in the North Carolina Conference, the Commission on Town and Country Work is grateful for the opportunity to have had a part in many of the progressive steps taken during these years of phenomenal growth. It is with a deep sense of love and appreciation we hold in the leadership of Bishop Paul Neff Garber over the past four quadrennia as the Episcopal leader of the North Carolina Annual Conference. The example he has set before us will continue to inspire us to "Give of our best to the Master" and to the cause of united Methodism in the North Carolina Conference and throughout the world. For him and Mrs. Garber we pray the continuance of God's love and blessings upon them in their active years of retirement.

—ROY L. TURNAGE

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The annual meeting of the Conference Board of Trustees was held June 13, 1967, at Paul Methodist Church at Goldsboro.

Financial statement of the Board of Trustees presented by the Conference Treasurer showed that funds totaling $348,558.50 were held by the Board of Trustees on June 16, 1967. Statement also showed total earnings for the year ending on the above date to be $6,783.49; disbursements were $7,424.22, which sum was paid to the Board of Pensions

The following officers were elected: J. W. Jenkins, Jr., Chairman; J. W. Page, Vice Chairman; C. A. Dillon, Secretary; James H. Ward, Representative on the Methodist Foundation.

During the year the matter of ownership by the Conference of parsonages for ministers serving the conference headquarters in executive capacities was referred to the Board of Trustees by the Inter-Board Coordinating Council. The trustees made a recommendation which the Inter-Board Coordinating Council amended and adopted.

The conference trustees also held a meeting on April 1 at the conference headquarters building in Raleigh for the purpose of studying the source of funds which had been held in trust and the intended benefit of the donor of such funds.

The audit report of the conference trustees which will appear in the Conference Journal will include a report of the current status of the Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS

The Board of College Visitors of the North Carolina Annual Conference made its yearly visits to the Colleges in our Conference area in the month of March. We were greatly impressed by the growth, maturity and the advancements made by our schools in the past year.

Physical progress is most evident in all of our Colleges. A new dormitory is under construction at Louisburg, to be ready for next year occupancy. The new Library at N. C. Wesleyan is in use since our last visit. At Methodist College the addition to the Student Union, the new Auditorium and the Administration Building are nearing completion.

In our visit with the students, faculty and administration of our colleges we discovered a wonderful degree of maturing — particularly in our two new colleges. The atmosphere of being on a "trial run" is over and a settling down to the accomplishment of a mission is most gratifying. The relationships between these three elements of our colleges seems to be wholesome with respect for and consideration of each other. The absence of extremism attests to the fine type of young men and young women attending our schools as well as a thorough Christian character permeating and undergirding our institutions.

We feel, however, that there is a recommendation of two which need consideration. One of these is that further effort should be made by pastors and laymen to encourage more of our best young people to attend our fine colleges. Pastors, laymen and group of youth are urged to acquaint themselves with the advantages of these Christian colleges by frequent visits to the campuses. Often the lower cost of state supported schools is used as a reason for not attending our private colleges. A study of the advantage offered in a Christian atmosphere, individual attention and superior faculty would be readily apparent to the visitor of our campuses.

Another recommendation would be a continued and increased financial support. We do not want to have to price ourselves out of the student market nor do we want to be in a position of not being able to attract the best of faculty leadership. These can be avoided by our increased financial support of our colleges.

Finally, we are proud of our colleges and the tasks they are doing. They are already wielding a tremendous influence and a wholesome Christian witness in our area and are deserving of the best efforts we can put forth in their behalf.

We express our confidence in the integrity of the trustees and presidents and faculty of our colleges.

ARNOLD POPE, Secretary

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Commission on Christian Vocations is charged with responsibility to interpret Christian Vocations in general, church-related occupations in particular, and the pastoral ministry specifically. During this quadrennium our efforts have centered around three basic considerations: deepening the spiritual disciplines of young people and adults to accept the Lordship of Jesus Christ; development of pastoral and parental encouragement in helping individuals to understand the meaning of vocation and to respond to the needs of service; and conservation of decisions already made for church-related occupations through more effective programs of counseling and guidance.

I. PROGRESS REPORT FOR 1964-68 QUADRENNIUM

During this quadrennium, 1964-68, we have sought to implement these goals in the following ways:

1. We encouraged each local church to organize and activate the Committee on Christian Vocations.
2. We prepared Quarterly Conference Report Blanks to be used by the Local Church Committee at the Fourth Quarterly Conference.
3. We have sent each minister in the conference the booklet, Church-Related Occupations and Short Term Projects, each year. These were also sent to high school and college guidance personnel.
4. We have cooperated with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in promoting observance of Ministry Sunday each year.
5. We have encouraged rallies and programs on Christian Vocations in the MYF both on conference and district levels. One such venture was the "Explore Weekend" held during this conference year.
6. We sponsored tri-district "Bishop's Surveys on Christian Vocations", 1965-66, with Bishop Paul Garber, Rev. James Auman, Dr. Danny Lotz, and Mr. Albert Long assisting us. Approximately 800 people attended these meetings.
7. We sponsored Christian Vocation Rallies for high school juniors and seniors in 1966-67. There were three of these rallies held at Louisburg College, N. C. Wesleyan College, and Methodist College.
8. Ten of our Commission members attended a training session at Lake Junaluska at the beginning of this quadrennium; four attended a regional workshop in Roanoke, Va., in 1966-67.
9. This year, 1967-68, we have written some 5,000 high school and college students our conference indicating our interest in them and seeking to stimulate their interest in church-related occupations. We have been ably assisted by the WSCS in this endeavor.
10. This year, 1967-68, we sponsored a meeting of WSCS District Secretaries of Missionary Personnel and District Directors of Christian Vocations to explore better ways of co-operation, record keeping, and conservation of decisions.
11. We began a project in which we asked local churches to provide information regarding summer jobs for college students. We think this offers opportunities to introduce college students to occupational opportunities in the church. The response has been meager at this time; however, we think this project should be continued.
12. We have emphasized Christian Vocations at the sessions of the N. C. Conference by having speakers such as Dr. Thomas Langford, Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, and Dr. John W. Johannaber.

II. PLANS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

As we look forward to the new quadrennium, we make the following recommendations to the new commission:

1. We recommend that further attempts be made to activate Local Church Committees; more effort be made at following up those who indicate interest in Church-related occupations; continued use be made of the special Fourth Quarterly Report Blank.
2. We recommend that this commission conduct "Campus Consultations on Church-Related Occupations" on the campuses of Louisburg College, N. C. Wesleyan College, Methodist College, East Carolina University, N. C. State University, and Chapel Hill. Rev. Ed Beck has been invited to be the featured speaker at these meetings which we suggest be held in October or November 1968. The purpose of these meetings is to solicit the interest of college students for church-related occupations.
3. We recommend that this commission explore a method of record keeping which will guarantee more adequate conservation of decisions made by young people to enter church-related vocations.
4. We recommend better use of film strips and other audio-visual in our TRAFCO Library; we call to your attention the fact that two persons in our conference, Conrad Cass and Robert Givson, are certified lab instructors in the course "You and Your Life Work."
5. We recommend that this commission co-operate with the Board of Education in promoting programs, rallies, etc., in which some emphasis is given to recruitment; co-operation with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification in promoting the observance of "Ministry Sunday" should continue.

6. We recommend that a listing of summer jobs in local churches be made and that these be distributed to college students seeking summer employment.

7. We recommend that each year the commission order and distribute copies of Methodist Church Related Occupations and Short Term Projects. Copies should be sent to each minister in the conference and to all college and high school guidance personnel in our conference.

8. We recommend that this commission invite the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualification to join it in exploring ways to interpret opportunities for service in the N. C. Conference to graduates of the Duke Divinity School. No such program now exists in our conference, while other conferences do conduct such a program. The time has come for our conference to actively seek these graduates rather than assume they will come our way simply because the school is in the bounds of this annual conference. Such an effort would afford an opportunity to clarify and strengthen the relationship between the N. C. Conference and the Duke Divinity School.

9. We recommend that this commission explore the possibility of establishing a testing and guidance program for high school students who indicate interest in church-related occupations. This can be done in co-operation with one of our colleges.

10. We recommend that local pastors and district directors cooperate with local school officials in promoting Christian Vocations by consultation with guidance counselors, through Career Days, and by making Christian Vocations materials available to these counselors.

III. WE EXPRESS OUR APPRECIATION TO:

1. The presidents, staff, and students of our three colleges; the pastors and members of churches who have hosted our rallies.

2. The Woman's Society of Christian Service for their assistance and for the scholarships which they make available to those entering church related occupations.

3. The cabinet for their continued support and co-operation and especially for their distribution and collection of the Fourth Quarterly Conference Report from the Local Church Committee on Christian Vocations.

4. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, The Board of Education and all other conference boards and agencies who assist us with emphasis upon Christian Vocations.

5. The Conference Board of Lay Activities for its generous "Lay Rally" offerings for scholarships for those entering church related occupations. During this year the following amounts were given to this scholarship fund: Burlington District-$358, Durham District-$350.24, Elizabeth City District $274.64, Fayetteville District $511.01, Goldsboro District $375.31, Greenville District $419.43, New Bern District $268.32, Raleigh District $459.62, Rocky Mount District $288.15, Sanford District $387.54, Wilmington District $279.80.

6. Our district directors of Christian Vocations; H. H. Cameron, J. L. Hunter, J. C. Alexander, Jr., J. S. Epperson, Dennis Ricks, W. T. Owens, H. W. Pearce, C. W. Wooten, Frank E. Berry, J. A. Starnes, L. A. Green, as well as the rest of our commission.

7. Bishop Paul N. Garber for his constant inspiration and assistance; the ministers and laymen of our conference who daily by their lives lead our youth into Christian and church related occupations.

J. C. ALEXANDER, JR., Chairman
JACK L. HUNTER, Vice-Chairman
CHARLES V. BRYANT, Secretary-Treasurer

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service with the Wesleyan Service Guild has had a good year, with apparent growth in many areas.

Last June at Louisburg College a spiritual life retreat was held with 325 women receiving enrichment as we were lead in meditation by Mrs. Lawrence Lacour and in worship by Mrs. Walter McDonald, soloist.

In the area of missionary education new vitality has come to us as the School of Christian Mission has undergone almost total transformation. This transformation began two years ago when the executive committee of the Women's Society voted to open the school to members of the Central Jurisdiction living in our area. The transformation was completed last summer when the Guild weekend of study became a conference-wide weekend of study, with both the weekend and the school open to all in the local church who carry responsibility for the program of study. The presence of many men and of Negro members of the Woman's Society has given our school "The new look". Last summer 650 attended the schools.

In September, at Hayes Barton Church in Raleigh, we held a "World Understanding Workshop: Emphasis, Africa" with the Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Eastern District of the Carolina-Virginia Conference participating. This past winter and spring workshops have been held in the districts.

In February all conference officers and secretaries, all district presidents and a local woman from each district attended the Jurisdiction meeting in Birmingham. This meeting focused on the role of the local woman in the work of the Woman's Society.

The annual meeting was held in Edenton St. Church in March with over 800 women attending. The stimulating program was well received. At the pledge service we made our largest pledge to missions, $208,000, an appropriate closing for our last meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

We have been prepared for this day of union and merger in our Church not only by change and growth during this quadrennium but through our twenty-eight years of work in the Woman's Society and Guild. These have been wonderful rewarding years, years of planning, discarding, trying the new, years of ever widening service, years of fulfillment. We have a great deal to offer The United Methodist Church; we will give responsibly and gladly, knowing that He who brought the Woman's Society of Christian Service to great fruition will also lead us as we enter the Women's Society of Christian Service in The United Methodist Church.

MRS. SAM A. DUNN, President

MRS. J. E. DAVIS, Secretary

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

No. 1

The Commission on World Service and Finance is pleased with the financial response given by the churches of the North Carolina Conference during this quadrennium to undergird the program of Methodism within our borders and beyond. The generous response of our people plus the wise and efficient use of these gifts by the Conference and its agents has enabled us to establish and maintain a sound financial base for our conference work.

During the church year we experienced a great loss in the death of Mr. Alonzo C. Edwards who had served on this commission almost eight years. We acknowledge with profound gratitude his able and faithful Christian service so generously rendered. His contribution to the outstanding progress we have experienced has been most significant.

The response to the Single Figure Asking has been most gratifying. We are grateful to our fellow Methodists and to God that we can make with confidence, as we enter the new quadrennium, the following recommendations which include a large increase in World Service giving and some increases for several conference programs:

The ASKINGS BY DISTRICTS for 1968-1969 are shown in Column A, and ASKINGS for Interdenominational Cooperation Fund are shown in Column B.

District	Column A	Column B
Burlington	$ 227,849.00	$ 927.00
Durham	282,918.00	1,151.00
Elizabeth City	157,606.00	641.00
Fayetteville	239,109.00	972.00
Goldsboro	211,575.00	860.00
Greenville	222,936.00	907.00
New Bern	191,435.00	779.00
Raleigh	338,883.00	1,378.00
Rocky Mount	262,703.00	1,068.00
Sanford	256,970.00	1,045.00
Wilmington	166,972.00	679.00
CONFERENCE TOTALS	$2,558,956.00	$10,407.00

Allocations to the charges shall be made by the Commission on World Service and Finance within the formula provided for the Single Figure Apportionment. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from acceptances up to the amount fixed in the budget. Any surplus shall be held by the conference treasurer to be expended by the Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Commission. In the event collections shall fall short, the Commission recommends that the items shall all be paid pro rata or proportionate as the income relates to the budget. We recommend that the Commission shall be authorized to review the amount of distribution in relation to the need of the cause or project and make any supplementary distribution from available funds, if any, in the conference reserve in accordance with the judgment of the Commission.

$ 333,811.01

COMBINED TOTAL ALL FUNDS HEREIN

IV.

Remittances for these funds will go to Conference Treasurer, P. O. Box 10955, Raleigh, N. C. 27605. Remittance forms should be requested if needed.

The Commission Report of approved requests for supplemental appropriations will be submitted in Report No. 2.

We recommend that the Single Figure Asking approved by the Annual Conference in 1967 be continued.

(a) That a "Single Figure Asking" be made of each charge based on the "Grand Total Paid" as reported in the most recent Conference Journal beginning with the 1967 Journal, less four items:

1. Amount paid on Principal and Interest on Old Indebtedness, loans, mortgages, etc.
2. Paid for Building and Improvements (not including Loans, Mortgages, etc.)
3. Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
4. Conference Capital Expenditures: Colleges, Universities, Seminaries and Wesley Foundations, Camps, Methodist Home for Children, Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

(b) That the "Single Figure Asking" include Items 1-7, namely:

1. District Superintendents' Fund.
2. Episcopal Fund.
3. Conference Pension Fund.
4. Ministers' Retirement Fund and Emergency Aid Fund.
5. Minimum Salary Fund.
6. Pastors' Moving Expense.
7. World Service and Conference Benevolences and other benevolences.

Also, that the following special causes be included for specific amounts in the Single Figure Asking:

1. Christian Education Sunday.
2. TV Ministry.
3. Thanksgiving Offering.
4. Mother's Day Offering.

(c) That the following special offerings be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference Treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Single Figure Asking: Fellowship of Suffering and Service, Methodist Student Day, One Great Hour of Sharing, Race Relations Day.

(d) If an increase in conference budget is necessary, a minimum and maximum increase scale will be set by the Annual Conference. However, no charge would be asked for less than the 8% minimum increase agreed upon and no charge for more than the 14% maximum increase agreed upon for the Conference year 1968-69.

V.

We pay highest tribute to Mr. Marvin J. Cowell for the faithful, dedicated, efficient, and gracious manner in which he has served our Conference as the Conference Treasurer for the past 15 years. During this period of time, tremendous strides have been made in the financial life of our Conference. With his help, the Central Treasury was established and under his cautious and wise guidance these pooled funds have earned for our Conference in excess of $700,000. These earnings have increased greatly the Christian service which our Conference has been able to render. Also, the credit base made possible by the General Treasury has been of great economic value for our Conference in many of her progressive steps, as financing the Methodist Building, the creation of the Department of Gifts and Wills, and providing help for our new colleges at a very crucial point.

In 1938, Mr. Cowell was elected to the Budget Committee of the North Carolina Conference. Later this committee became the Commission on World Service and Finance, of which he was elected secretary in 1941. He has been continuously and closely associated with the financial life of our Conference for 30 years and is without doubt the most knowledgeable person on Conference financial affairs.

Upon his retirement as conference treasurer we recognize Mr. Cowell's tremendous contribution to our Conference and our great indebtedness to him as our first full-time conference treasurer and the one who has established for us a solid foundation upon which we can continue to build. We pray God's blessing upon him.

VI.

MINISTERS' BLUE CROSS PLAN. The Commission on World Service and Finance recommends that this plan specifically include the district superintendents with the District Work Fund to bear the expense of two quarterly premiums and the plan also to include other traveling ministers appointed to positions with the Boards, agencies, and institutions with the board, agency or institution paying two of the quarterly premiums. We call attention to the fact that it is provided that the church or charge pay the premiums due October 1 and April 1. The minister bears the responsibility to see that the church treasurer or treasurer(s) make payments on or before October 1 and April 1; likewise the minister bears the responsibility to make his own payment on or before January 1 and July 1. The group contract provides for no grace period. In completing the statistical report to Annual Conference, the local church payment will be reported under Item 54, "Other Current Expenses."

VII.

LIMITING AND SUPPLEMENTING PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE BUDGET

1. District Superintendents' Fund.

(a) The salary of each of the district superintendents shall be set at $11,500.00 including travel. Such part of said salary that is paid out by such district superintendent to cover the actual costs of all those utilities applicable to the operation and maintenance of his district parsonage is hereby assigned as housing expense not to exceed the sum of $800.00 for heat, water, electrical services and residential telephone. We recommend that all districts assume this expense.

(b) To provide for Cabinet meeting expenses.

(c) We recommend that beginning with the conference year 1968-1969 and continuing each year thereafter, an annual appropriation equal to twelve times the current annuity rate be made to the Conference Board of Pensions for each district superintendent.

2. We approve the use of an amount up to $3,000 to be provided by each district for the district superintendent for secretarial help and promotion of the district program.

3. The Commission recommends that each person who has authority to draw checks against an account of a conference agency be required to present annually to the full membership of his agency a complete list of all checks drawn, justifying all checks with the budget approved by his agency.

4. The Commission recommends that each agency whose accounts are not audited in the treasurer's office be required to have an annual audit made and furnish this commission with a copy of it.

5. Under the Church Extension Fund the first $45,000 is earmarked to be paid to the Board of Missions, Inc. for the revolving fund to be used for loans to build churches and/or acquire choice sites for new congregations or to repay money borrowed by Board of Missions, Inc.

6. The Commission recommends that no conference agency's budget incorporate within its funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

7. We recommend that monies paid by charges toward the Single Figure Asking be reported to the statistician by the Conference Treasurer and that all other funds paid by the local church to be reported in the Pastor's Report, Table # II.

VIII.

We recommend approval of the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the conference.

1. Christmas Offering 1968 for District Superintendents' program and/or projects should be clearly defined in plenty of time to have successful promotion.

2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.

3. That the Board of Education be authorized to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.

4. Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions.

5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated, for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

6. The Methodist Home for Children for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

7. The Methodist Foundation, Inc., as provided in its charter.

8. The Town and Country Commission, Rural Church Fund, for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

IX.

We recommend to charge our church treasurers that they set up a schedule for remitting at a stated time each month and to close their year as early as possible. Final remittance should be mailed by Monday one week preceding the opening of Conference. By use of our data-processing equipment, in this time, we can summarize our current fund receipts and present this to our people at our Annual Conference session.

We recommend that local churches remit in eleven installments commencing on the first Monday in July and terminating the Monday preceding conference. They can be exactly or approximately equal. It simplifies the work of the local church treasurer for these periodic remittances to include one or several items in whole or in part rather than to remit one-eleventh of each and every item.

The pastors bear responsibility to check with their local treasurers for full remittance of all budgeted items and all funds collected as specials and to harmonize their reports to Annual Conference with Conference Treasurer's acknowledgments both received and pending. Pastors should compare and keep on file all acknowledgments and Data Processing reports from the conference treasurer. Errors, if detected, should be reported.

We report the issuance of a Fidelity Bond in Employers Mutual Casualty Company of Des Moines, Iowa, to cover the conference treasurer in the amount of $100,000.00 and to cover the assistant treasurer in the amount of $25,000.00; others to a minimum of $10,000.00 in said office. Also, to cover others handling funds: Superintendent of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., $50,000.00; Administrative Assistant of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., $50,000.00; and others to the amount of $10,000.00 in various offices. Executive Secretary, Board of Missions, Inc., $50,000.00; Inter-conference Commission on Campus Ministry Treasurer, $35,000.00.

We recommend the continuation of A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors.

In accordance with the action of the 1965 Annual Conference, the closing dates for our conference fiscal year will be as follows:

1968 — June 8

1969 — May 31

We recommend that the president, the vice-president and secretary of the Commission and the conference treasurer shall serve as the executive committee of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

The Commission nominates Charles K. McAdams for the office of conference treasurer, and Mrs. Eda M. Rogers, Assistant Conference Treasurer.

XI.

We recommend that the Conference fiscal year close May 31, 1969. However, we call attention to the fact that the General Conference has changed the fiscal year of the general church to close December 31. In the light of this change, we request all churches to remit 7/12ths of the "Single Figure Acceptance" by December 31 so the Conference can meet its commitment, and we recommend that the Commission on World Service and Finance study carefully the effect upon our Conference of the General Church's action to establish the calendar year as its fiscal year and to make appropriate recommendations at the next regular session of the Annual Conference.

We call attention to the fact that the pastor's salary as set by a charge's Quarterly Conference is for a conference year: that is, from one session of the Annual Conference to the next session of the Annual Conference. In keeping with our recommendation that the Conference fiscal year close May 31, we recommend that each Charge pay the salary promised the pastor for the Conference year by that date.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Throughout this quadrennium, your Commission on Worship has tried to be sensitive both to our historic Methodist usages in worship and to the demands of today's mobile and universal culture. We have delighted in seeing fresh interest in the worship life of the Church and have engaged in those tasks that seemed best to meet the needs underlined by this interest.

Our Fall Planning Meeting in Stantonburg was devoted to a study of the literature in the field of Christian funerals. Thus the foundation was laid for the series of Seminars on the Funeral.

In co-operation with the chaplains of the Duke University Medical Center, the Commission did sponsor in each district a Seminar on the Funeral. More than four hundred ministers and laymen were reached by these sessions, dealing with the grief experience, relationships between clergymen and funeral directors, and the funeral service. Copies of the study book are available from the Secretary.

Just before Palm Sunday, more than thirteen hundred boys and girls from Confirmation Classes across the conference participated in the Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists. This year we expanded to three such meetings: Edenton Street Church, Raleigh; St. James Church, Greenville; and Haymount Church, Fayetteville. Bishop Garber spoke on "Full and Responsible Membership" and then spent time with the children in informal, smaller groups.

Our recommendation for the new conference year include:

(1) A Planning Meeting is to be held at Camp Rockfish, September 19-20, 1968.
(2) From January 20, 1969 to January 29, 1969, we shall conduct across the conference a series of five Seminars on the Wedding.

(3) We shall sponsor again the Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists, with sessions to be at Raleigh on March 15, 1969, at Greenville on March 22, 1969, and at Fayetteville on March 29, 1969.

(4) We encourage study experiences on the local level, to examine the worship life of our congregations, both in terms of the Sunday service and the Holy Communion, and the occasional services.

*RESOLUTIONS

JOINT RESOLUTION TO THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BY COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK AND THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Whereas, the work of the Commission on Town and Country Work and the Committee on Urban Work need to be in a real close relationship both now and in the future;

Whereas, The United Methodist Church meeting in Dallas, Texas, adopted measures by which a Church and Community Committee would be the instrument for both Town and Country and Urban Committees;

Whereas, The United Methodist Church in its organization at Dallas, Texas, changed the relationship of the former Commission on Town and Country Work so that it now is amenable to the Conference Board of Missions;

Whereas, the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and the Commission on Town and Country Work met jointly May 27th and agreed to a plan of action that all felt would better meet the needs of the North Carolina Conference in the future;

Be it Therefore Resolved:

That the North Carolina Conference follow Paragraph 1048, p. 111, of the "White Book of Reports" of The United Methodist Church as the method of continuing the work of the former Commission on Town and Country Work of the North Carolina Conference. Paragraph 1048 states:

1048. Church and Community Committee. 1. The board may form, in consultation with the Cabinet and the chairmen of other boards to be represented, a Church and Community Committee. The committee shall be composed of such members as the Conference Board of Missions may determine. The bishops and district superintendents are ex officio members of the committee.

2. The Church and Community Committee shall work with appropriate representatives of community agencies, other denominations and interdenominational and interfaith bodies, and other boards and agencies of The United Methodist Church in the execution of the following responsibilities:

a) The regular conduct of research studies and community surveys essential for planning and decision-making on the church and community concerns of the conference.

b) The development and utilization of long-term planning and strategy resources for the home mission and extension work of the Conference Board of Missions across both rural and urban areas in cooperation with the cabinet and appropriate council boards and agencies. This assumes a regularized appraisal and definition of needs, resources, objectives, and programs, and evaluation processes.

c) The development of church and community programs which will improve the effectiveness of urban and town and country ministries, including joint endeavors with other denominations and with social agencies similarly involved in community planning and problems.

d) The facilities of communication and joint action on community concerns with the National Division and local or district societies, commissions, or committees.

3. The committee may elect such officers and appoint such sub-committees deemed necessary for the conduct of its responsibilities. The committee, which provides an integrating church and community alternative to the Committee on Urban Work and the Committee on Town and Country Work, may have sub-committees on specific rural and urban concerns.

Be it Further Resolved:

That the financial appropriation of the present Commission on Town and Country for 1968-69 be transferred to the budget of the Board of Missions and retained for underwriting the program of the Church and Community Committee. The funds of the present Committee on Urban Work will be commingled with the appropriation for the Commission on Town and Country Work. These funds will be available for the work of the Church and Community Committee.

*Resolutions that do not appear in the Minutes, pages 112-133, Section III, nor in Reports, pages 191-319, Section V, are recorded at the end of Section V, pages 320-322 (Editor).

That a minimum of 25% of the elected membership of the Board of Missions be members of the Committee on Church and Community.

That the chairman of the Church and Community Committee be a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

That Bishop Garber and the Cabinet be requested to appoint District Secretaries of Church and Community who will be members of the Church and Community Committee and will coordinate its work through the district.

RESOLUTION OF GRATITUDE FOR THE RURAL CHURCH FUND OF THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

Whereas, for over 30 years the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church has been the beneficiary of grants totaling in excess of $6,000,000.00 from the Rural Church Fund of the Duke Endowment; and

Whereas, over 500 local churches of the North Carolina Annual Conference in population places of less than 1500 persons have benefited through building grants, special project funds, pastoral supplements, and superannuate funds from the generosity of this endowment; and

Whereas, more than 100 pastors in the North Carolina Annual Conference receive financial assistance from the Duke Endowment annually; and

Whereas, the superannuated ministers of the North Carolina Annual Conference and their wives receive an annual check at Christmas each year, which check amounted to $7,775.00 for the current year;

Be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, this sixth day of June, 1968, express its sincere gratitude to the Rural Church Committee of the Duke Endowment for the benevolence shown to the ministers and churches of the North Carolina Annual Conference during the period of the indenture.

Be it further resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference express its gratitude for the faithful and helpful manner in which these funds have been administered by the late Dr. J. M. Ormond, Dr. A. J. Walton, and Dr. M. Wilson Nesbitt.

IN APPRECIATION

I began my ministry in the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1940. In the 1940's and in 1950, I was distressed to see deterioration throughout the Conference. Churches were being closed. Our only college was at the point of closing. Ministerial morale was poor. We were resigned to retrogression.

In 1951, Paul Neff Garber became our episcopal leader. Immediately, the bishop went to work on various progressive projects. The tide turned. The Conference developed the "movement mind." Retrogression changed to progression. The institutional achievements are visible and valuable. Ministerial morale is greatly improved. Laymen and laywomen, in the work of the local churches and of the Conference, are undertaking increasingly their rightful share of leadership. The Conference has a new spirit.

Bishop Horace M. DuBose, in his book titled Francis Asbury, published in 1909, stated on page 113:

"The careful student may discover in the destiny-used men of all times a quality of personality which suggests a truer philosophical basis of history than do the data arranged by either Buckle or Guizot. That quality is the ability of the actor in history not only to see the supreme opportunity when it is presented, but to rise to the height of its tests and requirements. This was the quality of Francis Asbury that stood him in the stead of genius. His sincerity of purpose and instant preparation of life were something more than the fruit of even religious loyalty. They were the manifestation of the spirit of history, the answer to the intelligent ordering and execution of the plans of Providence . . ."

That which was said about Bishop Francis Asbury could be said about Bishop Paul Garber.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT OF BOARD OPERATIONS

For 1967-68 Conference Year Ended

June 8, 1968

June 8, 1968

The Commission on World Service and Finance
North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, S.E.J.
Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

Herewith is presented our report on the operations of the various boards and committees, the funds of which are handled in the Central Treasurer's office, for the 1967-1968 Conference Year ended June 8, 1968, consisting of the schedules as set forth in the index.

These statements have been examined by A. M. Pullen & Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, North Carolina, in connection with their annual audit of our accounts and are presented in summary form in Exhibit "B" of their report which is published in the Conference Journal.

We also take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the members of the Commission for their dedication and unselfish service to the Church in the work of this office, and to all ministers and laymen of this conference for their cooperation and assistance during the past fifteen conference years.

Sincerely yours,
MARVIN J. COWELL
Conference Treasurer

MARVIN J. COWELL

(Conference Treasurer, 1953-1968)

As one of the chief architects of the present financial structure of the North Carolina Conference, Mr. Cowell has been identified with the fiscal affairs of the Church for thirty years. He became the first Conference Treasurer when the Central Treasury was established in 1953. His record of faithful service as a devoted layman predates by a long period his election to this highly responsible office. His reflections in retirement bring abundant joy and satisfaction to this loyal servant of Christ and his Church whose labors of love and work of faith forwarded many good Causes of the Kingdom and caused them to prosper, thus blessing humanity.

To the Commission on World Service and Finance,
North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the books and financial records of M. J. Cowell, Treasurer North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The Methodist Church, as of June 8, 1968 for the 1967-68 Conference Year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income, expense or distribution and fund balance present fairly the financial position of M. J. Cowell, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The Methodist Church, at June 8, 1968, and the results of its operations for the 1967-68 Conference Year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles of the Conference applied on a basis consistent with that of the previous year.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGES

The Conference has approved a change in its fiscal year ending to May 31 of each year. In order to effect this change with a minimum of financial problems, the following closing dates were adopted:

Conference Year 1964-65	—	June 30, 1965
Conference Year 1965-66	—	June 23, 1966
Conference Year 1966-67	—	June 16, 1967
Conference Year 1967-68	—	June 8, 1968
Conference Year 1968-69	—	May 31, 1969

The following funds were changed directly to a May 31 closing during the 1965-66 Conference Year:

Methodist Foundation, Inc.
College Capital Fund Campaign
$10.00 Club

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The results of operations of the funds, boards and committees are presented in summary form in Exhibit "B," Statement of Income, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balance.

Mr. M. J. Cowell, Conference Treasurer, has prepared statements from his records for publication in the Conference Journal, comprising the details of the results of operations as summarized in Exhibit "B" of our report. These detailed statements, with reference numbers corresponding to Exhibit "B," are presented under the title "Treasurer's Statement of Board Operations" and have been verified by us. The method of presentation in the Conference Treasurer's report differs from this report in the following schedules:

Schedule H-1	Ministers' Blue Cross Fund
	The result of this statement is not presented in this report.
Schedule T	The Conference Treasurer's statement states the securities at market value while this report states the securities at cost value.
Schedule L-1	Interboard Coordinating Council.
	Pension plan expense for 1968-1969 is not reflected in the Conference Treasurer's report.

Exhibit "C," Income from Charges by Districts, presents the income for the various apportioned and special items for the 1967-68 Conference Year. The following is a comparison by districts for the apportionments and income for the current conference Year:

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

The scope of our examination is contained in our opening letter. Certain features of the examination are set forth below.

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges, as shown by the Treasurer's records, was confirmed directly with the pastors, and minor differences reported to us as of the date of this report were adjusted or satisfactorily explained.

Distribution of income from charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1967 and 1968 sessions of the Annual Conference and by reference to proper authorizations from the various boards of the Conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and of the various boards and funds were either inspected or, if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our examination.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1967-68 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and were set up from deposits in the bank accounts. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for the distribution of 1967-68 collections.

b. METHODIST YOUTH ASSEMBLIES

The Reverend J. Conrad Glass, Director

Methodist Youth Assemblies

Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the financial records and have prepared the attached statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the METHODIST YOUTH ASSEMBLIES — NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, for the year ended June 30, 1968. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of cash receipts and disbursements presents fairly the cash transactions of the METHODIST YOUTH ASSEMBLIES — NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE for the year ended June 30, 1968.

STATISTICAL TABLES

Compiled and Edited by

D. D. TRAYNHAM, Conference Statistician

Note: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH numbers have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.
